

Local and Other Items.

The mails arrived at 2.30. To-morrow is Palm Sunday. Clear trot in Orwell this afternoon. The Queen's Hotel scheme has fallen through. EDWARD HACKETT, Esq., arrived from Ottawa to-day. GREAT BARGAINS in all kinds of Dry Goods, at James Paton & Co's. Good music and ice at the Citizen's Rink to-night for the janitor's benefit. ARTILLERY BAND at the Citizen's Rink to-night from 8 until 10 o'clock. SIR PETER AND LADY TRAZELL will appear in St. Peter's Schoolroom on Easter Tuesday. The best place to buy worsteds and tweeds for gentlemen's suits is at J. B. Macdonald's. It is said that Senator Plumb will be the Government candidate for the Speakership of the Senate. WHEN a friend accosts you with the salutation "a very fine day," your prompt reply is only "verryfin" the expression. LET all who can, attend the Bible Reading in the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow afternoon. Subject, "The New Life." REMEMBER the Bible Class in the Y. M. C. A. this evening, at 8 o'clock, to study to-morrow's Sunday School lesson. THE contract for the erection of the new city building was signed yesterday and work will be commenced as soon as possible. THE largest stock of Dress Goods in the city—Black and Colored Cashmeres and Merinos, very cheap.—James Paton & Co. THE CHILD of a man named Murphy fell into an unwell well at the eastern end of the city yesterday afternoon and narrowly escaped being killed. A MEETING of the Charlottetown branch of the Dominion Temperance Alliance will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall this (Saturday) evening at eight o'clock. THE Diamond Dust Polish—the finest article in the world—for cleaning glass, silver, gold, &c.—free from Grit—at the Diamond Bookstore, ten cents per box. MR. HECTOR McLEOD received from Summerside this afternoon a pair of young twin horses by All Right. One is a brown mare, the other a light bay horse. Both are handsome. We learn that proceedings have been taken by the young man McIsaac against the two policemen who on Tuesday last handcuffed and put him in the lockup under a warrant as witness in a Scott Act case. GEORGE R. GRAHAM, once proprietor of Graham's Magazine, for which Edgar A. Poe, Irving, Longfellow, Bryant, and Leland used to write, is living friendless, aged and poor, in New York city. By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the military intend having a grand concert on the 19th inst. The best musical talent have been secured for the occasion. We would advise the lovers of good music to make no other engagement for that evening. MR. J. E. MORGAN, Upton, Dundas, has been appointed general agent on P. E. Island for the Woodstock Nurseries of N. B. These nurseries grow at the present time upwards of one million trees of the best varieties, and are owned by Mr. Franklin Sharp, successor to Messrs. Sharp & Shea. THE Mutch property (better known as the St. Lawrence Hotel) on Water Street, which has been purchased by Mr. J. J. Davies of the Rankin, is to be enlarged and fitted up with all the improvements usual in first-class hotels. Mr. Davies contemplates moving in about the 1st September next. THE annual meeting of the Arbor Society will be held on Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock, in the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court Room. The officers for the ensuing year are to be elected, and business of importance will be transacted. A large attendance of members and those who desire to become such is expected and desired. THE secretary of the Toronto branch of the Irish Land League has received the following reply from Wm. O'Brien, M. P., editor of United Ireland, to a cablegram asking him to come to Canada to lecture on evictions on Lord Lansdowne's Irish estates: "Canadian opinion appears to have already exercised wholesome influence. The eviction campaign is suspended. If it be resumed, will start immediately for Canada." THE contract for carrying the mails between Souris East and North Lake has been awarded to the lowest tenderer, Wm. McLaren, of Souris. He has a fine horse and good turnout, and will give general satisfaction it is thought. A backboard in winter, and a dry goods box on two wheels in summer, drawn by a broken-winded half-fed nag, is not the kind of accommodation people expect now-a-days in carrying Her Majesty's mails. SENATOR HOWLAND was presented to-day by Daniel Ross, Esq., of Stanley Bridge, with a splendid gold hunting watch—a Waltham stem-winder—in consideration of his services in obtaining from the Dominion Government the refund of duties paid to the United States by fishermen in 1872-2, of which Mr. Ross received about $2,000. The watch has been inscribed on it a view of the fishing boats leaving Rustico Harbor. As a testimonial, it is highly creditable to Mr. Ross as well as to the recipient. The value of the watch is about $150. AS exceedingly interesting three-minute race came off on the Hillsboro ice yesterday afternoon. The weather was fine, the ice good and a large number of spectators were present. The following horses entered:— Ben Bunting's g. g., Little John. R. J. Steele's bk. g., Frank James. W. S. McKie's c. g., Robbie Burns. J. A. Stewart's c. m., Josie. "W. F. Robins' bk. s., Tawny. "Withdrawn. The race was mile heats, best three in five. The first heat was won by Little John, (who also came in first in the second, but was given second place for running), the second by Frank James and the third by Robbie Burns. First money was captured by Little John, second by Frank James and third by Robbie Burns. All present were pleased with the race.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

Mr. Parnell's Speech.

SOME INTERESTING LETTERS

The Cloture Carried.

LONDON, April 1.

In the House of Commons to-night W. H. Smith, first Lord of the Treasury, suggested that if the Irish Crimes Bill be read the first time to-night the second reading could be taken up Tuesday, and then there would be an interval of a week between the second reading and going into committee.

Mr. Parnell upon rising to resume the debate was loudly cheered. He said with the production of the Land Bill yesterday, Parliament had been put in possession of the complete plan of the Government in all its nakedness and dishonesty. The Government were pressing on coercion with indecent haste and they had refused to carry out the recommendations of the Land Commissioners. If the Coercion Bill were passed the last defence of tenants against wholesale robbery would be removed. In a justly regulated land purchase lay the only hope of settling the land question. He concluded his very able speech by moving that the house resolve itself into a committee to consider the state of Ireland.

Mr. Harrington, amid great laughter, read letters from the Knight of Kerry, Lord Monck and others, applying on behalf of friends and relatives for Stipendiary Magistracies in Ireland. When asked where he had obtained the letters, he replied that he had bought them at auction. He proceeded to explain that the principal qualification urged on behalf of the applicants were poverty and large families. On being interrupted by cries of "Divide," the speaker said he was not surprised at the impatience shown by the gentlemen upon the exposure of facts showing the character of men at whose mercy it was proposed to place the liberties of Irishmen.

Mr. T. P. O'Connor moved to adjourn the debate. Mr. Gladstone, in supporting the motion, said there were strong reasons for it. He defended Parnell's delay in moving his amendment, and said this was a grave and serious case, demanding another night for discussion.

Mr. O'Connor's motion was rejected, 361 to 254. Upon Mr. Smith putting the questions, Mr. Gladstone arose and walked alone down the floor into the Opposition lobby, all the members of the Opposition standing and cheering him as he did so.

The motion for cloture was carried, 361 to 258, and the first reading of the bill was agreed to without division.

Another Skating Match.

PICTOU, April 2.

In the five mile race between McCormack, Dowd and Whelpley, McCormack came in about four feet ahead of Dowd, with Whelpley about a lap and a half behind. Time, 18 min., 25 sec.

Another Attempt.

BERLIN, April 1.

Advices received from St. Petersburg say that on Tuesday, while the Czar was in the park, he was fired upon by an officer of the army, the ball passing close to his person.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, April 2—10 a.m.

Moderate to fresh winds, mostly easterly, cloudy weather, not much change in temperature.

A correspondent wants to know the meaning of "Pro Bono Publico." In a majority of cases, it means that the writer who thus signs his newspaper communication is a chronic growler.—Norristown Herald.

A wholesale merchant of St. Petersburg, reported to be worth a million, has been shot with a revolver and killed by a man to whom he refused to give 80,000 roubles towards the Nihilist fund. The murderer has been arrested. Other Russian capitalists are fearful of suffering a similar fate. They are receiving letters threatening them with immediate death if they do not comply with the demands to furnish money for the "common cause."

Boston Herald:—An indulgent Marlboro street parent has been in the habit of giving his youngest born a nickel every time the child brought him his slippers. Last week Master Five-year-old "struck" for more pay. He said the circus would be along soon now and he must save up to go. The indulgent parent refused any advance, and for two days fetched his own slippers, and then the next older child, a little girl, undertook to perform this filial duty for filthy lucre. But the scheme, after one trial, had to be abandoned, because made-moiselle said she weren't going to be called "scab" by her own brother any longer.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It softens the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. mar17 eod & wky

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

"Cold Molasses."

SIR.—The phenomenal slowness of the Post Office officials this afternoon occasioned much comment among the large number of people expecting letters or papers. After patiently waiting for upwards of half an hour, and seeing little or no signs of distribution beginning, many of them left in disgust, threatening to call around after tea, by which time they hoped all would be sorted.

ONE OF THE DISGUSTED.

Grit Inconsistency.

SIR.—At a number of the meetings held in the eastern part of the Island during the last election, one of the Grit speakers was loud in his denunciation of the N. P., because, as he alleged, it had increased the price of some kinds of store goods. Sugar and horse shoe nails and saques and such things are dearer now, said he, than they were before the N. P. was introduced. Some believed him. Since then he has engaged in business on his own account, and now the time is changed. Goods according to this same high authority, never were so cheap as they are at the present time. Sir John and the N. P. has been sustained, and saques are cheap as dirt. Sugar at five cents a pound and sweeties only a cent an ounce! These be his prices and who says they are high? The election is over. Comment is needless. Yours, etc., F.

John L. Shows Up Again.

HE SPARS WITH JOE LANNON FORMERLY OF CHARLOTTETOWN.

A number of sports from New York and a contingent from Boston went over to Cronin's variety theatre in Hoboken last Tuesday to see John L. Sullivan in his first public appearance since the accident to his arm. When Sullivan appeared on the stage for his first bout with Joe Lannon it was announced that he weighed 231 pounds. During the four rounds he used his uninjured right almost constantly. Lannon to show his appreciation of the fact spared lightly to humor the half-crippled champion but Sullivan quietly said, "Let her go Joe. Don't be afraid, and Joe "let her go," giving the big one a sounding thump in the neck, only to get one in the chin that made him exclaim, "Oh, heavens." He was more cautious after that with the man with the lame arm. In the fourth round Sullivan let himself loose and landed a dozen stinging blows on his opponent's ribs. That closed the bout and Sullivan stepped to the footlights and asked the audience to excuse any little flaws in the performance. He said, "This is the fourth time I have used my arm in two months and I want to be careful with it as I hope to meet somebody from the other side pretty soon and I want to hold the championship."

Journalistic Enterprise.

A test of enterprise among the great New York dailies took place in connection with the yacht race across the Atlantic. The Boston Herald and one or two New York papers had a representative each on board one or other of the yachts. The World had a man on each vessel. At Queenstown, the eastern terminus of the race, another representative of each paper was located with a steam tug, whose duty it was to go out and meet the winning craft, and as soon as the line at the entrance of the harbor was crossed to convey the reporter from the ship to the telegraph office on shore. The result was that the World correspondent from the Coronet had his cable despatch started over the wires before the representative of any other paper could get on shore. The New York Herald came out strong in reporting the Dauntless, the losing yacht which arrived the next day. One Herald tug went off to meet the yacht and receive the report from the sailing correspondent. This tug was followed by a faster tender, which met the first one and rushed the message along, while the first tug went back and towed the schooner from the winning line to the moorings. The report was started over the wires half an hour before the yacht crossed the boundary, and forty minutes before any other paper got anything. The World on Monday contained eight columns of telegraphic accounts, together with a map of the course gone over, which map was also telegraphed across the ocean. The race ended a few minutes before one o'clock in the afternoon, and at six in the afternoon papers were sold on the streets of New York containing a seven column long account of the incidents of the voyage. And yet it was only a schooner race across the Atlantic Ocean.

An Epidemic of Fire.

The Edmondston, N. B., correspondent of the St. John Sun writes:—"There seems to be an epidemic of fires here now. Maxime Cyr's store was burned a few days ago. Angere Bernier had a narrow escape. The fire caught in his store and his brother, who was sleeping, was rendered unconscious by the smoke. Maxime Martin also had a hole burned in the roof of his house and had hard work saving the building. Paul Willett, of St. Hilaire lost his store by the same cause. The last and saddest was a man at Long Lake, whose house was burned last Saturday in the daytime, and two children perished in the flames. His wife had a very narrow escape. She was badly burned and is not expected to live. They were scuttling flax and had a large quantity of it in the room, when it caught and in an instant the whole apartment was in a blaze. The two children (of four and five years) perished in the flames and the rest of the family barely escaped with their lives."
