

after, you may enjoy all the comfort and happiness which are wished you by your most devoted and obedient servants, In behalf of the Inhabitants,

- FIDELE GALLANT, JOHN ARSNEAUX, FIDELE J. GAUDEY, FIDELE PENNY, SYLVAN GALLANT, CHARLES GALLANT, THOMAS BERNARD, ONSINE BERNARD, JOHN CLARK, SYLVAN ARSNEAUX.

TO THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF THE FIRST DISTRICT OF PRINCE COUNTY.

MY DEAR FRIENDS— I return my sincere thanks for the flattering address you have so kindly presented to me on retiring from your District. My gratification will be complete if you return (as I have no doubt you will,) at the coming election, the two Liberal candidates, Messrs. Conroy and Doyle, who are now in the field, in opposition to the Tory candidates.

When I made up my mind to contest the Second District, I felt quite satisfied you would appreciate my endeavours to secure the return (as I am sure I shall) of another member to support the cause of civil and religious freedom. I regret the course my duty to you has compelled me to pursue, for I am well aware no one could poll a greater number of votes in the first District than myself, nor would you find either of the present Liberal candidates opposing me, were I a candidate for your suffrages, for both of these gentlemen retired from the contest last year lest they might injure the Liberal cause.

I thank you for the kind wishes expressed by you towards my wife and family; and if they have extended the rights of hospitality to you, have you not at all times received me and mine into your houses, more as one of yourselves than as a way-farer? And I hope when I am no longer your Representative, I may have many occasions of again expressing the kind hospitality I have always met with amongst you. Wishing you prosperity and happiness,

I remain, your obliged and grateful friend, JAMES WARBURTON.

Wood-brook, March 15th, 1859.

The Examiner.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., MARCH 22, 1859.

THE RESULTS OF THE ELECTION.

We have delayed the publication of our paper considerably beyond the usual time, so as to obtain, if possible, full and authentic accounts of the returns in the several districts on Saturday last, but it was not until a late hour yesterday (Monday) that accounts were received from some of the more distant sections of the Island, and there are yet several constituencies regarding the returns from which much doubt is entertained. We give, however, below such information as we have obtained.

Queen's County has returned the same proportion of Liberals and Tories as it did at the last election, that is—two of the former and eight of the latter. Charlottetown was very spiritedly contested, and the number of votes polled showed the increasing strength of Liberal opinions and the corresponding decline of Toryism. The first district has shown its great regard for intellectual acquirements on the part of its representatives by returning two dummies. The second district will be honoured by the ornate eloquence of Mr. J. Longworth, and the time-serving political principles of Mr. Laird will be rewarded by further recognition in the same district. Messrs. Coles and Kelly occupy a higher position in the third district than they did after the last general election, having obtained larger majorities over their opponents. The following is the state of the Poll at the close in this District:—

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Hon. George Coles, 863; Hon. Francis Kelly, 825; Henry Longworth, Esq., 690; John A. McDonald, Esq., 655.

The fourth district has shown, as usual, its attachment to proprietary bondage by returning Mr. Douse and his nominee, Col. Gray.

The information from Prince County is vague in some particulars. The contest in the Royalty and Lot 18 has been very close between Benjamin Davies, Esq., and the Hon. D. Montgomery. The former was seven votes ahead at the close of the poll, and it is expected that there will be several special votes on both sides—perhaps as many on the one as on the other—and there is very little doubt that Mr. Davies will take the seat. Mr. Sinclair was far ahead of the other two candidates on the poll. The result at the close was as follows:—

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. George Sinclair, Esq., 273; Benjamin Davies, Esq., 160; Hon. D. Montgomery, 153.

It is generally reported and believed that Messrs. Conroy and Doyle (both in the Liberal interest) have been returned for the first district.—Some doubt is expressed as to the return of the Hon. Mr. Warburton for the second district; but we think this honorable gentleman would not have voluntarily given up a district that was certain to return him, such as the first, unless he was tolerably sure of success in the other. We, therefore, confidently hope to find Mr. Warburton a member of the new House.—The third district has, we believe, sent back its late members, the Hon. S. F. Perry and James Yeo, Esq.; and the fourth district has re-elected J. C. Pope, Esq., and given him Mr. C. Howatt for a colleague:—thus shewing, on the whole, that the proportion of Liberals and Tories will be the same in Prince County as at the last election.

The returns from King's County show a similar result. At the last election we had eight Liberals to two Tories. We believe we have the same number yet. Georgetown has again returned Messrs. McDonald and Haviland, and we learn that the majority of the first named gentleman will be larger than it was on the former occasion.—The first district has returned, we understand, its late representatives, Messrs. Knight and Cooper, by overwhelming majorities.—In the second district, John Sutherland, Esq., (a staunch Liberal), has taken the place of the former much respected member, Joseph Dingwell, Esq. Mr. Sutherland and Mr. Whelan were elected without any difficulty, as the following state of the poll will show:—

The above statement from the Bay Fortune polling division only shows the number of votes polled up to between two and three o'clock. It was likely there would be fourteen or fifteen more votes each for Messrs. Whelan and Sutherland, and possibly three or four for Mr. Cox.—In the third district the Hon.

Mr. Thornton has been re-elected, and report says that the Liberal cause has gained strength in that district by sending in Mr. Ronald Walker as colleague to the late Speaker in opposition to Mr. Thomas Owen, junr., the bully of his party.—Another change is said to have taken place in the representation of the fourth district—the political parsons having succeeded in getting a weak-minded man like Mr. Finlay McNeill preferred to a man of sterling worth and independence like Mr. George Harris. The parsons who led the unholy crusade, in connection with a worthless fellow who enjoys the local soubriquet of "the devil," are Rev. Alex. Sutherland, of New London, a Mr. McKay, of Belfast, another of the same name, of Murray Harbour, a Mr. McNeill, of Wood Islands, and a Mr. Munro, of Brown's Creek. Those clergymen, we are informed, were at work day and night since the dissolution, poisoning the minds of their credulous and weak-minded followers by falsehood and misrepresentation against the Government generally, and Mr. Harris in particular. If they have obtained a victory by such disreputable means, they have paid heavily for it, if their consciences are not of the most accommodating description.

With the imperfect information before us, we can hardly state positively what will be the relative strength of parties; but it seems to us, that the numbers will be something like what they were in the late House, namely 16 Liberals to 14 Tories—eight Liberals for King's County, six for Prince, and two for Queen's County. That our opponents are not very well pleased with the result of the general election, is evident from the clatter which they have already commenced—and which always follows defeat with them—about scrutinies and petitions to the House of Assembly against the return of certain members with whom their minions were too weak to contend. Tory ambition is a very rapacious animal, and will swallow any garbage to appease its cravings. The doctrine appears to be generally inculcated amongst the faction—get seats in the House of Assembly by honourable competition, if you can; but by any means get seats in the House of Assembly.

We shall publish in our next No. a correct list of the names of the members returned, together with a true statement of the number of votes recorded in each Town and District.

AN INCIDENT OF THE CHARLOTTETOWN ELECTION.

A few sick, infirm, or crippled electors were taken in carriages to the Poll, and the votes of such electors, on both sides, were given and received over the heads of the crowd surrounding the hustings. One of these crippled, sick, or infirm electors, who certainly was not one of our "fat and greasy citizens," "in broad cloth buttoned to the chin," but nevertheless an individual of very decent exterior, was driven up outside the crowd, in front of the hustings, King's Square, by Doctor Jenkins, to vote for him, and, on the Doctor's calling upon the Returning Officer to take the poor man's vote, George Beer, Esquire and City Councillor to boot, we believe, called out, in the exuberance of his native insolence and vulgarity, "Doctor, where did you pick up that man? Have you brought him from the Asylum?" This was, no doubt, intended for wit by the ex-butcher, and such, in his coarse estimation, most assuredly it was. But prevalent as the hateful rancour of party spirit may have been at the time around the hustings, so powerful was the sense of right feeling and humanity in all besides the ex-butcher who heard the ungenerous and brutal sarcasm, that not one solitary individual was found to approve it by laugh or smile.

To the most unbecoming and insolent query of Mr. Beer, Doctor Jenkins, as a gentleman, could vouchsafe no other rebuke than that of silent contempt; and such, of course, was the only chastisement he inflicted upon his low-minded and vulgar interrogator; and, had the ex-butcher himself been possessed of any of the feelings of a gentleman, more severely would he have been cut by it than by a sound horsewhipping, which, needless, he to boot most richly deserved.

As respects the ex-butcher Beer himself, in particular, one would, however, have thought that wholesome and restraining, if not either pleasing or grateful recollections of parish relief and parish poor-houses in England, would have taught him, low, rude, and coarse as he is by nature, the wisdom and propriety of forbearance towards a son of poverty. But hard, indeed, as the poet expresses it, is the fate of the infirm and poor, and most cruelly so especially when they must submit to the unfeeling taunts and jeers of men who, having from their original state of abject poverty or positive pauperism, attained to the possession of worldly substance, it matters not by what means, are, even with all their vaunted and worshipped wealth, and "all appliances to boot," far, far less respectable than any of those, even the most distressed and humble of them, whose lot is "honest poverty" for, with truly independent and exultant spirits such men, in spite of outward wretchedness, may sing with Burns,

"Is there for honest poverty Wad hang his head and a' that, The coward loon we pass him by And dare be poor for a' that."

From further comment upon the unfeeling and brutal insolence of the ex-butcher, we for the present forbear; and, leaving our readers to pass sentence upon it, each in his own way, we will merely observe that this is only a trifling sample of the insolence which poor, honest, and independent men would have to endure under Tory rule, should it ever be re-established in this Colony.

CHARACTERISTIC DOINGS OF THE POLITICAL ALLIANCE AT THE ELECTION IN CHARLOTTETOWN.

Some eleven of the effective ruffianly force organized by the Political Alliance, who, on Saturday last, had armed themselves with revolvers and sling-shots for the purpose of giving effect to the tyrannous principles of their chiefs, by deeds of bloodshed, were most fortunately, through the vigilance and fearless activity of the High Sheriff, Wm. Macgill, Esquire, and of a few other active conservators of the peace, disarmed and arrested before time and opportunities had been afforded them to commit any of the atrocities which they were armed and commissioned to perpetrate. Should not the course of justice be turned aside through the influence possessed by the Tory instigators and abettors of these ruffians, both they and the young tradesman who manufactured and sold the murderous sling-shots with a guilty knowledge of the infernal intentions of those who purchased them, will be made to smart severely beneath the chastisement of the law. The full weight of punishment which it is possible legally to inflict upon these scoundrels will not, however, even should it be allowed to fall upon them, be one thousandth part of what they deserve. That such murderous miscreants are to be found among us, we almost hesitate to believe, even in spite of the most undeniable proofs of their existence; for ruffianism to equal theirs can scarcely, we think, be found any where, except in the records of the Black-Boy Alley gang of the Blood-Bowl House, in "the Mysteries of Old London."

If the infuriated individuals who have been deceived and misled by the men—the most worthless and most abjectly selfish men—who have organized this despotic association, and who frame the laws by which it is governed, could only for a moment contemplate, as reasonable beings, the villainous deeds done in their sight, either under the sanction of these men or by their command, most clearly would they see prefigured therein the Rule of the Iron Rod—the despotism which will be put in practice if ever the reins of Government be entrusted to their hands.

PAIN KILLER.

Travellers are always liable to sudden attacks of Dysentery and Cholera Morbus, and these occurring when absent from home are very unpleasant. PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER may always be relied upon in such cases. As soon as you feel the symptoms, take one teaspoonful in a gill of new milk and molasses and a gill of hot water, stir well together and drink hot. Repeat the dose every hour until relieved. If the pains be severe, bathe the bowels and back with the medicine clear.

In cases of Asthma and Phthisis, take a teaspoonful in a gill of hot water sweetened well with molasses; also, bathe the throat and stomach with the medicine clear.

Dr. Sweet says it takes out the soreness in cases of bone-setting faster than anything he ever applied.

Fishermen, so often exposed to hurts by having their skin pierced with hooks and fins of fish, can be much relieved by bathing with a little of the Pain Killer as soon as the accident occurs; in this way the anguish is soon abated; bathe as often as once in five minutes, say three or four times, and you will seldom have any trouble.

The bites and scratches of dogs or cats are cured by bathing with the Pain Killer, clear. Great success has been realized by applying this medicine as soon as the accident occurs.

Holloway's Ointment.—Piles and Fistulas, and the other virulent disorders of the channels of the uterus or bowels, are relieved and removed by applications of this Ointment, preceded by warm fomentations. Ye who suffer from the scourges of the frame, should lose no time in taking heed to this friendly warning!

This may certify that I have used Perry Davis' Pain Killer in numerous cases, and believe it to be a very valuable medicine. I have prescribed it extensively in bowel complaints, (particularly for children,) and it is in my opinion superior to any preparation I have ever used for the relief of those diseases. A. HUNTING, M.D.

Birth.

On the same day, at Vernon River, by the Rev. James Brady, Mr. Charles McDonald, Orwell, Lot 59, to Martha, third daughter of Mr. Donald McDonald, North Pole, Vernon River.

At Glenora, on the 31st inst., by the Rev. J. H. Read, D. D., Mr. William Kennedy to Miss Fanny Glover, both of Summerville.

Died.

At Bedouque, on 4th inst., Adm., relict of the late Lewis Baker, in the 73d year of her age. With an intelligent mind and amiable disposition, she was enabled, to a good old age, to adorn the Christian character; and after a week's illness quietly fell asleep in Jesus.

At Hyeres, near Toulon, in the South of France, whither he had gone for the benefit of his health, on the 19th of January last, in his 27th year, of pulmonary consumption, Rev. Gilbert C. Wiggins, late Rector of the Parish of Greenwich, Peterville, N. B., and eldest son of the Rev. Dr. Wiggins, Rector of Mangerville. His zeal in his Master's work led him to exert himself beyond his strength, which implanted the seeds of the disease which brought him to an early grave. He died as he had lived, in sure and certain hope of a blessed immortality.

On Thursday, the 17th inst., were interred the mortal remains of the wife of the Rev. Dr. Jenkins, many years the respected Pastor of the Episcopal congregation in this city. This excellent and lamented Lady was followed to her last home by numerous sorrowing relations and family connections, and by a large number of persons of all classes and denominations, anxious to testify their grateful recollection of one who, for many years, had been the conspicuous, yet humble, distributor of Christian benevolence and charity, to the sick and necessitous of all classes of our population. Mrs. Jenkins died on the 14th inst., aged 57. Her disease, which terminated her useful career, was Pulmonary Hemorrhage.

At Black River, Lot 35, on the 17th inst., Elizabeth, third daughter of Mr. Thomas A. Dougan, aged 15 years.

FORTY-EIGHT FROM ONE!

St. John, N. B., March, 1858.

Messrs. Fellows & Co. Gentls.: I cannot forbear letting you know of the effects produced by your wonderful Worm Lozenges. I gave my son, 12 years old, two doses, and in a short time he passed six large worms. My daughter, 10 years old, took four Lozenges, and in a few hours she passed sixteen; subsequently I gave her more, and the worms continued to come from her until Forty-eight Large Worms were passed. Strange to say, they acted in a similar way on two grown persons in my house.

I am of opinion that very many children die annually from the effects of worms, who are treated for other diseases.

I am, sirs, your obt servant, JAMES GILBOUR, St. Andrews Street.

FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES ARE SOLD BY ALL APOTHECARIES.
