Ch'town Canadian Legion Branch Has Monthly Meeting

Routine committee reports were read and approved Thursday night at the regular monthly meeting of the Charlottetown branch of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L. The president, S.W. Leard, presided. Two applications for new membership were approved. In reporting for the sick and visiting committee, Comrade Ira Brown noted an increase in the number of sick veterans in hospital over last month. He said that all had been visited and given treats. He remarked that these visits meant much more than the doing out of cigarettes, etc. A friendly relationship was established between the branch and the sick comrades, and he felt this was of much more consequence. As proof he read several very appreciative letters of thanks. Comrade Vern Larter of the house committee outlined some of the work which he thought necessary to improve the property and put it in first class shape for the summer. PLAN SUPPER Comrade Bob King for entertainment said he intended to hold a lobster supper on May 16. He asked for a sum sufficient to cover the cost and his request, was granted. Comrade Stan Bryenton gave a very satisfactory report for the financial affairs and means committee. Comrade Joe Hughes outlined plans for the coming blood donor parade. He urged that each member who was in health which would permit him to do so, to be on hand for this parade. Vice King for the constitution and by-laws served a notice of motion that the July and August monthly meeting be dispensed with. DAYLIGHT TIME It was moved by Phil Palmer and seconded by Stan Bryenton that the branch go on record as being in favor of the adoption of daylight time throughout the province. The motion carried. On motion of Ira Brown, seconded by Vince King, it was decided to send a letter of condolence to the family of the Hon. George DeBlois, who had on many occasions proved himself to be a true friend of the Legion. The first vice-president, Pius Smith, read a resolution in respect to retarded children to be presented to the Dominion convention to be held in Edmonton the latter part of May. His resolution was warmly received and passed unanimously. Comrade Bryenton informed the meeting that the executive had discussed the feasibility of installing a hi-fi system in the Clover Club. After some discussion it was decided to go ahead with this plan. On motion of Vern Larter, seconded by Larry Trainor, the possibility of installing television in the recreation rooms in the P.E.I. and City Hospitals was discussed. An amendment to the motion by Bob Walter, seconded by Phil Palmer, that a committee be selected by the president to look into the possibility of making this a joint venture in conjunction with other service clubs was carried. The committee is to report its findings to the executive at an early date. Comrade Larry Trainor was chosen to head up the committee, with power to pick the other members. After the meeting adjourned, coffee and sandwiches were served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the branch.

Prices Hearing Rejects Prairie Farmers' Demands

By HAROLD MORRISON Canadian Press Staff Writer REGINA (CP) — Demands by prairie farmers for deficiency payments, consumer subsidies and wheat price boosts were rejected Tuesday by the royal commission on price spreads on the grounds they were outside the commission's jurisdiction. Dr. Andrew Stewart, commission chairman, announced the ditching of these issues as the seven-member body wound up its Western hearing. Atlantic hearings will open at Fredericton next Monday. The decision to deal with these requests came as a blow to farm groups which had hoped to get a revenue boost out of the commission's investigation. President A. P. Gleave of the Saskatchewan Farmers' Union said Dr. Stewart's decision was a "disappointment." Agriculture Minister Nolle of Saskatchewan said the decision will minimize the benefits farmers can expect from the commission's jurisdiction. Dr. Stewart said the commission will continue to entertain argument dealing with compulsory farm marketing schemes and voluntary co-operatives because he felt these fell within the commission's terms of reference. Nor was the commission instructed to look into farm costs, investigate farm revenue or decide whether the price of wheat was too low. These were matters outside the commissions powers. It can be argued, said Dr. Stewart, that compulsory farm marketing boards can increase the farmers revenue without increasing consumers prices, thus tending to narrow the price spread. Co-operatives which distribute patronage dividends also might have a similar result. But he could not see how farmers demands for supplementary payments through deficiency payments or consumer subsidies had anything to do with price spreads.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ELLEN MACDONALD

The community of Little Pond was saddened on Tuesday Dec. 17th when it became known that Mrs. Ellen Macdonald, a dearly loved and highly respected resident of the community had passed to her eternal reward at the Little Company of Mary's Hospital, in Cambridge, Mass., after a short illness. Deceased, who was the daughter of the late Paul Lawless and Bridget Quinn was born at the above mentioned place, 90 years ago. She married Daniel J. Macdonald and settled on the old Macdonald homestead where they carried on farming successfully, but the joys of her young happy life were broken eight years later, when she was called upon to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and was left with three small children the eldest only six years of age, but her faith in God which outshone her other qualities fortified her for her arduous duty she calmly resigned herself to His Holy Will, and not only succeeded in educating her daughter but carried on farming successfully for twenty-five years and built up one of the most prosperous homesteads in the community, but the hardship and trials of farm life began to assert itself on her robust health, she sold her farm and in company with her daughter, removed to Watertown, Mass., where she resided until she passed away on the above mentioned date. She was a woman of many sterling qualities honest upright and sincere in all her dealings ever ready to sacrifice her time and pleasure where loving sympathy and kindly deeds were needed to console the distressed she endeared herself to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She was consoled in her illness by frequent visits from the hospital chaplain and fortified by the last rites of the church surrounded by the good Sisters of the hospital and her loving daughters, her soul took its flight to "The Great White Throne". She was a member of the Mt. Auburn Catholic Women's Club, an honorary member of the Columbus Charity Club of Boston and the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin at the Sacred Heart Church in Watertown. A solemn High Mass of Requiem was celebrated in St. Joseph's Church Belmont, Mass., on Dec. 19th by Rev. Walter J. O'Hearn celebrant, Rev. James J. Crossie deacon Rev. Charles Deleany S. J. sub-deacon. Her remains were forwarded to the Hennessey Funeral Home in Charlottetown and on Friday they were conveyed to St. Francis de Sales Church Little Pond where a High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. Charles Gallant, P. C., in the cemetery where all that was mortal of a good neighbor and a kind and loving friend, was tenderly laid to rest. Mrs. Macdonald is survived by her three daughters, Mary and May of 104 Farnham St. and Mrs. Frank Haley of Belmont, Mass., and two sisters, Mrs. William Howlett of Gowan Brae and Mrs. Margaret Macdonald of Little River.
