Enjoyable Supper For PEI Hospital

More than 800 people attended the annual ham and turkey supper of the Senior Ladies' Aid of the Prince Edward Island Hospital held yesterday evening in Trinity Church Hall. The supper which is the major project of the Hospital Aid, was under the convener-ship of Mrs. J. W. MacKenzie, assisted by Mrs. Gordon Leitch. Red steamed, hearts and red cabbage gave a Valentin effect to the tastefully decorated tables, which were arranged under the direction of Mrs. W. T. Rogers. In charge of meats was Mrs. W. E. Cotton; desserts, Mrs. R. S. P. Jardine; salads, Mrs. F. R. MacLaine. These ladies were ably assisted by the Hospital Aid members, representing the eight Protestant churches in the City. The members of the Hospital Board of Trustees, under the chairman, Mr. N. D. MacLean, gave splendid co-operation by looking after the seating and ushering.

they are made and any punishment might be carried out by the minister. As for applying the same regulations to ratings, petty officers and officers, Mr. Campbell said it is difficult to supervise ratings on shipboard. On the other hand, use of alcohol by officers was supervised and records were kept by the captain of each officer's consumption. At present, naval ratings can drink aboard ship under two conditions. They can accept or refuse a rum ration and on rare occasions in the tropics a captain may allow sale of bottled beer which the men must drink in the canteen.

New Wrinkle In Public Relations

MONTREAL (CP)—A new wrinkle in public relations will be introduced by the Canadian hockey club management today when representatives of the press, radio and television will have dinner with the "opposition" in the National Hockey League. Toronto Maple Leafs will be the first guest team in the meet-the-press series. Inaugurated by the club, The Leafs meet Canadian press tonight, and the dinner is at 3 p.m.—usual eating time for hockey players on the day of a game. The dinner is strictly for the visiting club. Montreal players will have to eat at home.

Centennial Club Meeting

Last evening at the local Y under the co-chairmanship of Brian Cudmore and Bob Acorn two local speakers increased the knowledge of the Centennial Club immensely.

Art Baillem spoke on the benefits and help extended by the Experimental Station at Charlottetown to the farming population of P. E. I. He outlined the development of the farm from its inauguration to the present day and dwelt extensively on his own job in the agronomy section. George Anderson spoke on the development of the Consumer Credit Industry from their birth to the present day. He talked on the reasons for loans and why this modern money service is such a benefit and help to the working class of people who have no access to any great amount of capital.

Guests of the evening were the nucleus of the new Phalanx Club, starting under the mentorship of George Anderson and Claude Whitehead. Bob Giggey, February's finest-master enlarged the treasury considerably through the development of several new quirks. The Boy of the Month project came into the discussion during the short business session as the club settled into the job of finding February's Boy of the Month. Percy Simmonds, Earl Taylor, Bob Giggey and Lorimer Cudmore were appointed as a committee to promote this interesting project.

Barry Beer and Clarence MacInnis collaborated on a lively singing song. The evening concluded with the singing of "The Queen."

Basilica C.W.L. Monthly Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Basilica sub-division of the Catholic Women's League was held last evening in the Knights of Columbus Home with the president, Mrs. Katherine Creamer in the chair. Believes No Gov't Officials Entertained

OTTAWA (CP)—The government said Wednesday that as far as can be learned no federal officials were entertained at a luxurious country home maintained by a contract-seeking company to entertain public officials. Revenue Minister McCann also told the Commons in reply to a question placed on the order paper by Stanley Knowles (CCF-Winnipeg North Centre) that no federal contracts with the company are under consideration at present. The existence of the private home, believed in Quebec's Laurentian hills, was disclosed in Jan. 8, judgment of the income tax appeal board on a claim by the company for the return of $27,786 from 1951 taxable income for renovations to the residence. The board, in rejecting the claim, said the home was a residence, where officials and officers of the various government bodies could be entertained prior to negotiation of government contracts. Mr. Knowles asked whether any federal officials or cabinet ministers were entertained at the home any time. Dr. McCann said his department has made a great number of inquiries. It was not "able to find anyone who has been entertained at this place."

Pearson Gets Scoop At Ballet

LONDON (CP)—External Affairs Minister Pearson of Canada went to the ballet Tuesday night and came away with a scoop. Pearson took time off from the conference of Commonwealth prime ministers to see Margot Fonteyn dance in "Giselle" at Covent Garden. Wednesday he told reporters he chatted with Miss Fonteyn during an interval and learned of her marriage "next week" to a Panama lawyer. Theatrical circles had buzzed with rumors that the 35-year-old prima ballerina might marry Roberto Arias of Panama, a wealthy lawyer. Miss Fonteyn, however, brushed the reports aside. "Pearson, noting reporters' surprised reaction, quipped: "Now that's probably the most important news I've given you all week."

Butter Price Cut Greeted By Institutions With Favor

OTTAWA (CP)—Hundreds of hospitals and charitable institutions have replied favoring the government's proposed 21-cent-a-pound price cut on butter and the sales plan will start operating next Wednesday. The government accumulated its surplus through its price support program under which it offers to buy all surplus butter at 58 cents a pound wholesale, stores it and attempts to dispose of its accumulations during the winter at 61 cents per pound wholesale. The three cents difference covering handling and storage costs. WILL MAKE UP DIFFERENCE. The government will make up the price difference to the suppliers either in cash or butter replacement stocks from the 70,000,000 pounds of the surplus butter. The board sent invitations to the institutions last Friday to participate in the price-cutting program. It said they have received "bushels of replies—all favorable."

Aim of the price reduction is to boost butter consumption and the board pointed out in its letters of invitation that "this should be possible if you allocate in your budget (Continued from page 1)

Russian Steel Mill For India

NEW DELHI (AP)—The government formally accepted Wednesday a Russian offer to construct a million-ton steel mill in India—marking an initial success for Russia's first large-scale attempt to export technical knowledge to a non-Communist nation. An agreement signed between India and Russia leaves the way open, however, for New Delhi to change its mind if it dislikes the final plans or final price. The accord indicates Moscow is not giving India something for nothing but is requiring India to pay for everything: plant, equipment, technical aid and expert advice.

Reds Attack

mander of the U. S. Far East air force, is expected here today to consult with the American naval commander and other high officers and to talk with Chiang and Rankin. Vice-Admiral Alfred M. Pride, commander of the U. S. 7th fleet, today denied persistent Hong Kong rumors that an American ship had been sunk in the Formosa straits. A 3,000-ton evacuation ship which arrived at Keelung with the second batch of Tachen evacuees reported passing four Communist gunboats Wednesday night south of the straits. "CARRIED PRISONERS" The ship brought 77 civilians, 214 military dependents, 247 students and 15 Communist prisoners. Nationalist officials denied that the Communists were succeeding in cutting off the Tachens, but usually reliable Nationalist sources admitted that destroyers and torpedo boats virtually ringed the group. All Nationalist ships now sailing there are escorted by at least two destroyers.

Planning Race Across Atlantic

NEW YORK (AP)—Plans for a trans-Atlantic yacht race from Newport, R.I., to Marstrand, Sweden, were announced Wednesday by the New York Yacht Club. The race, starting June 11, will be under the joint sponsorship of the New York Yacht Club and Royal Swedish Yacht Club. The prize will be the King of Sweden's Cup. It will be the first trans-Atlantic yacht race from a U. S. to a European port since the race to Norway in 1935. Officials expect an entry list of eight yachts. The race will cover a distance of 3,450 nautical miles. The entry list is open to yachts enrolled in any recognized yacht club.

Bank Shares On Montreal Exchange

MONTREAL (CP)—The 1,500,000 shares, $10 par value each, of the Toronto-Dominion Bank were admitted to the list of the Montreal stock exchange at 10 a.m. Wednesday, exchange officials announced. The shares of the Toronto-Dominion Bank are exchangeable on the basis of four new shares for each three shares of the Bank of Toronto, and one new share for one share of the Dominion Bank. The shares of the Bank of Toronto and the Dominion Bank were removed from trading as at the opening Wednesday. Merger of the two banks was completed Tuesday.

Driver Held In Daring Robbery

LONDON (AP)—Police Wednesday arrested Reginald Edgar Crane, 40-year-old truck driver, on charges of complicity in the daring daylight gold bullion robbery at the Royal Dutch Airline's London depot last Sept. 1. Fast-working handies crashed a truck into a KLM bullion carrier outside the airline depot and escaped with gold bars valued at $112,000. Crane appeared before a magistrate's court and was ordered held for a preliminary hearing next Wednesday. He was also charged with receiving $1,000 in Bank of England notes "knowing them to be stolen."

Couple Devoted After Shooting

HILL HALL, England (AP)—Blond divorcee Mavis Wheeler walked out of prison Wednesday and was immediately joined by Lord Vivian, the married man she wounded in a lovers' quarrel last July. Mrs. Wheeler served four months of a six-month sentence in connection with the shooting. Gaunt-faced Lord Vivian, 46, who underwent two major operations after the shooting in his country cottage hideaway, told reporters: "We are completely devoted." Mrs. Wheeler, 39, dressed in the same grey blue suit she wore during her trial, added: "That is completely true. I am feeling very happy now." Lord Vivian turned to her and said, "I am sure you are, darling, coming back to a home."

CMHC Has No Limit On Width Of Roof Boards

OTTAWA (CP)—The threat of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation to limit drastically the width of roof sheathing boards allowed on houses built under the National Housing Act has been removed for at least a year. CMHC officials said Wednesday the corporation will continue to allow the building trade to use wide pine boards up to 12 inches wide as roof sheathing until at least 1956. For years the mills have been turning out wide boards as roof sheathing but recently asphalt shingle suppliers complained that the wide boards tend to warp, causing the shingle to loosen and shift. They asked that the width be limited to six inches. CMHC last year planned an order to limit the width to eight inches but shelved the order when lumber men protested. They argued that wide boards warp no more than narrow ones and that the order would disrupt traditional sawing practices. Dealers would be left with stocks of wide boards for which there is no market.

Rubinstein Remembered Only One Girl In Will

By ARTHUR EVERETT NEW YORK (AP)—Multi-millionaire Serge Rubinstein, who spent lavishly in life on glamor-girl cafe society playmates, remembered only one of them Wednesday in death. She is Betty Reed, a blonde coloratura soprano, who was left $10,000 in the draft dodger's will. Worth an estimated $10,000,000, Rubinstein's will was filed Wednesday for probate. Most of his wealth went to his family. The court records reported that a broker friend of the strangled financier had turned over a list of 10 of Rubinstein's many business fees for possible questioning. DENIES ACTION Stanley T. Stanley, denied this. However, he has maintained from the outset that the 46-year-old Rubinstein was murdered by paid killers, and that the slaying could have its roots in business enemies. Rubinstein listed the names of social and business friends and acquaintances in a half dozen loose-leaf address books that turned up after his slaying. Police were reported about three-quarters of the way through their check of the more than 1,000 names. Clues to his slaying seemed as vague Wednesday as when Rubinstein's pyjama-clad body was found Jan. 27, strangled, gagged and trussed on a bedroom floor of his ornate Fifth Avenue mansion. FACED DEPORTATION The Russian-born Rubinstein served a federal prison term for Second World War draft dodging and to the moment of his death the government was trying to deport him. In his will, he left the bulk of his wealth while, left his two small daughters. But the principal was tied up until they reached the age of 50. The girls are Diana, 8, and Alexandra, 7, now in custody of Rubinstein's divorced wife. The will was dated the day before Christmas, 1953. It referred to his fortune as merely in excess of $100,000, a customary device in a will involving great or untold wealth. Rubinstein bequeathed his 78

Accidents Take Staggering Toll

CHICAGO (AP)—Accidents in the United States last year took a staggering toll, killing 91,000 persons and injuring 9,200,000. The estimated economic loss was nearly $10,000,000,000. The No. 1 accident killer, as in the last several years, was the motor vehicle. The National Safety Council, which reported the various mishaps in 1954, said Wednesday 36,800 lost their lives in traffic. That was a reduction of five per cent from 1953 and the lowest total since 1950. The record high was 39,969 in 1941. Traffic accidents also caused about 1,250,000 non-fatal injuries.

Final Estimate On Causeway Cost

OTTAWA (CP)—The government estimates final cost of the Canso causeway linking Cape Breton Island to the mainland of Nova Scotia will be $18,109,240. Transport Minister Marler Wednesday tabled in the Commons a return showing that the estimated federal share will be $14,400,000 and the provincial share $4,700,000. Spending to Dec. 31, 1954, was $10,725,425 and an additional $4,819,815 will be spent by the end of the current fiscal year. The expenditure for the 1955-56 fiscal year starting April 1 is estimated at $3,564,000. The figures were given for A. J. Brooks (PC-Royal).

CHICAGO (AP)—Accidents in the United States last year took a staggering toll, killing 91,000 persons and injuring 9,200,000. The estimated economic loss was nearly $10,000,000,000. The No. 1 accident killer, as in the last several years, was the motor vehicle. The National Safety Council, which reported the various mishaps in 1954, said Wednesday 36,800 lost their lives in traffic. That was a reduction of five per cent from 1953 and the lowest total since 1950. The record high was 39,969 in 1941. Traffic accidents also caused about 1,250,000 non-fatal injuries.

Driver Held In Daring Robbery

LONDON (AP)—Police Wednesday arrested Reginald Edgar Crane, 40-year-old truck driver, on charges of complicity in the daring daylight gold bullion robbery at the Royal Dutch Airline's London depot last Sept. 1. Fast-working handies crashed a truck into a KLM bullion carrier outside the airline depot and escaped with gold bars valued at $112,000. Crane appeared before a magistrate's court and was ordered held for a preliminary hearing next Wednesday. He was also charged with receiving $1,000 in Bank of England notes "knowing them to be stolen."

Couple Devoted After Shooting

HILL HALL, England (AP)—Blond divorcee Mavis Wheeler walked out of prison Wednesday and was immediately joined by Lord Vivian, the married man she wounded in a lovers' quarrel last July. Mrs. Wheeler served four months of a six-month sentence in connection with the shooting. Gaunt-faced Lord Vivian, 46, who underwent two major operations after the shooting in his country cottage hideaway, told reporters: "We are completely devoted." Mrs. Wheeler, 39, dressed in the same grey blue suit she wore during her trial, added: "That is completely true. I am feeling very happy now." Lord Vivian turned to her and said, "I am sure you are, darling, coming back to a home."

Believes No Gov't Officials Entertained

OTTAWA (CP)—The government said Wednesday that as far as can be learned no federal officials were entertained at a luxurious country home maintained by a contract-seeking company to entertain public officials. Revenue Minister McCann also told the Commons in reply to a question placed on the order paper by Stanley Knowles (CCF-Winnipeg North Centre) that no federal contracts with the company are under consideration at present. The existence of the private home, believed in Quebec's Laurentian hills, was disclosed in Jan. 8, judgment of the income tax appeal board on a claim by the company for the return of $27,786 from 1951 taxable income for renovations to the residence. The board, in rejecting the claim, said the home was a residence, where officials and officers of the various government bodies could be entertained prior to negotiation of government contracts. Mr. Knowles asked whether any federal officials or cabinet ministers were entertained at the home any time. Dr. McCann said his department has made a great number of inquiries. It was not "able to find anyone who has been entertained at this place."
