biography, The Firebrand. 128 dramatic illustrations, many in full color, illuminate the pages of Dr. Kilbourn's exciting new work.

Examine Volume I without obligation.

THE MAKING OF THE NATION is the chronicle of Canada's epic Century of Challenge — the birth of a nation like no other; its rise to maturity and greatness. It is our saga of courage and crisis through one hundred turbulent years from 1867 to 1967.

This Weekend Magazine Edition of the Canadian Centennial Library, through special arrangement with McClelland and Stewart, makes it possible for readers of this newspaper to obtain Volume I and forthcoming books on a unique subscription plan, at about half the price you might expect to pay through regular retail stores. But even before you consider becoming a subscriber to the series, you are cordially invited to examine the first volume for 10 days, without any obligation to purchase it.

Never before has the course of our memorable Century been brought to life so meaningfully as in the pages of this stirring volume. You share the excitement of our Founding Fathers as they transcend all obstacles, both real and imaginary, to plant the seeds of Confederation. Fascinating words and intriguing pictures take you behind the scenes, as these men of diverse cultures and conflicting ambitions meet to kindle and nurture an uncommon spirit of understanding.

Just fill in the Charter Subscriber Reservation Certificate below, and mail it today, without money. The Making of the Nation, just published, will be sent to you at once. Read and enjoy it for 10 days. If you decide to keep it, remit only $2.95 plus a small charge for shipping and mailing. You will then be entitled to receive free-examination copies of future volumes as they are published, at two-month intervals, and to obtain them at the same low price if they meet with your approval.

Here is your opportunity to "see" at first hand the agonizing Riel Rebellion; the monumental task of building the Canadian Pacific Railroad; the hopeful arrival of countless immigrants who traded despair for hardship. To learn how well our Canadian heritage has endured amid the impassioned climates of peace and war, progress and poverty.

Otherwise, return Volume I and owe nothing; your subscription will be cancelled, and no further books will be sent. Of course, there is no minimum number of books to buy, and you may cancel your subscription at any time, simply by notifying us.

No matter how much — or how little — you know about Canadian affairs, you will find THE MAKING OF THE NATION brimming with entertainment and information. Written by William Kilbourn, eminent educator and historian, this fast-moving documentary is skilfully composed in the same lively style as his award-winning

But we do urge you to act at once, since it may be several months before another printing of Volume I can be scheduled. To avoid disappointment, mail the Reservation Certificate without delay.

In Commemoration of the One Hundredth Anniversary of Canadian Confederation

The Canadian Centennial Library

presents, as never before, a sweeping panorama of personalities and events that shaped our nation's rise to greatness.

On July 1, 1967, we celebrate the Centennial of our Confederation — a date that marks the passing of one hundred adventurous years. It is an opportunity for each one of us to look back with pride, and at the same time to look ahead to our own and our nation's future. What better way to bring this great occasion into focus than to invite Canada's foremost authors, artists, photographers and editors to examine our Distinctively Canadian Way of Life, both past and present! This was the idea that sparked creation of the Canadian Centennial Library — a major publishing venture for Canadians, by Canadians, about Canadians — books to be read and enjoyed again and again. In words that stir the imagination, in pictures that highlight the most dramatic moments of our Century, these magnificent volumes will inspire, inform, entertain and amuse you as has nothing ever before published. Moreover, through a special arrangement reserved for readers of this newspaper, your family can be among the first to preview the colorful volumes now being prepared for this new series.
