

Starting

Saturday

February 22nd
IN THE EVENING PATRIOT

LATE NEWS

COLOR MAGAZINE

COLOR COMICS

All These in Weekend Magazine

"Mysterious" Princess — the portrait all England is talking about. Princess Margaret as a woman of mystery, as seen by Italian artist Annigoni. Frame the 2-page color reproduction.

A-Bomb Test — first-hand account of a test blast in Nevada by Wing Cmdr. Gerald B. Waterman. Thrilling observations by an aeronautical expert.

Hockey Hot-Spot — Here's what the World Hockey Tournament in Oslo will prove, says Weekend Sports Editor Andy O'Brien. Have the Russians out-paced Canadian teams?

Grannies Galore — Marcia Francombe has 250 "grandparents." They're all at the Dearness Home for Senior Citizens in London, Ont., where Marcia is the only baby.

Why Young Film Stars Marry Older Men — learn the facts in a report from Hollywood.

Minou Is A Marvel — read about 10-year-old nestess Minou Drouet. Her genius is astonishing.

The Gourmet — It's not only what you eat but what you think that makes the dish. A story by Gregory Clark.

Color Comics — Sixteen pages including such favorites as L'il Abner, The Berrys, Steve Canyon, Mickey Finn, Dick Tracy, Smitty, Herby, Pogo, Dennis the Menace, Gasoline Alley, Grin and Bear It, Rivets, Moon Mullins, Kitty Higgins, Red Ryder, Mary Worth, Orphan Annie, Maw Green, Joe Palooka.

And Many Other Features