ANOTHER RAILWAY ACCIDENT.—An accident occurred Wednesday morning on the Intercolonial Railway. While a special train, in charge of Conductor N. L. Tarte, was taking the siding from the east end at St. Valiere, near Levi, a market train coming up ran into the special and smashed two ploughs and damaged two engines. Both trains had ploughs on. The accident was caused by stormy weather. They could not see each other. A brakeman was slightly injured.

SELLING LIQUOR TO BOYS.—Four or five little fellows, all children of highly respectable citizens, purchased a bottle of liquor from a well-known dealer in the ardent yesterday, and proceeded to have "a good time." They drove out the road a short distance, and during the drive, it is said, about half the contents of the bottle found its way down the throats of several of the boys. By the time they got home some of the boys were very sick, and two of them at least had to take to their beds. One of the lads, ten years old, was very sick all night and to-day, vomiting a good deal of the time. The man or woman who would sell intoxicating liquor to boys of such tender years is richly deserving of punishment. In this case, we understand the seller of the liquor is known, and it is hoped that the law will be allowed to take its course.

POLICE COURT.—This morning, James Anderson was arraigned charged with the larceny of a dressing case, lounge, pair of blankets, two feather pillows and a quilt, the property of Mr. Albert R. Crosby, of this city. The articles in question, it was brought out in evidence, were stored in Mr. Geo. W. Gardiner's warehouse on Grafton Street, from which place they were stolen and sold to a man named Savidant, who lives in Gaytown, in whose possession they were found by the police. Mr. Crosby identified the articles as his property, and Mr. Savidant related the facts connected with the purchase of the articles from Anderson, who said he got them from "a decent, honorable man," but declined to give his name. Anderson, in reply to questions asked by His Honor, said he bought the goods from Joe O'Reilly, a young lad formerly in the employ of Mr. Gardiner, and thought that the transaction was all right. He said further, that he did not give Savidant O'Reilly's name, as in trading it is not his custom to give names. Marshal Cameron said that O'Reilly did not bear a very good character, and he had seen him and Anderson together on several occasions. His Honor said the evidence was not sufficient to convict Anderson of the actual larceny of the goods, but he would send him down to jail for three months with hard labor, for receiving stolen property, knowing it to be stolen. One druck was fined $1 or 4 days.

Attention is directed to the timely and excellent letter of Professor Shaw, published in another column of THE EXAMINER. Though not known to the farmers of this Province, rye has been cultivated in Great Britain and elsewhere from very early times, not only as a forage plant, but for the oil contained in its seeds.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

The Behring Sea Question.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.

The Behring Sea controversy came up in the United States Supreme Court to-day, on a motion which has in view the judicial determination of the dispute between the United States and Great Britain over the seal fisheries. Joseph H. Choate, on behalf of Henry Cooper, owner and claimant of the British schooner W. P. Sayard, seized in the waters of Behring Sea by the revenue cutter Rush, petitioned the Court for a writ of prohibition to be directed to the Judge of the District Court of the United States for Alaska, restraining him from proceeding with the condemnation and sale of the vessel. The object is to have the Court take up and pass upon the question of jurisdiction over these waters. The Chief Justice made an order, giving the Attorney-General two weeks to file an answer to the brief of Mr. Choate, giving the reasons why the petition should not be granted.

Cotton Mill Transfer.

HALIFAX, Jan. 12.

D. Morrice, and other magnates of the Dominion Cotton Mills Co., the new syndicate controlling the cotton industry of Canada, arrived here yesterday. To-day the formal transfer of the Nova Scotia Cotton Mill to the syndicate took place. The price paid was $101,000 in cash and $101,000 in Bonds of the Dominion Cotton Co. The stock on hand was valued at over $30,000, and that sum was paid for it. To-morrow Mr. Morrice goes to Windsor to consummate the transfer of the factory there, the purchase price being $100,000 and stock. On Wednesday the Moncton Cotton Co. will be similarly taken over.

Liberal Convention.

TORONTO, Jan. 12.

Hon. Wilfred Laurier, Leader of the Liberal party, after consultation with representatives of the party in Ontario, has decided to issue a call for a provincial convention of Liberals to be held in Toronto during February. The Globe, in the course of a long editorial says the occasion cannot fail to be one of the most important and momentous in the history of the Liberal party in Canada, and every constituency in Canada ought to utter its full voice in the deliberations and have its full weight in the conclusions of the convention.

The Pimmsoll Bill.

OTTAWA, Jan. 12.

Imperial parliamentary papers in reference to the Pimmsoll Bill, now to hand, show that the bill as introduced proposed to prohibit the entering between October 1st and April 16th, in ports of the United Kingdom, of steamers carrying deckloads of deals or other cargo of greater depth than three feet. The portion relating to live stock was struck out of the bill and referred to a special committee, which has not yet reported. The portion relating to wooden deckloads is now incorporated in the bill before parliament.

Skating Challenge Accepted.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Jan. 12.

Hugh J. McCormack has accepted the challenge of Hagen of Christiania, Norway, to skate a race for the championship of the world. McCormack will probably sail for Norway on the mail steamer Sarnia, on Saturday, from Halifax. He is in good condition and a few days ago stated he was skating as fast as he ever did.

Fire in Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Jan. 12.

The commercial sample room annex to the Russell House was burned to-night. A large number of commercial travellers lost their entire stock of samples.

Open Letter to the Rector of St. Paul's Church.

DEAR SIR.—In THE EXAMINER of yesterday's date I notice a "call" for a "Gathering of Devotionists" to be held on the 22nd inst. Whilst regretting my inability to attend, I desire to greet my fellow-countrymen, and in wishing them a "Happy New Year" to express a hope that they, like myself, have outgrown the belief in the "Pixies" that used to torment us on the moors, make the nice little fairy rings, also plant the manes and tails of our horses and ride them nearly to death. The belief in "Ghosts" in "White Witches" in "Devils" binding sand on the sea shore, having been kindly put to this impossible task by the "Parson" (any true Devonshire man will understand my allusions); and, that, having got clear of these "myths" and not seeing any necessity of replacing them by anything less absurd, they are now prepared to grapple with the other phantasms conjured up by a designing priesthood to further their own ends. The day when "The King owned the body and the Priest the soul" is past for me. Yours truly,

W. J., LATE OF BIDEFORD, DEVONSHIRE. Summerside, Jan. 10, 1890.
