Teams Quit Conference

IT WOULD appear that St. Dunstan's Varsity football team will be playing in the same league with Mount Allison and University of New Brunswick next season.

Both the Mounties and the Fredericton boys created this picture Tuesday when they withdrew from the Atlantic Football Conference in favor of intercollegiate play. This would appear like a good move as far as the Saints are concerned because they'll get back in competition with old rivals from these two New Brunswick ktowns.

In intercollegiate play, players must attain a required percentage in their studies to be elegible to participate. This naturally doesn't apply to the Atlantic Football Conference where several of the teams have no connection with examinations. However, we have the feeling that both Mount A and UNB held to this rule fairly well even though the AFC didn't demand it of them. Of course in intercollegiate play, nobody wanders from it. It's a hard and fast rule and it is strictly adhered to.

ACADIA Axemen are anxiously awaiting to get in the new college loop with Mount Allison, University of New Brunswick and Saint Dunstan's. Of course, the St. F.X. team will remain in the AFC where it has dominated the picture for so many years. St. Mary's states it will not move out of the AFC because the gates are good in the present setup and because it would mean deserting Stadacona and Shearwater.

Folks on the local scene, we imagine, will be delighted to know that these old rivals of rugby days will be again appearing in Charlottetown. Both Mount A and UNB have thrilled football followers here in the past and you can be certain that they'll continue to do the same in the future.

What About Future?

However, there are those who insist this change will cause grief for everybody. The loss of Mount Allison and the University of New Brunswick will surely hurt the Atlantic Football Conference. The formation of a junior AFC now without St. Dunstan's and Acadia may be almost an impossibility. It would leave only Shearwater Furies, Dal Jayvees and St. F.X. Jayvees and chances are the Xaverians would be too strong for the other two.

Mount Allison finished as runnerup to St. F.X. in the 'A' conference last season. There are those who argue that the Mounties will run away with the new college loop and that football will suffer as a result.

But St. Dunstan's intends to work toward better things and last fall fielded a prety fair squad. Early in the season they really worried the Mounties in an exhibition game here. They lost the 'B' crown by a mere two points in a sudden death battle with St. F.X. Jayvees.

As far as we could make out, it was Saints' idea to work toward an 'A' conference berth. Speculation was that in a couple of more years the Red and White would be ready to make the jump.

WE FIGURE if Saints had such ambitions they will not worry too much about being outclassed by Mount Allison or UNB. We aren't suggesting Ed Hilton and his band will chase these New Brunswickers off the gridiron but we do suggest the local scholars can make things a bit interesting.

Last season Dal Jayvees were so weak that they were not scheduled against Saints in the 'B' conference. Shearwater Furies were no match for any of the other teams. It was strictly a three-team affair, Saints, St. F.X. Jayvees and Acadia Axemen.

If the local university is ambitious, and it always has been, we can't see them worrying about how strong the New Brunswick teams are. We still have the idea that this latest move is a good one and that local football followers will ibe happier with it.

Time alone will tell.

Big Game Tonight

TONIGHT at Maple Leaf Gardens the Leafs will entertain Chicago Black Hawks in a big encounter.

If the Leafs can win, they'll go five points up and have two games in hand and will all but clinch the second position. After tonight Hawks will have only nine games to play

On the other hand, if the Stanley Cup champions conqquer, the spread will be reduced to one point and anything might happen the rest of the distance. The two teams meet again on two occasions before the league schedule draws to a close. One game is to be played in each city.

SPORT OF KINGS

Will Endeavour To Correct Mistakes Made Last Week

Last week, our column was about suspensions to intermediate hockey players and the Island Ice Sports. As it turns out, we made a few mistakes that we shall endeavour to straighten out at once.

First of all, the Dept. of Physical Education does not handle, directly, either intermediate hockey or the Ice Sports. The hockey situation comes under the direction of the Amet Athletic Union, with Jack "Spy" Ready as Commissioner. The Ice Sports come under the guidance of the Interscholastic Athlectic Ass.

Now, in regard to the suspensions, Johnston of Georgetown was not suspended at all as we reported. It was debated, but, it was decided that a suspension was not necessary. It seems that in the mixup, officials of the Georgetown team got slightly bewildered and thought that their player had received a suspension. The suspension that was handed out to MacCarten of Morell was a two game affair and three games as we reported. The fact that it was two games and not three, still does not satisfy us until we see an official statement from the A.A.U.

We have been informed, through a very reliable source that the Ice Sports program will be exactly the same as last year. There have been no changes made in this regard. The officials of the Souris Ice Sports wrongly informed us that changes had been made. The information regarding all the above had been received by this writer in good faith, but it looks like we'll have to check all reports thoroughly in the future.

Souris Legion are the King's County Intermediate "B" hockey champions. They will now advance to the Island semi-finals. We don't know, as yet, just who their opponents will be in this round. We understand that Hampshire and Parkdale split their two games in their round robin series and that they are the top contenders in that series. Last year, goals for and against would then enter the picture, with the winner being the team with the best edge. We were told that this was not to be the case this year. However, we don't know if this is the case or not. We do not recall seeing anything regarding what was to be done if two teams ended in a deadlock during the playoff schedule.

PREDICT WINNER

Since Hampshire and Parkdale are so evenly matched, we will predict that if Souris meets either team, then the Legion will emerge the winner and advance to the Island finals for the second year in a row.

All playoff games have two referees, one supplied by the visiting team, and one supplied by the home team. This, we contend is not, and never was a good situation. In too many cases the referees are inclined to bend towards the team from whence they came. This, we suppose is natural, but it can and does result in a great many raw decisions. Usually in the semi-finals and finals, the referees come from Charlottetown. This results in impartial and fair refereeing. It would be nice if some scheme could be worked out for the first rounds.

The playoffs for both the men and Women's Bowling Leagues in Souris will be starting in the near future. All together in both league there will be twelve different series. We called ten of the twelve rounds correctly last year. This year, we'll be a little more careful, and make no mistake.

"DEFENDING" CHAMP - - By Alan Maver

Royals Win Island Title; Sweep Finals 5 Straight

Sandy's Parkdale Royals made a clean sweep in capturing the Island Senior Hockey League title. Royals went through the semi-finals and finals without a defeat, capping it with an 8-4 victory over Cape Traverse Evinrudes last night at the Sports Arena.

The Royals took the Crystals in four straight games and then swept five straight games from the Cape Traverse team in the finals.

The Buck Whitlock-coached champs now meet Saint John Oilers in a best of five series for the N.B.-P.E.I. crown, the first game slated for Friday night in Saint John.

Linemates Angie Carroll and Alfie Flanagan were the big guns for the Royals last night, each coming up with three goal performances. Stu McLure and Gerald Noonan scored the two others.

For the Evinrudes it was playing-coach Gord Cutcliffe with two goals and Charlie Sark and Ev. White singletons.

Despite the lopsided defeat suffered by the Motormen in the fourth game, close to 1,000 fans were on hand to watch last night's action.

LOOK GOOD

The Evinrudes looked good in the first period and after twenty minutes the score was deadlocked at 2-all. The Royals pumped three unanswered markers by hard-working Thane Mann in the sandwich session however and then added three more in the final period compared to two by the losers.

The game marked the return of goalie Frank Roper between the Royal pipes. Roper was absent during some of the playoffs and during this time it was Donnie Frizzell handling the netminding chores.

The first period saw Evinrudes open the scoring at the 4.51 mark on a goal by Ev White but the Royals took less than two minutes to get back on even terms on a counter by Alfie Flanagan. That was the first and only time the Evinrudes were in the lead. The rest of the time it was strictly an uphill struggle and they didn't have the horses to topple the powerful Royals.

Defenceman Stu McLure put the Royals ahead in the opening period and then it was the Evinrudes' turn to go into a tie, this time on a goal by Gord Cutcliffe.

The three goals for the Royals in the second period were picked up by Angie Carroll, Alfie Flanagan and Gerald Noonan and in the third it was Alfie Flanagan 2 and Angie Carroll. Evinrude markers were by Pat Noonan and Charlie Sark.

Referees Jack 'Spy' Ready and Don Whalen handed out a total of sixteen penalties, four of them majors for fighting in the third period. Each team picked up eight.

First Period: 1.—Evinrudes, E. White (A. Cutcliffe) 4:31; 2.—Royals, A. Carroll (unassisted) 8:24; 3.—Royals, S. MacLure (D. Carroll, Whitlock) 9:26; 4.—Evinrudes, G. Cutcliffe (C. Sark, D. Clough) 12:44. Penalties: Flanagan 6:14, Reeves 10:55, Josey 11:53.

Second Period: 4.—Royals, A. Carroll (Flanagan, McLure) 1:38; 5.—Royals, A. Flanagan (A. Carroll, Reeves) 10:30. 6.—Royals, G. Noonan (Cruwys, Jim MacLeod) 12:33. Penalties: Gallant 3:29; Sark 9:09; Gallant 15:36; Walsh (2 minors) 16:21; A. Carroll (2 minors) 16:21.

Third Period: 8.—Evinrudes, G. Cutcliffe (P. Noonan, Clough) 4:51; 9.—Royals, Flanagan (A. Carroll, K. Ready) 6:03; 10.—Evinrudes, C. Sark, (G. Cutcliffe, F. Driscoll) 8:29; 11.—Royals, Flanagan (A. Carroll) 10:58; 12.—Royals, A. Carroll (Flanagan, A. MacLeod) 19:29. Penalties: K. Ready (major) 9:21; Clough (major) 9:21; Sark (major) 13:18; Reeves (major) 13:18; Junior MacLeod 17:10; Walsh 18:25.

B.C. Rink Scores Upset; Islanders Still Winless

REGINA (CP) — A British Columbia rink skipped by Mrs. Ina Hansen of Kimberley defeated defending Canadian woman's curling champion Joyce McKee of Saskatoon 11-10 in fourth - round play Tuesday to remain alongside Quebec as the only unbeaten rinks.

Mrs. Anne Philips of the town of Mount Royal, Que., defeated Mrs. Kathleen Hebert of Manitoba 10-9 to keep her record free of any losses.

The Saskatchewan loss was the first suffered by the rink in two years of competition. Miss McKee was unbeaten in all rounds of last year's women's final at Ottawa.

In other fourth - round play, New Brunswick stopped Ontario 9-4, while Alberta was getting its first win of the championship, 12-2 over Prince Edward Island. Nova Scotia also won its first match, stopping Newfoundland 12-7.

WINDUP EXCITING

It was the windup of the B.C. - Saskatchewan match that caught the interest. Mrs. Hansen piled up a 9-2 lead after five ends before Miss McKee scored a whopping five to bring things closer on the sixth, counting two more on the eighth.

British Columbia, with last rock against them, still led 11-9 coming home. Miss McKee was counting one of her last rock which should have sent the game into extra ends, was short of the house, B.C. winning it 11-10.

Quebec and Manitoba seesawed in their fourth - round play with the easterners requiring singles on the seventh, eighth and final ends to gain a 10-9 win.

In the third round Tuesday, Quebec defeated Alberta 9-3, Ontario laced Nova Scotia 14-3, New Brunswick downed Prince Edward Island 14-7, B.C. swamped Kathleen Hebert's Manitoba rink 13-6 and Saskatchewan dumped Tinker Rockwell of Newfoundland 11-6.

Miss McKee's strategy backfired several times in the third round. In the first end, with a clear house, she blanked the end, but Mrs. Rockwell buried a stone in the eight foot and counted it in the second end.

BEHIND FIRST TIME

In the fifth end, Newfoundland went ahead 3-2, the first time in the championships that Saskatchewan was behind. Mrs. Rockwell was light on takeouts in both the sixth and seventh ends and Miss McKee ran up four in the sixth and another three the next end.

Newfoundland came right back, however, narrowing the margin to 9-6 with a pair in the ninth end. Miss McKee counted twice in the last end to ensure the win.

Alberta was soundly trounced by the Quebec rink. The fourth end probably was the turning point. Vera Reed's Calgary rink, behind 4-1 at the time, had three rocks around the four - foot when Philippa Tanton, the Quebec third, drew in and froze to the Alberta shot rock, both rocks partially covered by guards.

Ontario, which lost two tough games Monday, 12-8 to Miss McKee and 8-7 in an extra end to Mrs. Philips, found the range against Nova Scotia, scoring five in the first when Nova Scotia skip Pearl Carter was light on a draw to the four-foot.

The Elizabeth Macdonald rink from Prince Edward Island could not find its takeout weight against New Brunswick. The Phyllis Pinder rink from Moncton scored two six-enders, one in the third and another in the seventh. In both ends, Mrs. Macdonald nearly hogged her rocks attempting to cut the Pinder rink out of at least some counters.

Bobby Hull Could Wind Up With 50 Goals This Year

By LAURENT CHIASSON

MONTREAL (CP) — Bobby Hull can wind up the present National Hockey League season with 50 goals if he maintains the torrid scoring pace of his last seven weeks.

And if the husky left winger of the Chicago Black Hawks gets 50, he'll become the second player in two years to tie retired Maurice (Rocket) Richard's record for most goals in one season.

Hull has been bombing opposing netminders with amazing regularity since Jan. 11, getting 24 goals in 21 games — an average of 1.14 goals for each outing.

His season total stands at 39 and extension of the recent surge through Chicago's remaining 10 games would give him the 11 goals he needs to tie the mark.

Hull, who celebrated his 23rd birthday last Jan. 3, faces a tall order. But it is not an impissible one.

When Bernie .Boom Boom) Geoffrion of Montreal Canadiens tied Richard's record last season, he scored 23 times in his last 22 games.

A GOAL-A-GAME CLIP

Richard, a 544-goal scorer during 18 seasons with Montreal, established the 50-goal mark in 1944-45. He accomplished the fact in a 50-game scheduled—a goal-a-game clip.

The league schedule now calls for an extra 20 games. Last season Geoffrion played in 64 games. missing six through injuries, and so far this year Hull has appeared in all of Chicago's 60 starts.

The boomer had 40 goals after 60 games last season, and at that point wasn't really considered a serious threat because Frank Mahovlich of Toronto Maple Leafs already had 45.

But Big M went into a tailspin. winding up the season with only 48, and Geoffrion came on with a rush.

The burly right winger went scoreless in his 61st game. He then went on a spree that enabled him to tie the record in Montreal's 68th game. Chicago and Detroit Red Wings held him off the scoresheet in the last two games.

Hull started slowly this season and mustered only 15 goals in his first 39 games. But on Jan. 11 he scored once against Boston Bruins and two nights later got two more tallies against New York Rangers. He has been a terror since.

HAD ONE BIG GAME

During the span, Hull has had only one big game—four goals against Terry Sawchuk of Detroit Feb. 1. In six other games, he scored twice.

Here are the victims—teams and goalies — in his run of 39 goals to date:

Against Boston — 12; six against Don Head, five against Bruce Gamble and one against Ed Chadwick.

Against New York—9; eight against Lorne Worsley (one of them in an open net) and one against Marcel Paille.

Against Detroit — 9; seven against Terry Sawchuk and two against Hank Bassen.

Against Montreal — 6; all against Jacques Plante.

Against Toronto — 3; all against Johnny Bower.

The Hawks remaining games don't favor Hull. They must play three each against Montreal and Toronto, two against Detroit and one against both New York and Boston.
