Ingersoll.

TESTIMONIES CONCERNING HIS PUBLIC CHARACTER.

The Peoria (Ill.) Transcript, says:
"Everybody who has remained in Peoria any great length of time knew Bob Ingersoll when he flourished and bloomed in this city; and, let it be added right here, that there are few who knew the great man that did not love him."

The Transcript also publishes the following letter from the Mayor of Peoria, in reply to a letter from Mr. John McKenzie, of Summerside. It will be remembered that Professor Clark Braden referred to Mayor Warner as one who was able to testify that Ingersoll is morally a bad man. Hence Mr. McKenzie's letter to him. Here is the Mayor's answer:

John McKenzie, Esq., Prince Edward Island.

DEAR SIR.—You ask me to state what the standing and character of Col. R. G. Ingersoll was in this city during the many years of his residence here.

Let me say briefly that the gentleman referred to was one of our most beloved and esteemed citizens, in his social, professional and general bearing. While differing from myself and many others in politics, and having independent views on religion, which he fearlessly expressed, he had the respect and confidence of all those who differed from him on that line, for the reason that he respected the opinions of others, and aimed to give no offense in his advocacy of his own views. Mr. Ingersoll was noted for his religious devotion to his family, his liberal-hearted charity to those in need, and his general nobility of character. His reputation was that of a sober, truthful and honorable citizen, charitable towards all and a true friend to the deserving.

We Peorians hold his name and fame as things to be cherished, and among us no slanderer could attack him without being rebuked and silenced.

Had Mr. Ingersoll remained with us he could have long since had a seat in the United States Senate, in my judgment, for he is worthy by character and fitness to fill even a more exalted post. It is unfortunate for mankind that the world has not more men like Col. Ingersoll. I consider his life a blessing and a sunshine upon the highway of life.

Respectfully yours, JOHN WARNER.

Mr. McKenzie also forwards the following letter from S. D. Putebaugh, of the law firm of Putebaugh & Putebaugh, attorneys, Peoria:

To Mr John McKenzie, Prince Edward Island, Canada:

GENTLEMEN.—I notice the correspondence published in the Peoria Transcript of yesterday between yourselves and Col. Warner, Mayor of this city, relative to the slander of one Prof. (?) Braden against Col. R. G. Ingersoll, formerly of this city. Whatever may have been Col. Ingersoll's views in regard to Christianity, no reputable citizen of Peoria, where he so long resided, questioned his sincerity, honor or sincerity. He was always generous, charitable and loyal to his friends and country. Although he may have been irregular in his habits, in an early day, which he would not deny, for the past twenty-five years or more, no one has been more exemplary, or more devoted to his family, or a better citizen. It is only a few cranks who are unable to cope with his arguments that seek to break down his influence by slander. If I remember the man Braden, while he resided here, he was a crankish dead-beat. Not able to earn an honest living, he became a itinerant preacher, and in order to impose on the public, got up a book, made up of forged affidavits and pretended statements of reputable citizens, and put it in a book form, and is selling it throughout the country. I understand my name figures in his book as making absurd and false statements in regard to Col. Ingersoll. If anything of the kind appears in his book it is false and forged. My object in addressing you is to learn whether this man Braden is selling or circulating a book of the kind indicated, and if so, to ask you to procure a copy and send it to me. I will remit you double the cost of the book as I am extremely anxious to see it for personal reasons.

Respectfully yours, (Signed) S. D. PUTEBAUGH.
