

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

OCTOBER 24, 1895.

THE P. E. ISLAND CHEESE BUSINESS.

We quote, in another column of THE EXAMINER, of today, an article from the Farmer's Sun, the organ of the Patrons of Industry. It will readily be seen that this article is made up almost wholly of misrepresentations and downright untruths, designed to convince the farmers of Ontario that "they have to bear the brunt of all the expenses" of the Dominion Government in respect to the development of the industries of this Dominion.

Mr. Editor.—When coming to P. E. Island to take charge of a cheese factory I subscribed for the Sentinel Review so as to keep posted from a reliable source, and generally I found it very useful and helpful. My object in writing, however, is to draw your attention to an article in the issue of the 4th inst., copied from the Farmer's Sun about Government cheese buyers, etc., in which, so far as it deals with dairy matters in this province, is misleading, and in fact untruthful.

Now, I am not here to defend the rights of this province, but I cannot but feel the injustice done the dairy industry here by such uncalculated and unfair articles as that published by the Farmer's Sun. I am not interested in political parties having never cast or never being asked for a vote; still I believe the politics of our country requires elevating, and that being the object of the patron movement, I expect better things of them; but if their party warfare is all of the character of the article referred to, there will soon be another party required to elevate the patrons.

On the part of the farmers of this province we thank Mr. Raby for his clear exposition of the facts in respect to their cheese business, and his able defence against the unwarrantable attack of the Farmer's Sun.

THE PEOPLE'S PLATFORM.

We believe that THE EXAMINER'S correspondent "Elector" voices public opinion in respect to the new policy to be pursued concerning provincial affairs. It is to be noted that neither the Patriot nor the Pioneer dares to take ground against the People's Platform as recently outlined by THE EXAMINER. But both these organs forgetting the homely axiom that "every tub should stand upon its own bottom," make dishonest attempts to offset the wrongs committed by the Peters administration by reference to alleged wrongs on the part of the Dominion Government.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

THE PEOPLE'S PLATFORM.

Sir.—In your issue of the 16th inst. you submitted certain propositions to which every elector in this province should give a most impartial consideration, for in your platform lies the political salvation of our country's independence and our people's independence. The system which has been advanced in your arguments in support of each respective plank, for every fair and unbiased mind must clearly see, in the presence of the reckless and extravagant pro-tem administration, the imperative necessity of adopting a policy and of organizing effectively on a common platform to hurl from office a party whose policy is directly opposed to our provincial prosperity.

GOVERNMENT CHEESE BUYERS.

The Organ of the Patrons Has Something to Say About Paternalism. The Dominion Government seems determined to take almost every industry of the outlying provinces of this Dominion, plant by plant, into its paternalistic care, and, of course, the farmers of Ontario have to bear the brunt of all the expenses. Not only do the fishermen of the Maritime Provinces receive large bounties every year, but so also do the iron miners and iron smelters, and last session the lead and silver miners of British Columbia were added to the list.

Now it comes to our knowledge that the same kindly Government has undertaken to give aid to the farmers of Prince Edward Island. Times get hard there among farmers, just as here among farmers. Money was scarce, but, of course, money is always abundant at Ottawa headquarters. The Ottawa government built six cheese factories in Prince Edward Island and sent down a highly paid official, Prof. Roberts, to supervise and manage them.

It turns out, too, that the market price of cheese have been unexpectedly low in Prince Edward Island, just as they have been in Ontario and elsewhere. In Ontario the cheese factories have had to sell for what they could get in the market, and "grin and bear it." Not so in Prince Edward Island. The cheering news came to us last week that the Dominion Dairy Commission had drawn $10,000 from the banks, at the public credit of course, and advanced it to those Maritime cheese men, shipping off the cheese to Montreal, where it now lies stored, waiting the chance of an advancement in price.

Some of that cheese is reported to be spoiling now. If it should all spoil, so much the worse for the general taxpayers, whose $10,000 has already found its way into the Islanders' pockets. It would be a very handy arrangement if the Ontario farmers could go to some Dominion Government official and get advanced what money they happen to need, while the market for butters, or cheese, or grain, is low, without taking any risks about the markets going still lower, or the cheese or butter spoiling, but Patrons in Ontario have denounced some farmers who have asked for such Government favor.

As a matter of fact, though, the farmers here have, too many of them, supported the "old policy" through thick and thin, while in the East the farmers have gone largely the other way, but now a heroic attempt is apparently being made to convince them that their interests lie in keeping the present men in power,—just as a lot of manufacturers, monopolists and favorite contractors have been convinced that their interests would not be so well served by any other class of men in Canada as by the upholders of "the old policy."

It is in the interests of the farmers of the provinces to go on supporting a policy of that kind? The burdens of taxation and of public debt thus entailed have become disheartening and well nigh intolerable, and they must needs continue to grow until there is a sweeping change in the men or in their policy. The price of cheese in Ontario is alarmingly low, but farmers do not seek—and would not accept—governmental favor. The Patrons of Prince Edward Island have now a splendid opportunity to fight for principle—justice to everybody and favors to none.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Bering Sea Arbitration.

OTTAWA, Oct. 24. A congress to arrange the details of the proposed arbitration to assess the Bering Sea seizure damages will meet at Washington next week. It is expected that Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Hon. Mr. Costigan and Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper will constitute the Canadian representatives at the conference.

The Manitoba Question.

MONTREAL, Oct. 24. Hon. Mr. Oulmet made rather an important speech last evening, in which he intimated that the Dominion Parliament would be called together on the 5th January, and that remedial legislation would be introduced. He opposed an investigation, saying that the Canadian Parliament had no power to enlarge or diminish the right of the minority to accede to the constitution.

A Fatal Explosion.

NEWBURYPORT, MASS., Oct. 24. There was a terrific explosion yesterday in the drying room of the Fibrelloid works. Charles McManus was instantly killed, J. E. Reed was badly burned and cannot recover. Jas. McLaughlin is also in a critical condition. Two others were badly burned, but will recover. The loss to the company is $5,000.

Arrested for Fraud.

HALIFAX, Oct. 24. J. G. O'Leary, who made an assignment a few days ago, was arrested last night at the instance of a Montreal firm on a charge of fraud. P. E. Island parties are interested in this failure.

See our blizzard protectors, ulsters and overcoats. They are positively wind-proof, rain-proof and frost-proof. These coats are superior to any fur coats for all seasons; you should see them before buying elsewhere—McKay Woolen Co.

Prompt & Liberal.

The response to our Saturday's advertisement was prompt and liberal—in fact, the Big Bookstore was full of customers all the evening and the clerks busy selling Literature, Japanese Ware, Bulbs, Toys, etc. Our Store is a good deal of a Bazaar (it ought to be, since we bought out of "Bazaar Store") and few people in the city but can find something they need there every week. We aim to keep everything in our line and sell at popular prices.
