

Bright Thoughts.

When we know how to appreciate a merit we have the germ of it within ourselves.—Goethe.

Defecence is the most delicate, the most indirect and the most elegant of all compliments.—Shenstone.

Pedantry crams our ears with learned lumber, and takes out our brains to make room for it.—Colton.

There is no evil we cannot either face or fly from, but the consciousness of duty disregarded.—Webster.

Old friends are best. King James used to call for his old shoes; they were easiest for his feet.—Selden.

Silence never shows itself to so great an advantage as when it is made the reply to callumny and defamation.—Addison.

No matter what his position or rank may be, the lover of books is the richest and happiest of the children of men.—Langford.

A firm faith is the best divinity; a good life the best philosophy; a clear conscience the best law; honesty the best policy, and temperance the best physic.—Charron.

Whenever you commend, and your reasons for doing so, it is this which distinguishes the approbation of a man of sense from the flattery of sycophants and admiration of fools.—Steele.

No one sees the wallet on his own back, though every one carries two packs, one before, stuffed with the faults of his neighbors; the other, behind, filled with his own.—Proverb.

It may be remarked, for the comfort of honest poverty, that avarice reigns most in those who have but few good qualities to recommend them. This is a weed that will grow only in barren soil.—Hughes.

Literature is a mere step to knowledge, and the error often lies in our identifying one with the other. Literature may, perhaps make us vain; true knowledge must render us humble.—Mrs. Sanford.

All pleasure must be bought at the price of pain. The difference between false pleasure and true is just this: for the true the price is paid before you enjoy it; for the false, after you enjoy it.—John Foster.

To be flattered is grateful, even when we know that our praises are not believed by those who pronounce them, and show that on favor is valued, since it is purchased by the meanness of falsehood.—Johnson.

Why the Strike Failed.

The collapse of the telegraph strike in spite of its support by public sympathy only shows the truth of the assertions of political economists that labor is a commodity in the market and is governed like everything else by the supply and demand rather than by public opinion. The public was desirous of seeing the operators get better wages but the market for telegraphic labor was so well supplied that the strike was unable to corner it. A large number of schools of telegraphy have been instituted within a few years, and the turn out many crude operators each, who stand ready to work into the business as the opportunity affords. To all these, so to speak, amateur telegraphers, the strike was a blessed downfall, as it furnished the opportunity for practical experience which was just what they wanted, and the result of the strike, therefore, has been to increase the competition for telegraphers' places rather than the wages of the operators who joined in the strike. That is the cold economic effects of an attempt to force higher wages which had more sympathy from the public than any similar movement undertaken in modern times.—Ez.

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS. FROM THE SON: "28 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 2, 1882. 'Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the enclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case. Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the Sarsaparilla in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquiries what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 21, 1882. Yours gratefully, HIRSH PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blisters, Sores, Pimples, Tumors, and Eruptions of the skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system. PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $5.

W. R. WATSON, Ch'town, Wholesale Agent.

DR. J. G. BENNETT

will be at the Rankin House, Charlottetown, three days only, viz.—Wednesday, 29th, Thursday, 30th, and Friday, 31st. In consequence of Dr. Bennett's extensive practice, not only in Canada but the United States, he has been unable to visit the Island as frequently as he would have done otherwise. This is gathered from the fact that no less than five hundred and twenty-three patients received treatment at Dr. Bennett's hands in nine days, in Yarmouth County alone. Two hundred and eighty-two of these visited him at the American House, Yarmouth.
