PERSONALITIES.

General Kostaro Kristos, the chief of the Cretan insurgents, is 100 years of age, and is said to have the fire and enthusiasm of a youth of 20.

California claims the largest boy of his age in the world. His name is John Bardin. He is 15 years old, 6 feet 5 inches tall, and weighs 220 pounds.

Mme. Blanche Marchesi, a daughter of the noted teacher of that name, and among the most successful concert singers, recently shared the honors with Paderewski in a London philharmonic.

Commodore Albert Kautz of the navy, who has just been promoted to that grade by the president, is a brother of the late General Kautz. He it was who succeeded in bringing about the first exchange of prisoners in the civil war.

Physicians are gradually coming to the front in politics. There are now two in the senate, Gallinger of New Hampshire and Deboe, just elected from Kentucky. Hunter, who narrowly missed the Kentucky prize, is also a physician.

Ex-Governor Burleigh of Maine is 53 years old and has a family of which he is proud. His wife is a woman of great mental force and is in thorough sympathy with her husband in all his business ventures. They have three sons and three daughters.

Count Albert De Mun, the leader of the Catholic party in the French chamber of deputies, who has just been elected to fill Jules Simon's seat in the French academy, is a great-grandson of Helvetius, the revolutionary philosopher, and a grandson of Mme. De Stael.

Judge Advocate Samuel T. Shaylor of Jacksonville, Fla., while sitting on a wharf during a court martial recess, found in the hem of his trousers a $75 diamond ring. He had purchased the trousers a year ago of Captain Lester of Sanford, Fla., but had not had occasion before to use them.

Among the steerage passengers who arrived in Philadelphia recently was a Chinaman named Go Hang. Knowing that he would be debarred from landing on account of his nationality, he earnestly declared that he was "Irish," but he failed to convince the officials of the truth of his statement.

Lindsays throughout the world are invited to form a clan association by a circular signed by the Earls of Crawford and Balcarres and of Lindsay, by their sons, Lord Balcarres and Viscount Garnock, and by Lord Wantage. There are families of Lindsays in the United States near to the line of succession of the Scottish peerage.

Ex-President Harrison is now the only survivor of the remarkable group of statesmen and political leaders prominent in Indiana and national politics since the war. The others were Senator Oliver P. Morton, Governor Porter, Secretary of State Gresham, Governor Gray, Senator McDowell, Senator Voorhees and Vice President Hendricks.

STAGE GLINTS.
 Nina Bertini Humphreys is in London, where she will appear in opera.
 Clara Morris has made a great hit in a one act piece in the vaudeville houses. Many shrewd theatrical authorities predict that the era of the stock system is about to return.
 "The Widow Goldstein," by Lillian Lewis and Lawrence Marston, has fallen rather flat in New York.
 Coney Island is having a hard time of it with the other nearby seaside resorts, most of which are equally wicked.
 The success of "Secret Service" presented by an American company in London has been most pronounced.
 Caroline Miskel Hoyt, according to current rumor, will retire permanently from the stage at the end of this season.
 If all the stars announced for next season should materialize, it is difficult to understand where actors enough to fill the casts will be found.
 Augustus Thomas is writing a new play, "In Illinois," for Digby Bell, who has won a legitimate success in Mr. Thomas' "The Hoosier Doctor."
 Dorothy Dene, who was the late Sir Frederick Leighton's model, has secured from Stanislaus Stange the English rights to his version of "L'Ami Fritz."
 Two "Uncle Tom's Cabin" shows are raging in New York city just now. One is the old version and the other is an up to date affair. Both are doing well.
