The new president of the Dominion Association of Chartered Accountants is Mr. H. R. Doane, O.B.E., F.C.A., of Calgary, Alberta, (above). Mr. Morrison was elected at the Association's 48th annual meeting here yesterday. He succeeds Mr. H. P. Doane, C.A. of Halifax.

The Association decided to conduct a survey of Canada to determine the need for public accountants in all parts of the Dominion and to determine whether the profession is best serving the public interest, and, if not, how it can do so. The requirements of the rural communities will be considered as well as those of the cities.

Other officers elected yesterday were: First Vice-President — A. E. Beauvais, C.A., Quebec, P.Q.; Second Vice-President — J. L. McLean, C.A., Vancouver, B.C.; First Regional Representative — W. J. Macdonald, F.C.A., Winnipeg, Man.; Second Regional Representative — J. G. Glasco, O.B.E., F.C.A., Toronto, Ont.; Treasurer — H. P. Herington, F.C.A., Toronto, Ont.; Immediate Past President of the Association is Mr. H. R. Doane, C.A. Halifax, N.S. Chairmen of Committees are Mr. K. Le M. Carter, F.C.A., Toronto; Mr. J. A. de Lallane, C.A., Montreal; Mr. D. J. Kelsey, C.A., Vancouver; Mr. G. F. Next year's annual meeting is to be held in Banff, Alberta. The chartered accountants, of whom it was announced there are now more than 4,000 in the Dominion, also decided at yesterday's meeting to cooperate in the International Congress on Accounting which is to be held next year in Mexico. Another decision calls for greater emphasis on accounting research, also the publication of accounting and auditing brochures for a number of specialized industries in Canada. The form of governmental accounts will be the subject of study by a special committee.

Mr. Morrison, the new president, is a prominent Calgary accountant. A Scot who came to Canada as a youth, he was admitted to the Alberta Institute of Chartered Accountants in 1922. Mr. Morrison is a former president of the Alberta Institute of Chartered Accountants, to which body he was elected as their president in 1948. He was awarded the O.B.E. by His Majesty in 1946. He has been a member of the Executive Committee of the Dominion Association of Chartered Accountants for several years, and until his elevation to the presidency today was first vice president.

Maritime Conference Of Catholic Hospitals

The Maritime Conference of the Catholic Hospital Association held its annual convention in the Scriptorium of the Charlottetown Hospital on August 22nd and 23rd. Approximately fifty delegates registered from the four Maritime Provinces. The convention was suitably opened with Solemn High Mass in St. Dunstan's Basilica at 9 a.m. Rev. J. B. Nearing, Lourdes, N.S., Chaplain of the M.C.C. H.A. celebrated the mass, assisted by Rev. J. Kelly, Charlottetown, as Deacon and Rev. J. Smith, Charlottetown, Sub-Deacon. His Excellency, Most Reverend James Boyle, Bishop of Charlottetown, was present in the sanctuary.

An inspiring sermon was delivered by Rev. M. J. MacKinnon, Glace Bay, N.S. The mass "Cum Jubilo" (Gregorian chant) and the harmonized proper of the lovely Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary was pleasingly sung by the Sisters' choir under the direction of Sister M. Winnifred, Charlottetown Hospital, with Sister M. Ursula, Mount St. Mary's, as pianist.

Following the mass the conference continued at the Hospital with Rev. J. B. Nearing, Lourdes, N.S., and Rev. H. Mitchell, Halifax, N.S., as instructors in the rest of the Liturgical program. "It is our intention," said Father Nearing, "to see all our activities in the light of working on behalf of those who belong to Christ's mystical body." A film, "You Can Change the World" was shown at the close of the morning session.

Reverend Sister Kenny, R.E. Chatham, N.B., presided at the afternoon meeting. Greetings were brought to the meeting by His Excellency, Most Reverend James Boyle, D.D., His Worship, Earl Macdonald, M. M. R. Kneiff, St. Louis, Mo., Executive Secretary of the Catholic Hospital Association of United States and Canada, and Sir W. J. P. MacMillan, O.B.E., chief of the medical staff of the Charlottetown Hospital.

Reports Submitted

Reports of the officers and of the various committees were read and discussed. Miss K. McLennan, B.A., R.N., Provincial Sanatorium, kindly outlined for the delegates the post-graduate courses offered by the School of Nursing at Mc-intyre from his recent operation in the P. E. I. Hospital.

Mrs. James Harten and daughter Noreen of Brighton, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. John McHugh of Waterford, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Clarkin of Allston, Mass., left their homes after an enjoyable vacation spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Coady, North Westshore.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Arsenault from Toronto, Ontario, and Mr. Arthur Arsenault of the Department of Transport, Montreal, are visiting the Province after cycling here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. A. Brown have returned from a motor trip to Ottawa and the United States. On their return they were accompanied by Miss Sue Brenton who has been spending the past 6 weeks in Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Coady and daughters, Margaret, Patricia and Mary Frances left for Lunenburg, Alta., after spending a vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Coady, North Westshore.

Gill University. A symposium on pension plans in which the actors were Sister John Baptist, Charlottetown, Sister M. Clarissa, Sydney, and Sister St. Anne, Chatham, gave the audience a very realistic idea of the need of such provision for hospital personnel.

A panel discussion on Central Schools of Nursing was carried out by Sister Catherine Gerard, Halifax, Sister Mary of Calvary, Antigonish, and Sister Mary Irene, Charlottetown. The participants showed that this new development in nursing education requires much careful consideration and planning to make it satisfactory.

Sister deLellis, St. John, discussed briefly the qualifications and training of X-ray technicians. Rev. Dr. Ellsworth, St. Dunstan's University, spoke on the "Application of the Moral Law to Catholic Hospitals." The learned doctor stressed the fact that the church does not make the moral law, it comes from God. Therefore, the law is reasonable in accord with Divine reason. Dr. Ellsworth pointed out that there is no place where the question of moral law comes more into play than in all hospitals. Doctors, nurses and all are bound by the law. A deserving tribute to the Maritime Hospital Services Association (Blue Cross) was admirably worded and delivered by Sister Anita Vincent, administrator of the Halifax Infirmary. Immediately after adjournment, the delegates assembled in the Hospital Chapel for Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Congratulates Sisters Dr. J. A. McMillan was the guest speaker at the dinner at 6 p.m. He congratulated the Sisters on their achievements in the hospital field and encouraged them to reach even higher in rendering eminent service to God's sick and poor.

The Publicity Committee under the sponsorship of Sister Jeanne Mance Bathurst, provided an attractive display of posters, statistics, etc. The individual hospitals contributed according to what had been done by their institutions during the past year.

A unique feature was a special Blue Cross booth in which dolls were dressed to represent the various Sisterhoods engaged in hospital services in the Maritimes. This elicited much favorable comment and created interest in this project.

The delegates reconvened on Wednesday morning. An informative talk on "Dietetic Control" was given by Sister Irene Marie, Mount St. Vincent's College, Halifax, and some practical ideas on the subject were added by Mother Loyola, Charlottetown Hospital. The increased awareness of the importance of the dietary department led the delegates to suggest the formulation of a resolution urging the education of more Sisters in this field.

An interesting interlude was a report presented by Reverend Father Godkin, Chaplain of the Hotel Dieu Hospital, Bathurst, N. B., on the work of a group of Hotel Dieu Sisters of New Brunswick in the Lepzer Colony in Peru. Sister Catherine Gerard, Halifax, read a paper on "Liability Insurance in Hospitals", impressing on the delegates the importance of this protection.

Mr. Kneiff brought to the fore-front modern ideas on "Trends in Hospital Service." The speaker's long association with the hospital work in the head office of the Association at St. Louis enabled him to give the conference invaluable assistance in this discussion as well as in all the deliberations of the meeting. At this time a tour of the new Pavilion was arranged for the delegates.

Afternoon Session

At the afternoon meeting, Rev. R. J. Williams described the flag of Christ the King which he had designed and which has been blessed and sanctioned by His Holiness, Pope Pius XII. The resolutions committee then presented their report. Unanimously adopted were resolutions of thanks to Most Reverend James Boyle, Mayor MacDonald, Mr. Kneiff, Sir William MacMillan, and Mother M. Paula and her staff; also to all those who contributed in any way to the success of the convention. Routine business was concluded and the meeting adjourned after deciding to convene next year in Antigonish on invitation of Sister Paul of the Cross, St. Martha's Hospital.

The visiting representatives were taken to Cavendish in cars provided by the Board of Governors, the members of the medical staff and friends of the hospital.

After a pleasant visit at Green Gables, the drive continued along the shore road to the Knights of Columbus camp. The visitors were loud in their praises of the scenic view afforded by the drive, and delighted with the opportunity to visit Anne's home, for many years ago was an old friend. An enjoyable hot dinner was served to all at the camp after which a sing song was concluded by appropriate vesper hymns and the great hymn of thanksgiving, "Holy God We Praise Thy Name".

Church Members Entertained

On Wednesday evening, July 26, 1950, some fifty or more new members of the Uigg, Alexandria, Cross Roads, and Hazelbrook field who were received into the church during Lic. Byron Howlett's ministry, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Howlett at the parsonage.

A very pleasant evening was spent by singing hymns, reading of Scripture and prayer by the pastor. Some very interesting testimonies were given by those present, showing what Christ has meant to them and what a change has taken place in their lives since they had accepted Him as their Saviour. Mr. Howlett also told of his experience and how he came to answer the call to go and preach the Gospel. He asked that more young people would give their life to the Lord's work. He also spoke of the work of the young people in the church, and that a large amount of the work to be done depended on the young people to see that it would be done. He also said that when he finished his education he hoped to come back to us once more, but in the meantime prayed that the work of the church would go forward, as it had in the past.

Mrs. Harold Cudmore favored the gathering with a solo, which was enjoyed by all. Meeting then closed by singing "Oh That Will Be Glory For Me" and prayer by the pastor. A dainty lunch was
