

On January 19 a large number of people from Baltic and surrounding districts assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wall, Baltic, where a successful card party was held. The ladies first prize went to Mrs. Frank MacNutt, Malpeque, and the gentlemen to Mr. Roy Campbell of Hamilton, while the consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. Frank Beiristo and Mr. George Riley. A good sum was realized for the Baltic W. I. Delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by several members of the Institute. Mrs. Lloyd Lockerby, Hamilton, left on Thursday morning for Halifax, where she will be a patient in the hospital there. All hope Mrs. Lockerby will soon return fully recovered. Mrs. Ernest Pickering, Clinton, left recently for New York, where she will spend some time with her sister. His many friends will be sorry to learn Mr. Harvey Manderson is very ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Earle Carr, Stanley Bridge. All hope for a speedy recovery for Mr. Manderson. Mrs. Ethel Douglas, who has been visiting at her former home in Norboro, left on Saturday morning for Toronto, where she is employed.

A number from this vicinity motored to Tryon on Sunday and attended the funeral of the late Major Carruthers in the Tryon United Church. Mr. and Mrs. Hans Menze and baby daughter, who have spent the past several months in Idaho, are motoring to the Island where they will spend some time with Mrs. Menze's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Clark of Malpeque, before proceeding to Limestone, Maine, where Mr. Menze will continue his work with the airforce there. Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Dymont and family of Northam, motored to Malpeque on Sunday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Crozier and family.

The members of the Baltic Farm Forum met for their Monday evening meeting on January 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wall with a large attendance. On Jan. 22, a large number of young and old from Kensington and the surrounding districts enjoyed the first skate of the season in the Kensington Rink. It was unusually late for the rink to get going, however the weather man has been very generous with so much mild weather and now the many hockey players and fans as well as the many who enjoy skating are hoping the thermometer will stay down for enough to keep a good sheet of ice in our rink. Nearly all the country roads were plowed out on Saturday and the crowd at the rink was exceptionally large owing to the good car road conditions.

CLERMONT W. I.
—The monthly meeting of the Clermont W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Edson Rayner on January 11. President opened the meeting with Creed. The Secretary, not being present, Mrs. William Mill was appointed acting Secretary. No minutes were read. Roll call was answered by six members donating to a fish pond; one visitor was present and one new member was welcomed. The new sick committee is Mrs. Edson Rayner and Mrs. Gerald Mill; no report was received from school committee. One sick call was

Mrs. Hirley Conrad who has been a patient in the Provincial Sanatorium at Charlottetown, has returned to her home in Borden. Mr. and Mrs. Jack MacIsaac returned home January 22, after spending a few days with relatives at Charlottetown. Mrs. Leo Cheverie of Borden is a patient in the Charlottetown Hospital. Her friends wish her an early recovery. Mr. Gerald LeLard who has been ill at his home here returned to his duties at Borden pier on Sunday. The weekly meeting of the girls of Our Lady of Sorrows Sodality was held in the basement of the Sacred Heart Church on January 16. The meeting opened by the members reciting Matins and Lauds from the Sodality office led by Miss Alagna Gallant. A Spiritual bouquet was then made up for Father McDonald to commemorate the thirty-second anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. The meeting continued with a passage from the Bible read by Miss Edith McIvor. This was followed by an inspiring talk on the Sacrament of Matrimony given by the director Father Hammill. At the conclusion of this talk he offered prayer and the meeting was followed by two hours of entertainment. The regular meeting of the Borden Social Club was held Wednesday, January 19, at the home of Mrs. Douglas MacLean. The devotional period was led by Mrs. Harold Coggins who read the first chapter of St. John's gospel followed by a commentary on its message. The business meeting opened with 23 members present. One new member was welcomed to the club. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. It was decided to have a grab bag at the next meeting, each parcel not to cost more than 25c. It was also decided to hold the Women's World Day of Prayer service February 25 at the church, the C. G. I. T. and Explorers attending the service. The sick committee reported sending sick and sympathy cards. The visiting committee made two calls.

made at Christmas to shut-ins and treat taken. It was moved and seconded that bill be paid. Collection and fee $1.65. Next meeting is at the home of Mrs. Ernest Mill; lunch committee. Mrs. Cecil and Mrs. William Mill; program committee, Mrs. Rayner and Mrs. H. Mill. The meeting closed with The Queen.
