

1883. THE EXAMINER, 1883.

NOW IS THE TIME

Renew Subscriptions and to Subscribe.

Having faithfully redeemed our promises for the years that are past, we now again confidently appeal to the public, and ask for THE DAILY EXAMINER and THE WEEKLY EXAMINER AND ISLAND ARGUS a continuance of popular favor and support.

During the coming year, as heretofore, THE EXAMINER will advocate, to the best of its ability, the maintenance of every good institution now in operation on the Island, and the introduction of every improvement calculated to advance the interests of the people.

Notwithstanding the result of the Legislative Council election, THE EXAMINER is still in favor of reducing the Local Legislature, consolidating the Local Civil Service upon a sound and permanent basis, maintaining a policy of rigid economy in the administration of local affairs, and of applying the public money more particularly to the advancement of the agricultural and industrial interests of the Province.

THE EXAMINER'S policy shall be, as it has been: first national, then political,—first for the Province, next for Canada, and then for the Party by which both are governed.

Articles on Practical Agriculture will be a prominent feature of THE EXAMINER during 1883; and our columns will, as heretofore, be well filled with news and interesting miscellany.

The publication of a series of lively stories, by one of the best English authors, will be commenced at once, and continued throughout the winter months.

THE WEEKLY EXAMINER AND ISLAND ARGUS will contain a larger quantity and greater variety of matter than any other weekly paper published in the Island.

The subscription price is only ONE DOLLAR a year, positively in advance.

Subscriptions received up to the end of the present year will be placed upon the list at once, but will date from the 1st of January, 1883.

All communications should be addressed to

W. L. COTTON, MANAGER.

NOVEMBER 22, 1882.

Ensilage.

In one of his excellent speeches during exhibition week, Lieut-Governor Haviland referred to the system of ensilage which has been successfully tried in some parts of the United States and in England. Briefly, ensilage means the preservation of green fodder crops whilst still moist and succulent, and without any previous attempt at drying or curing it. If hay is stacked while only half dried, we know what happens—it heats, and very likely fires, and if saved is pretty well spoiled. By this process, however, both the heating and the fermentation, is nearly checked by great pressure; and it is found that, if pressed down enough, green or succulent food may thus be preserved in bulk, quite fresh from the mowing machine and even with the rain upon it. Ensilage is therefore made by storing green fodder in mass, either in deep and large trenches (if these can be depended on to keep dry), or within stopt walls, the mass being several feet at least in depth and width. It is preferably cut up in short lengths to lie closer; and when the pit is filled, boards are laid on the top at once, and earth or stones, or barrels filled with either, are piled on top to the weight of several cwt. per square foot. The fodder gradually settles into a succulent half-solid mass, with a mild "sauerkraut" flavour and smell, and is greedily devoured by cattle, and with a little dry food maintains them in admirable milking condition through the winter. In the United States a very favourite crop for ensilage is green maize, which gives enormous weight per acre, and could be grown largely in this Island, though the ripe grain usually fails. Prickly comfrey, some sorts of peas, clover, and many other crops also make fine food in this way, as well as grass; and it is found that cattle prefer this kind of fodder to any other food.

It seems to us that farmers in this Province, who make money out of their dairies, might try ensilage with advantage. A little care in preparing the "bins" so that they may be air-tight and water-tight, seems to be all that is required before hauling in the newly mown hay and putting on the weights.

Mr. Hackett, M. P.

The Opposition organs are writing their severest paragraphs about Mr. Hackett, now that he is not here to say anything in reply. It is hard for an impartial man to see that because Mr. Hackett is an M. P. he should be debarred from improving his position by accepting an office from the Canada Pacific Railway Company. Surely it is better for him to be doing something at Ottawa than nothing at Tignish; and, being at the seat of Government he will be in a position personally [and therefore the more success(fully) to urge upon the attention of the Administration such measures as may advance the interests of Prince County and his constituents and friends.

Local and Other Items.

The trains are running on time to-day.

HON. WM. F. CODY, (Buffalo Bill), says he has used St. Jacobs Oil with excellent effect on many animals belonging to his ranche in North Platte, Neb. It always does its duty.

TAILOR WANTED.—J. M. Ross, Merchant Tailor of Moncton, advertises in our columns for a journeyman tailor, to whom he guarantees good wages and steady employment. 11

THE steamer "Princess of Wales" made a trip from Summerside to Point du Chene, yesterday, and returned to this port this morning, in time to leave on her regular trip to Pictou.

THE person who found a riding saddle on Saturday evening last between my house and town will be rewarded on leaving it at the store of W. E. Dawson & Co.—W. E. DAWSON. [Nov 22 21]

THE great "centre of attraction" for Christmas and New Years Cards this season, as usual is at Young's. For beauty of design and coloring, variety and cheapness they are far ahead of anything we have ever seen.

QUICK PASSAGE.—By cablegram to R. F. Quirk, Esq., we learn that the ship "James Duncan," Capt. D. A. McInnis, arrived at Queenstown from Astoria, Oregon, with a cargo of wheat, making the passage in the remarkably quick time of 115 days.

CAPTAIN CAMERON seems to be desirous of showing what he can do with the good old "Princess of Wales" since she was repaired. He went to Pictou and back in the midst of the late storm. His pluck and seamanship are much commended by those acquainted with the great difficulty of the passage.

DONALD DINNIE the Athlete announces that he will make any of the following matches:—1st. that he will throw a hammer, the head to weigh 22 lbs., over 100 feet; 2nd. that he will throw a hammer, head to weigh 16 lbs., over 120 feet; 3rd. that he will throw a hammer, head to weigh 12 lbs., over 140 feet; all of these to be done "fair stand," Scotch style and on level ground.

THE Railway Age states that railway construction during the month of October in the United States aggregated 1,668 miles of main track on seventy-one different lines in thirty States, making the total for the ten months of the present year 9,143 miles on 203 lines in forty-three States and Territories, and estimates the total construction for the year at between 11,000 and 12,000 miles, which far exceeds the construction in any previous year. Dakota leads in construction during the past month with 131 miles, and Texas is next with sixty.

THE Pioneer is informed that some three weeks ago two Indians (Labode and Paul) left Indian Island in a canoe to go to Malpeque and were never heard of since, though the other Micmacs have been making all possible search for them up to this time. The canoe is represented to be old and rotten, and the other Indians are of opinion that the craft filled and the occupants were lost. Both the missing men leave large families, and one of them was the person who got badly hurt in trying to get on the train in Summerside a month or two ago.

MR. CHARLES COLES returned home from the North-west, quite unexpectedly, at an early hour this morning; and his advent was quite a pleasing surprise to his relatives and friends. He reports the Islanders out there "doing well, as usual." For himself, he took up, in the spring, 334 acres of land in Qu'Appelle Valley for which he was not now take less than $5,000. When he arrived there the region was inhabited by one white man and two Indians; and when he left, there was quite a large town with a railway station as big as that of Summerside, and a flourishing farming settlement, the land being all taken up. He will return in the spring, after enjoying a pleasant winter here—we hope.

ARRIVAL OF PROF. E. EASTY.—Our literary friends will be glad to hear of the arrival of Prof. Easty, who is to give one of his delightful and amusing entertainments in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, on Thursday evening. The selections at foot are probably the best ever offered to Charlottetown by this accomplished elocutionist, and he will, undoubtedly, be greeted as usual by a large and enthusiastic audience. The tickets are placed at an unusually low price, the professor being anxious to let the entertainment fall within the reach of all who appreciate healthful, cheerful, and instructive amusement. The price of admission will be 25 cents; school pupils 15 cents, with 10 cents additional for Reserved Seats. Tickets are for sale at Dod's Medical Hall, Watson's Drug Store, and Bremner Bros. Book Store; and the following is the attractive and excellent Programme:—

PART I.
1.—The Owl Critic—a lesson to fault-finders, JAS. T. FIELDS.
2.—Selections from Farm Ballads, CARLTON.
3.—Pyramus & Thisbe, SARK.

PART II.
4.—The Last Hymn, MISS FARRINGHAM.
5.—The Puzzled Interviewer, TWIN.
6.—Sally Lynn Troubles—a Lancashire Story, FANNY E. HODGSON.
7.—Lord Dunderbary on Poor Richard's Maxims, BERNARD.
8.—The Death of Jo, DICKENS.

PART III.
9.—The Draped Locomotive, BERDETTE OF THE HAWKEYE.
10.—The Bells (by request), POZ.
To conclude with the amusing French monologue recited in the Theatre Francaise last winter by Monsieur Coquelin, the Parisian actor, translated into English, and entitled "THE HAT." This will certainly be a literary feast.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of our correspondents.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—Your correspondents "Fair Play" and "Bismarck," are quite right in regard to the patronage, and they might go further and inquire why so pronounced a Grit as Mr. D. M. Fraser should have his salary increased while more competent Conservative officials of long standing are left on starvation allowance.

Your's, SIMON PURE. Ch'town, Nov 21, 1882.

DIED.

In this city, on Tuesday, the 21st inst., Mary Evers, dearly beloved daughter of John and Rosabella Bell, in the 16th year of her age.

In Manitou, Colorado, October 2, 1882, after the brief illness of eight days, of typhoid fever, Jonathan Matheson, aged 21 years and 11 months.

J. Matheson, came to Colorado in April, 1881, and has been living in Manitou since May 1, 1882, until September 24, at which time he was taken sick. He died trusting in his Savior. J. Matheson was a young man of good principles and moral habits, and gained the esteem of all his acquaintances here. He was a member of the Baptist church. The deceased was a native of Springton, Prince Edward Island, where his father and the rest of the family still reside, except two sisters, who are now living in Denver. We sympathize with them in the loss of their loving brother, and also with his father, who was deprived of the privilege of seeing him for some time. The funeral took place at the residence of Hugh M. Jones, after which quite a number of friends followed him to his last resting place in the Evergreen Cemetery at Colorado Springs.

CARD.—The sisters of J. Matheson wish to express their thanks to the many kind friends who assisted them so nobly in the sickness and burial of their brother.
