Senior Executive Labatts is head

LONDON, Ont. (CP) — Word was received here Tuesday night of the death in Barbados, W.I., today of Hugh A. Mackenzie, 62, former vice-president and general manager of the John Labatt Limited brewing company. Mr. Mackenzie relinquished full-time duties with the company in 1956 because of illness, moving to Toronto two years later. He underwent two operations for cancer in Boston last year. Widely known in Canadian business circles, Mr. Mackenzie was a senior Labatt executive for 25 years and was a director and advisory executive at the time of his death. He was an unsuccessful Liberal candidate in the constituency of London in the 1957 and 1958 federal elections, campaigning despite a serious cancer ailment which reduced the strength of his voice. His stocky, athletic build was a reminder of his younger days when he quarterbacked the Ontario Argonauts to the Grey Cup in 1921.

WON OVER A native of Toronto, Mr. Mackenzie was awarded the OBC for his services during the Second World War as assistant to Donald Gordon, then chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. Mr. Mackenzie organized and headed the division of "amplified practices" in the country's wartime economy. Mr. Mackenzie, who received his chartered accountant's degree at the age of 27, entered the Labatt family as a bookkeeper in a Toronto bank. He joined Labatt in 1929 as assistant manager and became a full manager in 1933 and general manager two years later. He became vice-president in 1943. Other positions held by Mr. Mackenzie included director of the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada and the Gore District Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

He was survived by his wife, the former Alice Bierre Sawille; two sons, Michael, Toronto, and Bruce, London; one daughter, Linda; and one son-in-law, Geoffrey Pearson, consul at the Canadian Embassy in Mexico City and son of Liberal Leader Lester Pearson. He will be buried at Lakefield, Ont., following funeral services in Toronto.
