BREAKFAST—SUPPER.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the properties of well-selected Cacoa, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately flavored beverage whico may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified by pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

NO MORE SCIATICA.

Valentine Fisher is Cured of His Troubles to have no return—He is doing a flourishing Fruit Tree Business.

COLLINGWOOD, Sept. 10.—About a year ago, a telegraphic despatch from here told how Valentine Fisher, who had suffered for years from sciatica, and who was so crippled with the disease as to be unable to wory and was generally thought at death's door, was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. That the story was no fiction was known by all citizens of this place. That the cure is a permanent one is now just as generally known, for since his recovery, Mr. Fisher has been hard at work selling fruit trees for Chase Bros., of Rochester, N. Y., and has travelled the whole of this section for this firm with most gratifying success.

Notaries are first mentioned in the fourth century. They were appointed by priests and bishops to keep the church records.

Why spend $1 for a bottle of medicine for a complaint when one box of Beecham's pills, costing only 25 cents, will cure nearly all known diseases? This is because constipation is the cause of nearly all ailments and Beecham's pills cure constipation. A valuable book of knowledge mailed free, on request, by B. F. Allen & Co., 365 Canal St. New York.

The cravat was originally a large shawl worn round the neck, not for show, but for comfort, by a nation of Eastern Europe called the Cravates, or Croats.

For Over Fifty Years.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winsloe's Soothing Syrup has beed used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures the colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasnt to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winsloe's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.—m. w. f. wkly—1 y

Indian rubber used for erasing pencil marks was known in England as early as 1770. A cube of it half an inch square cost three shillings.

"Costly thy dress as thy purse can be," is a favorite adage, but very otten the cost will not realize all the desire. Ladies are often dissappointed in the make up of the costliest fabrics they can procure. Such however have never purchased Priestley's dress fabrics which have justly earned the reputation of being the best black dress goods in existence in respect of durability, flexibility, and a fitting quality,—that is to say an easy yieldieg to nice contours—which always produces the lovliest effects.

The original stethoscope was a roll of paper in the hands of the surgeon Laennec in 1816, but over 150 years earlier the principle had been explained.

More Victims Than Any Other.

There are more victims of nervous prostration in this country than any other physical or mental disability. It is the Nemesis of the man who overworks himself. But more and more of the victims are learning that Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic, sold by all druggists, is a certain cure for nervous prostration in its many forms.

Chess was of military origin and known in India before the Christian era.

The ladies' friend, Pond's Extract, No household should be without it. Book of directions around each bottle.

It is said that Dr. Luys, of Paris, has succeeded, by means of hypnotism, in transferring suicidal mania from a patient's brain to a magnetized iron ring placed round her head. Not only so, but on the ring being placed on the head of a male patient a fortnight afterwards, he became afflicted with the same type of mental disease, and imagined himself a woman. The miracles of modern science surpass all the mysteries of the black art of legendary times. It is a question how far such experiments are justifiable. As Browning says, "Its a dangerous thing to play with souls."

To Messrs PUTTNER EMULSION COMPANY, Halifax, N. S.:

MONTREAL, Jan. 16th.

Last summer my little girl was weak, delicate and nervous, and did not rest well at night. I gave her less than two bottles of your EMULSION, according to directions, and soon after she began to take it, she improved very fast in strength, slept well at night and lost much of that nervousness with which she had been troubled, and gained in flesh as well as strength, and has never been so well as since she took a course of your EMULSION.

Yours truly,

Head Master Royal Arthur School.

A railway to connect North, Central and South America is projected. The official surveys have been completed, and the result will shortly be made public. The whole line will measure 4,500 miles, and will extend from lower border of Mexico, connecting with the present Mexican system, to the upper boundary of Argentina. The estimated cost is 148 million dollars, and as the population to be served is large and tne country is naturally rich, the possibility of such a line must be immense.

Send 25 "Sunlight soap wrappers (wrappers bearing the words "why does a woman look old sooner than a man") to Levev Bros., Ltd., 43 Scott St., Toronto, and you will receive by post a pretty picture free from advertising, and well worth framing. This is an easy way to decorate your home. The soap is the best in the market and it will only cost 1 c. postage to send in the wrappers, if you leave the ends open. Write your address carefully.

Thomas Cantwell, son of Thomas Cantwell, of the Eagle Brewing Company, Chicago, was shot and killed by a bar-tender named Morgan on Monday night at a saloon on State Street. Cantwell and two others entered the place and demanded the proceeds of the day's sales, which Morgan was counting, one of the men presenting a revolver. Morgan, however, dodged and got his revolver to work first.

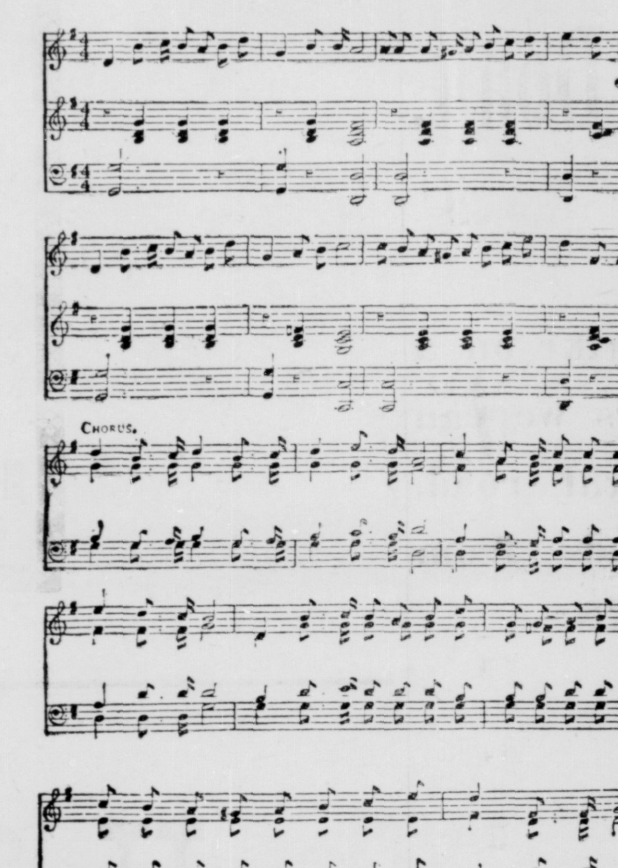
Paine's Celery Compound the Beacon Light and Life-Boat for the Sick and Suffering.

AIR: "PULL FOR THE SHORE."



Light in the darkness, suff'rer, rescue is near!
Cast off despair and gloom, and be of good cheer;
Drear are the long days, suff'rer, sad is thy strife;
Use Paine's Celery Compound, and restore health and life.

CHORUS:

Ho! then, ye sick and sad, languish no more;
Happier and brighter days for you are in store;
Health, strength and happiness for all are surely found,
In that King of Medicines, Paine's Cel'ry Compound.

Trust in that med'cine, suff'rer, all else will fail;
Use it, weak and lifeless one, now thin and pale;
It gives thee life-blood, suff'rer, rich, clear and pure,
Builds up flesh and muscle, suff'rer, that will endure.
Ho! then, ye sick, etc.

Hark to the sound, poor suff'rers! hear ye the strain?
Thousands of happy ones now chant the refrain;
"Health, strength, new life and vigor, we all have found
In that wondrous medicine, Paine's Cel'ry Compound."
Ho! then, ye sick, etc.

MOTHER'S BOYS.

Yes, I know there are stains on my carpets,
The traces of small, muddy boots;
And I see your fair tapestry glowing,
All spotless with blossoms and fruits.

And I know that my walls are disfigured,
With prints of small fingers and hands,
And that your own household most truly
In immaculate purity stands.

And I known that my parlor is littered
With many old treasures and toys;
While your own is in the daintiest order,
Unharmed by the presence of boys.

And I know that my room is invaded
Quite boldly all hours of the day.
While you sit in yours unmolested
And dream the soft quiet away.

Yes, I know there are four little bedsides
Where I must stand watchful each night;
While you can go in your carriage,
And shine in your dresses so bright!

Now, I think I'm a neat little woman;
I like my house orderly, too;
And I'm fond of all dainty belongings,
Yet I would not change places with you.

No! keep your fair home with its order,
Its freedom from bother and noise;
And keep your own fanciful leisure—
But leave me my four noble boys!
—Silver Cross.

THE TRAINING OF THE YOUNG IN THEIR DUTY TO THE STATE.

We have very little need of formal textbooks and didactic methods; the plan should rather be informal and indirect; it should be mainly practical; and the practice must begin in the life in the midst of which the pupil is actually living—the school and the home. We learn to be patriotic by doing patriotic things, and Mr. Bridge hit the right nail on the head when he urged us to begin by making the pupil patriotic to the school and the school community by giving him patriotic things to do. As to what should supplement or follow this, opinions were more varied; but everyone urged the use of history, and in particular, when possible, local history.

LADIES' COLLEGE,
Owens Art Institution and Conservatory of Music.

The Fall Term of the 40th Year Begins Aug. 30th, 1894.

Courses of study are provided, extending from the primary branches through the whole University curriculum to the degree of B. A. The staff consists of 18 teachers, in addition to the University Professoriate. Piano, Pipe Organ, Violin, Vocal Culture, Harmony, Elocution, Physical Culture, Shorthand, Typewriting, Bookkeeping and Commercial Courses are all taught after the latest and most approved methods.

The Owens Art Institution, which, with its magnificent gallery, has been transferred to the Ladies' College, is still in charge of Prof. Hammond, R. C. A., an exhibitor in the Paris Salon, the Royal Academy, London, etc.

The Conservatory of Music employs eight instructors, at the head of whom is an experienced teacher from the staff of the N. Y. College of Music, who has studied in Berlin under Von Bulow and Joseffy. After four years' successful study under some of the greatest masters in Germany, Mr. C. L. Chisholm returns to take charge of the Violin department.

Vocal Culture is taught by an accomplished Swedish vocalist, who is a graduate of the Munich Conservatory.

Every care is taken to make the school a refined Christian home, where lady-like manners and nobility of character shall be cultivated.
