BRISTOL

Friends of Miss Gertrude Henneberry will be sorry to learn of her continued illness. Miss Henneberry has been a patient in Charlotte Hospital for some time and we all hope she will soon be on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Eugene Sinnott and Mrs. Francis Fitzgerald were in the city on Friday on business.

The old McVarish that was operated by Mr. Joe MacDonald, for some years and for the past year by his brother Barney, has been closed up by the V.L.A. for the present at least. Joe is a patient in Camp Hill Hospital at present.

This vicinity learned with regret last week of the passing of Mr. Lem Hughes, at his home in Peakes' Station after an illness of quite some time. Lem Hughes was known to everyone far and wide and for many years was a noted blacksmith. As postmaster scores of people came to his office for information along with other business. He enjoyed prime health all his life until his wife passed away a few months ago. This seemed to start Lem on the down hill and he never recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter McLellan, and children were Sunday visitors at Mrs. McLellan's home here, guests of her parents for Mother's Day Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Sinnott.

Mrs. Margaret Matheson was a visitor to the city on Saturday on business.

A refugee family numbering ten that have been residing in the parish residence at Morell Rear since last fall will have to find a new home this spring. Rev. E. Robin will be taking up residence in the house for the summer months. This family have

PISQUID EAST

Mr. Floyd Jay and Mr. Alton Jay were in Charlottetown on business Tuesday.

Friends in this vicinity are sorry to hear that Mr. Arthur Mitchell, Mount Stewart, is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital. He was a former resident of Pisquid East.

His many friends were shocked to hear that Mr. L.B. Hughes had passed away at his home in not.

been taught English during the winter months by Mrs. Mary Malone.

The lobster fishing season that has been reported so good in the western part of the Island is not so good here where northerly winds have done considerable damage to traps and nets. The fishermen were unable to get out for several days.

Peakes, May 8th. He was the postmaster and a well known blacksmith for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leard were visitors in Charlottetown Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Leard, Moncton, N.B., is spending a week with

LITTLE SANDS

Mr. Montie Livingstone, Little Sands, visited at the home of his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacMillan on Sunday.

It is reported that Mr. Hector MacLean has returned from Picou Landing where he spent the winter with his niece, Mrs. Gratto at Picou Lodge.

Best wishes go out to the two her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leard. While here she attended the Christmas of her little grandson, Frederick Wallace Leard, in Mount Stewart United Church, Mother's Day, May 11th.

A number from this vicinity attended the Johnny Cash Show in Charlottetown Friday night.

Mr. John White, Montague, was a visitor in Pisquid East Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle MacDonald, Lorne Valley, were Sunday guests of Mrs. MacDonald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Jay.

His many friends regret the continued illness of Mr. Wallace Birt. All hope for improvement soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jay, sons Merlin and Irwin, spent Sunday in Covehead Road. They were guests of Mrs. Jay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacDonald.

Mrs. Reg. MacNevin, Charlottetown, was a Sunday visitor at the home of her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Levi Jay. B.A.

sisters, Mrs. Angus MacPherson, a patient in the Montague Hospital and Mrs. Euphemia Mency a patient in the P. E. Island Hospital, for a complete recovery soon.

The fishermen are busy getting their traps out. It is reported there is still a large number of traps to be put out yet. Windy weather has delayed setting the lobster traps.

As I write I see the Lord Selkirk coming up towards Wood Islands then turning around and sailing east, then back again to Wood Islands. The Lord Selkirk is a large and high boat.

There has been considerable gravel hauled from the shore near here to Murray River for building purposes.
