Canadiens And Leafs Win Saturday Games

MONTREAL, Nov. 2 — (CP) — Montreal Canadiens handily defeated New York Rangers 4-1 Saturday night before Montreal's largest National Hockey League crowd of the season—14,787 fans who screamed and howled in vain for Maurice Richard to set a goal-scoring record.

The Rocket came close several times, but was shadowed throughout by Ed Kullman and had only seven shots on goal. The goal-scoring was looked after by Bert Olmstead, Floyd Curry and Tom Johnson. Rangers goal was scored by Jim Conacher.

Everything was all set for a big whoop-de-doo over Richard, but goal No. 325 just wasn't there. On hand, and wishing Richard well at the initial centre-ice-face-off, was Nels (Ole Poison) Stewart who scored 324 goals while playing with the old Montreal Maroons, Boston Bruins and New York Americans. Richard tied the 324 record last Wednesday in Toronto.

As the game wore along, Richard remained on the ice for extra duty in an effort to get the big goal, playing the right wing spot on different lines.

On his first chance, early in the game, he couldn't control the puck. In the second period he drove a hard, low shot but little Lorne Worsley, in the Ranger nets, kicked it aside. In the third period, Richard's push shot sent the puck rolling off Worsley's stick and almost over the line.

TORONTO 3, BOSTON 2

TORONTO, Nov. 2 — (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs, who had been able to score only once on Boston's Sugar Jim Henry in two games, "splurged" for three goals Saturday night and a 3-2 victory over the Bruins. The Bruins previously had beaten the Leafs 2-1 and 4-0.

The first period was scoreless and the Leafs finally got past a tight Boston defence and goalie Sugar Jim for two goals in the second. The two Bruin tallies were sandwiched around a Leaf counter in the final 20 minutes.

Utility centre Bob Hassard, who made brief appearances with Toronto in 1950 and '51 before being shunted back to Pittsburgh Hornets last season, Max Bentley and Sid Smith were the Leaf marksmen.

The Boston tallies were by Ed Sandford and Fleming Mackell, a former Leaf.

Paul Jay and Paul took it on the bounce. He rounded the lone defender and raced across the line for the final try. The convert from a difficult angle was missed.

Throughout the game the Saints scrum played exceptionally well and fellows who did not figure in the scoring, like Ronnie McIvor, John Mullally, Fred Driscoll and Charlie Cheverie turned in strong games.

The game was handled by Gordon Bennett and once again Gordon turned in a top notch job on the whistle.

Following are the lineups:—

S. D. U.: Fullback, J. Reardon; three-quarters, P. Coyle, C. MacDonald, P. Jay, L. Gaudet; halves, P. Dunphy, A. MacDonald; forwards, J. Mullally, R. McIvor, F. Driscoll, C. Callaghan, A. Pendergast, C. Cheverie; subs, G. Dorias, C. MacIsaac, J. Mullally.

Acadia: Fullback, K. Atkins; three-quarters, R. Nicholson, Nickerson, Ford, Wentzell; halves, McTavish, Cox; forwards, McLatchey, MacNeill, Fraser, Hoyt, Meynell, Sears; subs, MacNeely, MacLachlin.

C. N. R. Plans To Speed Up L.C.L. Freight

MONTREAL, Nov. 3 — A "high ball" service to give preferential treatment for less-than-carload merchandise traffic was announced here today by the Canadian National Railways.

Under the new plan lcl. shipments will be moved with the same dispatch as perishable and livestock traffic. Distinctive placards of bright yellow centred with a green ball will be placed on the cars and they will receive priority handling at stations, freight sheds and distribution points across the National system.

The new service will give lcl. shipments the speed of scheduled fast freights.

Thus lcl. shipments will be delivered overnight Toronto to Montreal and on the fourth morning from Montreal to Halifax to Montreal to Winnipeg.

Quebec Plans Tests For Prospective Car Drivers

QUEBEC, Nov. 2 — (CP) — The Quebec Government will ask the Legislature to impose rigid tests on persons who want permits to drive automobiles, Solicitor General Antoine Rivard said today.

Mr. Rivard said government legislation to impose the tests will be introduced during the Legislature session opening Nov. 12. He added details of the proposed law will be known when it is tabled.

The bill, it is understood, will require permit applicants to submit a variety of physical and driving tests.

Announcement of the bill climaxes a long campaign by government and public organizations to halt a mounting rate of traffic accidents. Automobile insurance rates in Quebec are higher than in any other province.

First hint of the forthcoming measure was Premier Duplessis' statement a few weeks ago that tests might be imposed on applicants for driving permits.

Any man or woman, at least 21 years old, could obtain a driver's permit, until now, simply by applying for it at a licence bureau and paying a $2.50 fee. With written consent of parents, 18-year-olds could get permits without any trouble.

Last Wednesday, the Quebec Department of Finance, under whose authority the permits are issued, quietly ordered all permit bureaux to refuse applications, unless for renewal of a permit.

In Montreal and Quebec only the head bureaux now are authorized to deal with new applicants.

Seemingly, the Finance Department acted on the presumption that Premier Duplessis' hint might send would-be drivers rushing to buy their permits before the bill becomes law.

Only applicants who can prove they need permits to earn their livelihoods have been issued permits so far and they've been subjected to a series of ocular and driving tests.

Rioting Continues In Ohio Prison

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 2—(AP) —Warden Ralph Alvis said tonight 1,600 convicts in four cellblocks of the riot-torn Ohio Penitentiary are "out of control" and that guards shot and wounded one long-term prisoner who was trying to escape.

"We have never had complete control of these men since the riot," said Alvis at a press conference.

The warden identified the wounded convict as 28-year-old Everett Hodge of Cincinnati, serving 10 to 25 years for armed robbery.

The convict's condition is not serious.

Tonight's disturbance was a sequel to the Hallowe'en food riot by 2,000 prisoners which caused about $1,000,000 damage to the 117-year-old penitentiary.

"The situation is very tense at Ohio Penitentiary," Alvis said. "The men of G, H, I and K cellblocks are still the same as they were—out of control inside the cellblocks."

The campaign ranks with any of the past as far as angry words and fierce muck-raking are concerned. Words such as "bigotry", "smear", and "fraud", were used frequently.

Towards the end, the contestants were running out of objectives.

The contest began on a high level in July when national conventions picked Stevenson as Democratic candidate and Eisenhower as Republican standard-bearer.

President Truman got into it; political writers said he sought to protect his place in history. He castigated Eisenhower.

As the campaign wore on, the Republicans dragged in the "white supremacy" issue and charged the Democratic administration with encouraging inflation for political purposes. The Democrats came out with newspaper ads showing pictures of bread lines in the days of Republican President Hoover, to hammer home the theme, "Don't let them take it away."

War Issue Stressed

In the closing days, both sides seemed to reach the conclusion that the Korean war might be the deciding issue.

The General promised that if elected he would go to Korea to try to bring the war "to an early and honorable end."

Stevenson said there was "no slick and easy way" out of the Korean stalemate and said the solution to the war lay in Moscow, not in Korea.

The war issue shoved into the background such issues as Communism, corruption in government, civil rights for minorities, "prosperity" and "isolationism."

Calling this election was different than in 1948. An expert had to know the answers to: What effect will television have on the voting; how do the women feel; what will the farmers do this time; how will the shift of city dwellers to the suburbs effect the election; how solid is the "solid south?"

Since 1948 television has gone into millions of homes and voters who had no more than a glimpse of candidates in previous years now know their faces and mannerisms.

Women Outnumber Men

Women of voting age now outnumber men by about 2,000,000.

Many farmers voted for Truman four years ago. But in the last two months farm prices have dropped appreciably.

Many Negroes have migrated to the north; workers have moved out of the crowded cities into the suburbs affecting the pattern of electoral districts. Northerners have moved to the Far West.

In the south,, solidly Democratic since the reconstruction days after the Civil War, there are signs of revolt. Such men as Governors Allan Shivers of Texas, James Byrnes of South Carolina and Robert Kennon of Louisiana may lead many Democratic votes into the Republican fold.

Then there is the possibility of a last-minute switch. That is what elected Truman in 1948 after the experts had gone for Dewey.

The pollsters are emphasizing the weight of the "undecided" ranks among voters.

Politicians are wondering what will be the effect of the Chester, Ill., prison rebellion which forced Stevenson to interrupt his campaign and fly to the prison where the riot ended after an ultimatum was issued.

As the campaign drew to its end, politicians anxiously watched such states as New York, California and Illinois, all rated as doubtful. Together they have 104 electoral votes, a big chunk of the 266 needed to put a man in the White House.

It all added up to a national picture in which the experts figured, anything might happen.

In Maryland, a psychology professor said Stevenson is an introvert, and in time of crisis Americans vote for an introvert.

A magazine relied on the zodiac to plump for Eisenhower.

Saturday's Answer

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

is L O N G F E L L O W
A X Y D L B A A X R

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
