The bidding:

East	South	West	North
1♣	1♥	1♠	6♥

Opening lead— ace of clubs.

One of the most interesting hands in international competition occurred when the United States played Sweden in 1953.

Crawford (East) was moved to open the bidding with a club despite a slight shortage of high cards. Lilliehook, unaware of the phony bid ahead of him, overcalled with a heart for lead purposes, and Schenken bid one spade. Anulf, for Sweden, silenced all hands with a six heart bid and the fight was on.

The ace of clubs was ruffed and Lilliehook knew he had his work cut out for him. He led a heart to the ace and followed with the jack of clubs. When Schenken ducked, the king of diamonds was discarded.

A diamond was trumped and a low spade led from dummy. Had Crawford ruffed it, the ball game would have been over then and there. But he discarded a club instead and Smith won with the queen.

Lilliehook now led the ten of spades. Schenken played the jack. And here Lilliehook made one of the finest plays of his career. He allowed the jack to win.

The contract could no longer be defeated. A low spade from dummy was later ruffed, trumps were drawn, and the slam was made.

Had the jack of clubs been covered, the slam would have gone down the drain. If Lilliehook had covered the jack of spades, Crawford would have ruffed and defeated the contract with a trump return.

When the same deal was played at the other table, I held the South hand. After East passed, I opened with a diamond. The Swedish West bid a spade. My partner, Lightner, expressed his opinion of this contract by doubling. East ran to two clubs.

After a protracted series of bids, and forewarned by West's spade bid, we stopped at five hearts, which was all that could be made.

Our mutual congratulations at having avoided a slam contract were dissipated when we learned of the goings - on that had taken place at the other table.

TRACADIE C. W. L.

The monthly meeting of the Tracadie C. W. L. was held Sunday, March 9th. with the president, Mrs. R. Hughes, presiding and twenty - nine members present. The opening prayer was read by Fr. MacMillan.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Correspondence was read and discussed. It included letters from the social action convener, not scholarship convener, education convener, membership convener, and a letter from the Red Cross.

The nominating committee for the election of officers for the new year are: Mrs. Lee Lund, Mrs. Herrell Arbing, Mrs. Phil Long. The membership convener was asked to post the list of members. The convener gave their reports.

The highlight of the meeting was a very interesting talk given by Sr. Mary Henry of the Catholic Welfare. Sr. Mary Henry outlined the numerous tasks of the Welfare. She urged the C. W. L. to have a social action committee to try to revive the old - fashioned Christian virtues.

Their work would be to care for the sick at home, to help with sickness in neighbouring homes, to assist poor families and to visit the sick. Sr. Mary Henry explained that social work is the art of helping people to help themselves.

The Catholic Welfare is a multiple function agency and assists needy families each month wtih fuel, food and clothing. Another very important function of the welfare is to locate foster home for children and finding adoptive homes (which are best for the welfare of the children.)

Another important practise of this society is to help alcoholics and homes that are broken through the curse of alcoholism. Sister Mary Henry asked the women to pray for people who are victims of this misfortune.

The most important thing, Sister Mary said was for people to be kind to each other. The world is in very great need of kindness. The welfare has asked the country parishes to help them in their need. A very sincere vote of thanks given by Mrs. Basil McDonald on behalf of all present, was seconded by Mrs. Wm. Power.

Fr. MacMillan also thanked Sr. Mary Henry for her very instructive talk.

It was agreed that the four districts of the parish would raise $25.00 each to donate to the welfare.

The meeting adjourned and the closing prayer was read by Fr. MacMillan.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L-B-A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
