News From Our Lone Guides

The Commissioner for Lones, Miss Carrie Holman, sent me such a lovely letter about Lone activities that I felt I must share it so that you will know as much as I about what the Lones are doing. Miss Holman says, "we have started in with our Lones, but it is going to be uphill work for a while as three of our Patrol Leaders have left for College, two have gone to Kensington from Darnley and two have left the Island. However we had a grand meeting yesterday at Stancheh. The girls were, as Betty Coyle (Captain) said, the best yet and full of interest. Audrey and Wilena Cameron passed their Tenderfoot and were enrolled when the sun was shining. It was very impressive. We had the "Hymn, Evensong and Prayers. The girls learned to make the "H" fire made toast and heated beans. They smacked their lips over the sandwiches—we have invented the best ever, hot toast and baked beans. When we had finished everything was left spic and span. Timmy, the dog, who never misses a guide meeting, was there too and sat up as if expecting to be enrolled with the girls. Freda Keating is a splendid little Patrol Leader and had the girls well prepared. They are starting in again making hospital bags. We have now made over 1500 for the Prince county Hospital. I have a plan which I hope to work out this winter that is to have in turn, each of my Patrols, come in to be entertained at a Summer side Guide meeting. They are seven at Stancheh with a prospective recruit in view."

Anyone wishing to become a Lone Guide should contact Miss Holman, Summerside, this applies to any girl living in a community where there are not sufficient to form a Company. Why not form a little group now.

Guide Companies

After reading the above I am sure that if you have not already commenced your meetings you will want to now. Every Guide Company and Brownie Pack should now be operating. If you are in any difficulty or need advice the Field Secretary is ready and waiting to help at 76 School St., the name, in case you have forgotten is Mrs. Freda Keating. If you feel that you require more text books the F. S. is the person to ask. Many Guides will be working on First Class work, but I would urge you again to take it slowly do not try to do too much at once or it will spell discouragement. Slowly and thoroughly is the only way to tackle this work. I expect to see many First Class badges in the late Spring, so go to it girls.

SOBEY-CAVANAGH

CURRIE-CAVANAGH

A double wedding ceremony of interest to a wide circle of friends was performed on Thursday, Aug. 17th, at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer when Stella Alvera Cavanagh was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Lorne Gerald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sobe, and Mary Evelyn Cavanagh to Charles Livingstone, son of Mrs. and the late Mr. Ernest Currie. The brides are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Cavanagh. Rev. Richard Baines, C.S.S.R., performed the ceremony. The altar was tastefully decorated with vases of pink and white gladioli.

During the ceremony Mrs. Arthur Murray rendered appropriate hymns accompanied by Mr. Alex McLean, church organist. The brides, given in marriage by their father, were similarly dressed in white satin gowns designed with fitted bodice and full skirts. Their fingertip veils of embroidered net were caught with headresses of pearl and rhinestones and they carried bouquets of red carnations.

But it is known that the lass will be a gain to another W.M.S. and will still be working together in the Master's service. Mrs. Jardine very feelingly thanked the Society for the kind words expressed.

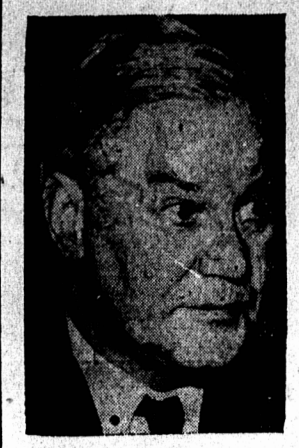

Meeting closed by singing "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" and Miss-pah benediction. A dainty lunch, was served by the members and a social hour enjoyed by all.
