

Park Royal Congregation Studies New Curriculum

A congregational introduction to the new curriculum was shared recently at Park Royal Church. The concern was for understanding better the needs behind a new curriculum for the church people in its area.

The program was initiated last morning by Keith Lapp, Summerdale Mr. Lapp spoke from the background of participating in a testing school and outlined problems and advantages from his experience.

The program was continued in the evening in the sanctuary of the church, led by the minister, Rev. J.H. The Rev. F. Lacey read the lesson and led the evening prayers. The boys' choir sang "Sing with all the Sons of Glory" with soloist, Douglas Muri. The sermon was in the form of a playlet "The Action Block" acted in the sanctuary, with participants seated in the congregation. Those taking part included: The boy, Blaine Jey; auctioneer, D. Murphy; businessman, P. J. doctor, Dr. D. MacKay; professor, W. Wood; engineer, J. Williams; civic or-and acting upon a suggestion it was decided to hold an auction of the articles with Mr. Peterson acting as auctioneer. The proceeds of the auction were to be used for the exterior of the church. The benediction by Mr. Peterson, ended the evening.

Yacht Club Holds Yacht's First Function

The Montague Yacht Club held its first official function for the year on Sunday when most of its members and their families gathered at the new yacht club site at Lower Montague. They came by car, some by yacht, others by outboard and sailing craft. Two even came by sternwheel.

The club members under the direction of Doug Coffin, a K. Ken Clements served hot dogs and coffee to the older people and soft drinks and hot dogs to the young.

Due to the unreasonably high temperatures several people took a dip in first swim of the year.

Following the lunch, R. K. Clements visitors on a tour of the W. A. Poole building which has been purchased with the idea of the club taking it over as their clubhouse. The club will have office space, space for dancing and amusement as well as boat space and storage in what has been termed "one of the most ideal locations in the Maritime Province for a yacht club mooring."
