MENS INTRAMURALS

In mens softball, upsets were the name of the game. In quarter finals play, the Independents jumped to a seven (7) nothing 1st. inning lead over a somewhat diminished in numbers, Freshmen squad. However, led by the explosive bats of Mr. October, Rick Hill, and T. Young, this seven man outfit fought back for a 15-8 win going away. It was an impressive showing for this internally troubled outfit who had to battle the courts as well as the extreme cold all year.

In game two, Blanchard was pitted against its foremost rival, Marion Hall. This match, rated by many to be the contest of the year, was never in doubt as Blanchard went to work early in knocking out the very colourful Marion boys. The score after two was Blanchard 15 (or more) to a meager pair for Marion. These two winners would now advance to the semi-finals to face the winner of 1st place champions and perennial pennant winners Mean Machine and last place finishers Engineers, whose only win was a forfeit. EXCLUSIVE NEWS BULLETIN....The Mean Machine has been defeated....Having only to win this game for a bye into the finals, Mean Machine resembled the Cincinatti Reds, befuddled by superior pitching and stunned by the scrappy defensive tactics of the underdogs on route to their first playoff loss. After falling behind 8-0 after one complete, the favourites fought back to make it interesting at 8-6. Then the Engineers took control. Led by free agents Big Jim MacDonald and fierce NEW LAFFERTY, the defense was secure. The fine pitching of Mike Cairns??? dominated and quieted the usually loud and booming bats of the "champs" on route to an impressive win and stunning setback over the perhaps over-confident Mean Machine. The final score was 18-8, and the "Machine" resembled a stalled motor in winter; try your hardest to get it started and just as it looks good, sputter, choke, you're out in the cold. It was indeed a major upset, but the best team won. Reports from the commissionaires office state that Mr. Mulligan is frantic as he had something riding on the finals with M&M facing the young Freshmen. Filling in for the absent Coach of the Machine, and writer of this fine editorial, is E. Dicks, predicting the Freshmen over the men of Blanchard for the right to face the hot and very exciting Engineers. Take your pick in the finals.

THE INSIDE STORY ON THE M AND M LOSS

By Phillip Brown

The reason there are two articles in softball this week is that I am an advent supporter and participant of the Mean Machine. Therefore, I must stand by my guns and defend their loss. There are several reasons why M and M lost to the Engineer's. First, the Engineer's had the same advantage over us this year as they did last year. They were equipped with a full team while M and M had a mere six players. Secondly, our pitcher, Allan Hughes, pitched with a stub thumb. Finally, I was off the Island on the day of the game recruiting for our hockey club. In conclusion, M and M has lost in this league, but this is just one of the several intramural sports that our team participates in. This loss just hit the nail on the head, so, take warning. My intramural colleagues, the Mean Machine, are on the war path.
