LECTURE TO-NIGHT. AS USUAL.—Winter lingers in the lap of spring.

MAILS.—The mails arrived in town this afternoon.

TO-NIGHT.—Don't forget the lecture in St. James' Hall to-night.

FOOTY.—The tug boat is the only thing which carries its tow behind.

EARLY.—Mrs. R. Burke, Royalty, had lettuce and rhubarb on sale in the market today.

FINED.—The pugilists Sullivan and Mitchell have been fined 200 francs and sentenced to six days' imprisonment.

EXCELSIOR RINK.—Good ice, good music, and a good time generally for all who attend the Excelsior Rink this evening.

APPOINTMENT.—Mr. John Dillon has been appointed messenger of the public offices instead of Joseph F. Roche, resigned.

LECTURE.—Mr. W. S. Stewart lectures in St. James' Hall to-night. Subject: "A Winter in Florida." Give him a full house.

TO SKATERS.—By request the Citizen's Skating Rink will be open to-night. The ice is in splendid condition and the Band will be in attendance.

OPPOSED.—A strong feeling adverse to the union of Portland with St. John exists. Petitions against amalgamation have been forwarded to the Legislature at Fredericton.

ATTENTION.—If you wish to hear one of the best lectures delivered in Charlottetown this winter, attend at St. James' Hall (old Kirk) and hear W. S. Stewart, Esq., on the subject "A Winter in Florida."

HIS LIFE INSURED.—The Gloucester, Mass., Advertiser says that Daniel McKinnon, the Islander who was lost in a storm from the schooner, Burnside in January last, had a life insurance policy of $400 in the Metropolitan Co. of New York.

COMING HERE.—An exchange says that Rev. Dr. Courtney will visit various parts of Nova Scotia and P. E. Island immediately after his consecration next month. Mrs. Courtney will return to Boston and remain there until October.

THE FISHERY COMMISSIONERS.—The last number of the Illustrated London News, which may be had at the Diamond Bookstore, contains excellent portraits of the eight gentlemen composing the Commission. That of Sir Charles Tupper is especially good.

A WINTER IN FLORIDA.—One of the most interesting lectures of the season, will be delivered in St. James' Hall this evening. Mr. W. S. Stewart is the lecturer and the subject, "A Winter in Florida." A rare treat is in store for all who attend.

RUN OVER.—A New Glasgow despatch states that a miner named Angus Macdonald, while working about the Vale train at the mines a few days ago slipped and fell, and the train passed over both legs at the ankle. One foot will probably have to be amputated.

EASTER SALES.—The two fat cows from the Government Stock Farm were purchased at the Easter Market at auction to-day by Blake Bros. One realized $91 and the other $56. The St. Dunstan's College Barrister colt was reserved at $375, and the LePage mare at $150.

HEAVY PORKERS.—There has been quite a boom in heavy porkers of late. To-day Mr. R. McRae, of Pownal, had a carcass in the market which weighed 681 lbs.; and Mr. John Way, Hunter River, had another which weighed 962 lbs. Both pigs were about two years old when butchered.

BODIES RECOVERED.—A Fredericton despatch reports that the bodies of the two Alcorns, father and son, drowned at Blissville on the 22nd were recovered on the 23rd. Estabrooks, who so narrowly escaped drowning, says that the two Alcorns could have saved their lives had it not been for their efforts to prevent the horses from drowning.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. John Thompson, a traveller for Messrs. J. & A. McMillan, St. John, N. B., died suddenly on Friday morning last. The deceased had been in this city a number of times in the interests of the firm, and was highly esteemed. He was a charter member and Past Grand Master of Siloum Lodge, I. O. O. F., under whose auspices the funeral took place yesterday.

SOFT AGE IN SYDNEY.—During the past week the Town Council of Sydney, C. B. have been putting forth vigorous efforts to enforce the Scott Act. A few days ago a policeman broke into a store and seized some liquor under the authority of a search warrant, and for so doing criminal proceedings have been instituted against him. Several convictions under the Act have also been made.

AN IMPATIENT EDITOR.—Boiled down what you have to say. Don't drown a little struggling idea in an ocean of desultory words. Write on but one side of the paper and don't try to see how many words you can get on one sheet of paper. Write plainly and use care in giving names of persons and places. Always send your real name whether you wish it published or not. Above all things steer clear of poetry.—Jacksonville Times-Star.

BIBLE SOCIETY.—The Jubilee Meeting of the P. E. I. Auxiliary Bible Society took place last night in the Hall of the Y. M. C. A. and proved a marked success. The addresses on the several resolutions delivered by the Rev. Messrs. McLeod, Weston-Jones and Shenton were most appropriate, comprehensive and eloquent. The anthems rendered by the Zion Church Choir were beautiful, well received, and deserved the vote of thanks unanimously given. The chair was taken by the President, Hon. Judge Young, who was supported on the right by our worthy Chief Justice, and on the left by the Vice-Presidents.

MUSSEL MUD.—The Agriculturist says that the hauling of mussel mud would be greatly facilitated by the construction of a spur or branch from the railway near Summer side to the edge of the ice. This would permit of several hundred loads being raised and shipped after sleighing entirely broken up on the streets. The landing place near the station is now almost bare, while mud digging, with the accompaniment we speak of, would be in its prime for at least two weeks longer. Something of the kind is absolutely required, and the mussel mud interest is of sufficient importance to justify it. The increased traffic, we feel sure, would much more than repay any outlay, while affording the farmers of inland sections greater facilities for improving their lands by means of this valuable fertilizer.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Some Proposed Amendments

TO CARTWRIGHT'S RESOLUTION

Business Men on the Move.

OTTAWA, March 26.

It is now clearly understood that the debate on Cartwright's resolution and amendments thereto will not be brought to a decision till after the Easter recess. It is also stated that at a business meeting of the Toronto Federal League on Saturday that leading business men of Montreal and Toronto were present and resolved that the time had arrived to propose to make tariff concessions to Great Britain in return for a discriminating tariff in favor of Canadian products.

It is believed that Dalton McCarthy will introduce an amendment to Hon. Mr. Foster's amendment to Cartwright's resolution embodying such a proposal, and that policy doubtless may be accepted by the Government. McCarthy's amendment will not be offered till after recess, when Jones' amendment has been voted down. This departure, if inaugurated, will add new zest to the present discussion, and prolong it for a week or two after recess.

HEARTRENDING OCCURRENCE.

A House Burned to the Ground and Two of its Occupants Cremated.

BATHURST, March 26.

News of a heartrending nature reached town last night from St. Elouise, ten miles from here. Yesterday Mrs. Pater started to attend divine service at 10 o'clock, leaving in the house three children, one boy and two girls. The service being over, the people started for home. When they reached Bertin's, they saw that it was burned nearly to the ground. They hurried to the building, but the sight that met their eyes was appalling. Heaion Lavigne, who was the first to reach the burning building, discovered the oldest girl, aged 13, in the doorway burning to death, and, after several attempts, succeeded in extricating her by the hair. Her legs were entirely burned. She lived three hours in terrible pain. The charred remains of the youngest girl were discovered after the building was burned down and the heat had subsided. The boy had left the house some time before the fire to go to a neighbor, and he says his sister was lighting the fire in the stove when he left. No clue to the origin of the fire has been ascertained. The father of this unfortunate family was discovered in the woods in January last, frozen to death, having taken a fit, and while in that state perished.

THE DETECTIVE'S CASE

Concluded and a Verdict of Guilty Returned—An Appeal to Be Made.

MONTREAL, March 26.

In the Court of Queen's Bench to-day Judge Baby charged the jury in Detective Fahey's case, and went strongly against the prisoner. He also vindicated Judge Dugas and Detective Maxwell from attacks made by the defence. The jury retired for an hour and returned with a verdict of guilty. The principal counsel for the defence gave notice of an appeal on several points of law which have been overruled. These will probably be argued on Tuesday.

MORE FLOODS.

A Dyke Overflows and the Inhabitants Becoming Alarmed, Flee From the Town.

BERLIN, March 26.

Further particulars of the damage by floods in the Vistula River and branches show that the dyke at Hurst on the Nogate, overflowed. The inhabitants of the place fled to Elbing suburbs. The latter place, which is on the river Elbing, is also flooded. The population of Marienburg, on the Rogak, escaped from the town with difficulty. The prisoners in jail were rescued by the fire brigade. The town is inundated. Eight villages at the mouth of the Vistula are submerged, houses fallen and cattle being drowned.

NEWS FROM MONTREAL.

Hon. Mr. McShane to Explain—The C. P. R.—Funeral of Senator Rolland.

MONTREAL, March 26.

It is stated that Mr. McShane's friends will hold an indignation meeting to-morrow, and that Mr. McShane will attend and give full explanations.

The traffic returns of the C. P. R. last week were $195,000, an increase of $61,000 over the corresponding week last year. The funeral of Senator Rolland took place this afternoon, and was very largely attended.

THE TERRIBLE TORNADO.

Almost Totally Destroys a Town and Kills Several People.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 26.

Ninnescah, Kingman Co., Kansas, was almost wholly destroyed by a tornado Saturday evening. Only three houses were left standing. Two churches, five stores and fifteen houses were torn to pieces. The flying timbers killed a woman, child and eight men, and probably fatally hurt two men. Fifteen others were injured.
