Saints Hard Hit

FOOTBALL takes over at St. Dunstan's this afternoon when Shearwater Flyers are guests of St. Dunstan's Varsity squad in an Atlantic Football Conference 'A' section battle

The Red and White outfit are badly maimed for this encounter. Several of their brightest stars are sidelined with injuries. However, the team that takes the field today will be full of determination to grab an important victory in this conference schedule.

Ed Hilton, coach of the Malpeque Road scholars, isn't bubbling over with optimism. He is shaking his head at the number of injuries his boys received and is wondering if he will ever be able to field a full squad this season. Right now that looks doubtful because fullback Bob Simmons appears to have finished football for the year. Bob is hopping around on crutches. the result of badly torn ligaments.

BUT ED isn't one to go overboard with enthusiasm at any time. He probably caught his bit of pessimism from St. F.X.'s Don Loney with whom he worked as line coach. We have the idea that Ed is putting the worst side out and that down deep he has the idea that his patched-up lineup today will give the Flyers a whale of a battle. Very often you see a team, riddled by injury, show great spirit and fight and enough of both to grab the verdict in the ball game.

Such could be the case this afternoon when the local collegians roll out the welcome mat for Shearwater. What's left of the original Saints' team is most likely to turn in one of the best games seen here in quite a spell.

A Proud Record

SAINT DUNSTAN'S has been noted for great rugby teams in the past.

Red and White teams have topped all Maritime colleges as they won the intercollegiate crown on several occasions. They have proven the best in the Maritimes (outside college competition) when they grabbed the McCurdy Cup on two occasions. Saint Dunstan's teams in rugby were feared and respected by all opponents.

Now that the college has changed to the Canadian game, that same respect is being built up even though Saints are little more than newcomers to this kind of competition.

Ed Hilton has done wonders since assuming command at SDU and the great showing of the Saints in 'B' company encouraged the locals to take the big step into faster circles. The Red and White team copped first place in the 'B' section in 1960 and lost the crown to St. F.X. Jayvees in a playoff last November.

Such goings-on was pretty fair work for a bunch of beginners. Folks around here were quick to take a fancy to the Saints' style of play and crowds turned out last season in ever-increasing numbers. This season with the competition coming from the 'A' section, it's a safe bet to expect even greater attendances at these contests.

SO today, with the weatherman co-operating, one of the largest crowds even to see a game at St. Dunstan's is expected.

Saints are figuring on your support and they'll be mighty disappointed if it's not forthcoming. However, chances are the place will be packed this afternoon when the teams spring into action at 2 o'clock sharp.

Welshmen Travel

JACK Proud takes his Princse of Wales College team to New Brunswick this weekend for games at Fredericton and Saint John.

In the capital, the Welshmen tangle today with the University of New Brunswick Jayvees in an exhibition football game. On Thanksgiving Day, the Charlottetown boys are in Saint John for an Atlantic Football Conference 'B' section game with the Wanderers. The Welshmen lost their opening league game here to St. Thomas College of Chatham but Proud looks for his charges to break into the win column at Saint John.

Next Saturday they are guests of Mount Allison Jayvees in Sackville. On October 17 Saint Dunstan's Jayvees and Welshmen are expecting to open their annual series for the provincial intermediate crown.

Good Racing Card Set For Tonight

Another great harness racing program is scheduled for Charlottetown Driving Park tonight.

This is a nine-dash affair that appears to have excitement written all over it.

A sizzling single dash opens the show at 8 o'clock and action should be fast and furious the rest of the evening. Jolly Abb, Blue Sky Lark, Helen's Dream and Armond's Buddy go in the opener, the night's only single. Lee Taylor will again drive his Armond's Buddy and Lee will be looking for another triumph. He copped both dashes he drove on Tuesday night.

Dashes four and eight have seven starters and in these clashes folks should witness some of this season's greatest racing. Ralph Annear takes Morley's Pride away on the rail but the Pride has a tough list of competitors. They are Scottish Light, Jolly Dick, Stalag Hanover, Janet M, Arturo Hanover and Dunlop B.

Tonight's race program is the third last of this season. Races are scheduled for next Wednesday and Saturday and then the curtain falls until next June.

Race fans should avail themselves of the chance to see these three remaining cards. It's likely some of the greatest excitement of '62 will be packed into these sessions.

O'Brien, Safe Mission Win Kentucky Futurity

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Safe Mission driven by Joe O'Brien of Alberton, P.E.I. swept the rich Kentucky Futurity in straight heats Friday while heavily favored A.C.'s Viking failed to make a serious threat.

Safe Mission, owned by the S. A. Camp farm of Shafter, Calif., was held in a contending position by O'Brien in both heats and each time roared to the front.

A.C.'s Viking, winner of the Yonkers Futurity and the Hambletonian—the first two jewels in trotting's triple crown—finished fourth in the first heat and third in the second.

Impish, Eaton Ridge farm's bay daughter of the Intruder, finished second in the summaries with a third place in the first heat and a second in the final race of the $55,230 event for three-year-old trotters.

Allwood Stables' Lord Gordon was third in the summaries with finishes of second and fifth

FORCED OUTSIDE

AC's Viking made his strongest bid for victory in the first heat, moving up as the field entered the turn for home, but was forced outside and tired in the stretch.

O'Brien kept Safe Mission just off the pace, set by Impish in both heats, until the turn was completed and the field was in the stretch.

Safe Mission was a neck ahead of Lord Gordon in the first heat and 1½ lengths in front of Impish in the second.

The two heats were timed in 2:00 2-5 and 1:59 3-5.

Safe Mission returned $10.20, $4.80 and $3.40 in the first heat and $6.80, $3.00 and $2.40 in the second.

Safe Mission's victory was worth $30,375, boosting the bankroll of the Scott Frost colt to $167,874.

Ticats Battle Argos Tonight

TORONTO (CP) — League-leading Hamilton Tiger-Cats, snarling after two straight setbacks, tangle with last-place Toronto Argonauts tonight for the second time this season in a game that means a lot for the two Eastern Conference football clubs.

The Tiger - Cats, showing signs of trouble with quarterback Bernie Faloney out indefinitely with a new cartilage injury, will be out to snap their losing streak and to preserve their slim one-point margin over Ottawa Rough Riders. A loss by the Ticats and a win by the Rough Riders in their game Monday against the Alouettes in Montreal would put the Ottawa club on top.

Golf Draw Is Announced

The draw for the men's two-ball foursome match at the Charlottetown Golf Club was made last night and is as follows:—

1.05 - S. Cutcliffe, G. Burgoyne vs. Al MacVae, V. MacLeod
1.10 - I. Berrigan, V. Williams vs. R. Carr, W. Coles.
1.15 - F. MacInnis, R. Newson vs. M. MacKenzie, E. Buchanan
1.20 - A. MacKenzie, E. Devine vs. H. Jardine, G. Vessey
1.25 - B. Beer, T. N. Rogers vs. D. Saunders, C. Dowling
1.30 - D. Vautour, B. Dowling vs. A. Gaudet, M. Pineau
1.35 - K. Carmichael, T. Laidlaw vs. E. Taylor, W. LePage
1.40 - R. Giggey, B. Boyles vs. F. Hansen, D. Cox
1.45 - D. Clarkson, R. Down vs. G. Nicholson, M. Carmichael
1.50 - I. Horne, W. Giggey vs. H. Bartlett, M. Kennedy
1.55 - B. Dillon, T. Miller vs. R. Ketch, K. Irwin
2.00 - J.W. Moreside, C. Heald vs. J. Molloy, B. McGee
2.05 - J. S. MacDonald, D. MacDonald vs. J. C. Gallant, S. MacLure
2.10 - B. MacGregor, R. Perrry vs. C. MacLean, L. Vessey
2.15 - W. MacDonald, J. Wilson vs. H. Simmonds, F. Acorn

Entries will be accepted at the pro shop.

Eagles Host Milltown

Georgetown Eagles and Milltown tangle in a sudden-death game Sunday afternoon at Georgetown for the New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island intermediate rural baseball championship.

The winner of this tussle will meet up with the Nova Scotia champions in a series for the Maritime championship.

Georgetown supporters are anxiously awaiting this contest Sunday and by far the season's largest crowd is expected to be present.

Following this battle, the Eagles will play Morell in the first game for the King's County Baseball League championship.

The Milltown-Georgetown affair gets going at 1.30 sharp.

Island Horses Race Winners

SACKVILLE DOWNS, N.S (CP) — Harmony Bob did the mile in 2:09 3/5 Friday night to chalk up the fastest time on the eight-dash harness racing card.

There were no double winners.

Dale Regent, owned by G. Gregory of Parkdale, P.E.I., and Oil Capital, owned by P. J LeBlanc of Rogersville, N.B., combined in the daily double to pay $40.80, top return of the night.

Security Scott, owned by Andrew Perry of Summerside, P.E.I., Highley's Way, owned by Stanley Mayhew of Kinkora, P.E.I., and Minute Rice, Splurge and Rysedyke were other single winners.

Ernie Davis Has Leukemia

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ernie Davis of Cleveland Browns of the National Football League, the nation's top collegiate football player of 1961, has leukemia But it is in a "perfect state of remission," the club said Friday, and he is physically able to start workouts with the team.

Davis has been undergoing treatment and traditional forms of medication since Aug. 1, when the deadly disease first was diagnosed. His condition had been described publicly as a blood disorder.

"Ernie Davis has had a form of leukemia," said Dr. Austin S Weisberger, professor of medicine at Western Reserve University and an outstanding authority on blood disorders. The medical specialist, who has been in charge of treatment for the former all-America halfback from Syracuse, added in a statement:

"He has responded extremely well to therapy and medication. At the present time his blood findings are entirely normal. As long as he remains in this perfect state of remission, I see no reason why he cannot play professional football."

Davis will start a conditioning program Monday under the supervision of Dr. Victor Ippolito, team physician.

"The most important thing is to get his legs in shape," said Dr. Ippolito.

Wanderers Host Welshmen Mon.

SAINT JOHN, N. B.(CP) — Two games are scheduled during the holiday weekend in the newly-formed New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island Football League.

Saint John Wanderers make their first start in the schedule this afternoon at Chatham where they face the St. Thomas University Tommies. St. Thomas downed Prince of Wales College Welshmen 14-0 in the circuit's opener last Saturday at Charlottetown.

Monday, the Wanderers, 1960 New Brunswick League champions, are at home to the Welshmen.

Both weekend clashes start at 2 p.m. ADT.

READY FOR ACTION

Halfback Len Ellis of the St. Dunstan's Varsity squad is primed for action this afternoon when Shearwater Flyers invade the SDU gridiron for an Atlantic Football Conference 'A' game with the Saints. Saints fought UNB to a 7-7 tie last Saturday as the rains came down at Fredericton. Game time today is 2 o'clock.

'Sanford Hitting Spots He Wanted'-Haller

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"You couldn't improve on Jack Sanford's pitching today," manager Alvin Dark declared after his righthanded ace had shut out New York Yankees 2-0 to tie the World Series at 1-1.

Catcher Tom Haller agreed, explaining, "he was throwing easy all day—not overly strong but hitting the spots he wanted. That was as good a game as he has pitched all year and he has pitched some good ones."

The triumph was the 25th in 1962 for the 33-year-old who wears No. 33. He threw a three-hitter. No Giant pitcher has won that many since Carl Hubbell captured 26 in 1936.

"I wasn't worried at any time until Mickey Mantle hit that double in the ninth with Roger Maris next up," Sanford said with a grin far different from the scowl he wears during a game.

"He hit a fast ball and really banged it."

But there were two outs and Sanford retired Maris on an infield grounder to end the game. But it wasn't the pitch he wanted to throw.

WANTED IT LOWER

"I wanted it lower . . . it was almost down the middle," the winning pitcher admitted.

Willie McCovey, who took over for slumping Orlando Cepeda at first base, said losing pitcher Ralph Terry fed him a slider that he hit for his seventh inning homer.

"Yep, it was a slider," the six-foot four slugger declared.

Sanford had Haller, his favorite catcher, behind the plate despite the receiver having to work with six stitches in lacerations on his right arm. He was injured during the playoff with Los Angeles.

"They didn't hurt at all," the long-hitting former University of Illinois quarterback said.

SPORT OF KINGS

Kings County Finals Open This Sunday In Georgetown

By ED CLINTON
Souris Bureau of The Guardian

The Mt. Stewart-Georgetown problems have been ended and the finals are due to get underway Sunday. As we wrote this, the site of the first game had not been decided. Actually, it is supposed to be in Morell. But since the Eagles have to play in Georgetown against Milltown in Maritime Rural Intermediate playdowns, it is possible that the first game of the KCBL will also be played on the Eagle home diamond.

It was unfortunate that the semi-finals had to end the way they did. No doubt this ending will make for some hard feelings. In case anybody doesn't know the situation here it is. Georgetown won the first game in Mount Stewart, the second game was played in Georgetown. Due to the game being late in getting underway, they had to stop play in the bottom half of the fith inning. At this stage of the game, Georgetown was leading eight to two.

The rest of the series was to have been played last Saturday in Peakes. That's when the trouble really began. Georgetown contended that the game was to be of seven inning duration, while Mt. Stewart held out for nine innings. The Eagles claimed that prior to the start of the game in Georgetown, it had been agreed by both teams that it was to be a seven inning affair. Neither team would compromise, with the result that the game was not completed and Mt. Stewart officially protested to the league president.

LEAGUE MEETING

At an executive meeting held in Morell on Wednesday night, it was ordered that the game be completed, and that it be of seven inning duration. Upon hearing this the Mt. Stewart representative at the meeting, announced that they would forfeit the game, and as a result the series. The net result is that Georgetown will meet Morell for the league championship.

As we stated before, it was unfortunate that this had to happen, and we think that at the next annual meeting, the league executive should take steps to decide every step of the playoffs, so that teams cannot make any agreement among themselves. We also think a by-law to the effect that a team's first commitment is to the league itself, would be a good one. After all, look at the plight of Morell. They finished their semi-final series as scheduled and won't play the first game of the finals until this coming Sunday.

The world Series will have gotten underway when you read this, and most people will be feverishly listening to radio or watching television to cheer for their favorites. For the first time since this writer can recall the two teams of my choice are in the fall classic, So, we can sit back, and no matter who wins, we'll be satisfied.

Mike Hennessey says that you can't sit on the fence. In his opinion you have to choose one side or the other. Especially if you happen to write a sports column. Well, we don't know who laid down the rules for sports writers, if that's a rule, it must be obeyed. After all, one cannot think of one's self, one must think of the other fellow, who makes all the necessary predictions because it's expected of him, even if (like Mr. Hennessey) he's going to be wrong a great deal of the time.

Anyway, we'll call it for the Yankees to win.

MANITOBA MINERALS

WINNIPEG (CP)—The first full production year at International Nickel Company of Canada operation at Thompson will push the value of Manitoba's 1962 mineral output to a record $125,000,000, Mines Minister C. H. Witney has announced.

SANFORD BRILLIANT IN WIN

Giants Square Series; Shut Out Yankees 2-0

By JACK HAND

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Jack Sanford overpowered New York Yankees with a three-hit 2-0 shutout Friday as San Francisco Giants tied the World Series at one game each.

The sturdy right hander let only two Yankees reach second base, and one of them had to steal it, in blanking the defending world champs for the first time in series play since Milwaukee's Warren Spahn did the job, Oct. 5, 1958.

A tremendous 450-foot home run in the seventh by Willie McCovey, playing first base in place of the slumping Orlando Cepeda, gave Sanford an insurance run to back up the run the Giants got off loser Ralph Terry in the first.

Sanford, the top winner of the weary Giant staff with a 24-7 record, kept the power-hitting Yanks under control all day, with his overhand fast ball.

Until McCovey slammed his towering drive over the right field fence, it appeared that the first-inning run would be all Sanford would have to work with. Chuck Hiller, leading off for the Giants, drove a long fly ball to right field on Terry's second pitch. Roger Maris raced after the ball and got it in his glove but couldn't hold it and rammed into the right field wall.

ENDS UP ON SECOND ....

Hiller wound up on second base with a double. Alou moved Hiller to third with a sacrifice and Matty Alou, his kid brother, grounded to Bobby Richardson, Hiller scoring on the play.

This was a tremendous comeback for Sanford, who had been taken out of the second playoff game against Los Angeles Tuesday with a 5-0 lead and a two-hitter going. Manager Alvin Dark removed him after he walked the first man up in the sixth inning. Before his successors could get the side out the Dodgers had scored seven times.

The first hit off Sanford was a pure fluke. Tom Tresh bunted a pop fly back to the mound with one out in the fourth. Sanford went back in a try for the ball, interfering with Jose Pagan's attempt to catch it. Tresh promptly stole second, the only Yank to reach that station until Mickey Mantle doubled with two out in the ninth.

Terry also had matched Sanford with a fine pitching job until McCovey hit that towering home run drive in the seventh. It was the 41st home run ball Terry has thrown this year.

CLINCHES VICTORY

Candlestick Park observers claimed McCovey had hit a long homer that travelled some 500 feet earlier in the year, but this was long enough to put the ball game beyond reach.

The 43,910 fans roared with expectation of more runs when Tom Haller singled and shortstop Tony Kubek dropped Jim Davenport's double play grounder following the homer.

With men on first and second and nobody out, Dark ordered Pagan to sacrifice, moving both runners, with the pitcher next to bat.

Sanford missed the pitch on a suicide squeeze attempt and Haller was trapped between third and home and run down. The failure of Haller to move toward the plate in that rundown prevented Davenport from taking third base. Consequently, when Sanford singled to right, Davenport was thrown out, trying to score from second, on a perfect peg by Roger Maris.

Sanford, 33, is an ex-Philadelphia Phillies right hander who was traded to the Giants Dec. 3, 1958 for pitcher Ruban Gomez and catcher Valmy Thomas. It turned out to be a great deal for the Giants.

Manager Ralph Houk of the Yanks was high in his praise of Sanford. He said the scouting reports showed Sanford was strong and the reports were right.

"Both men pitched great ball," said Houk. "Sanford won and you have to give him all the credit but Terry pitched great ball, too."

Sanford had been struggling with a head cold for over a week but showed no effects of this in the game. He said he didn't feel a bit concerned until Mantle doubled to the right centre fence with two gone in the ninth.

Chuck Hiller then closed out the game by going to his right to take Maris' smash and throw him out.

Asked if this was Sanford's best game, manager Dark said, "you couldn't improve on this. He kept his screwball away from their left handed hitters."

Both managers named their Sunday pitchers, who will start after a day off for travel Billy Pierce (16-6) will start for the Giants and Bill Stafford (14-9) for the Yanks. The Giants' pitchers in the other two games in New York will be Juan Marichal and Billy O'Dell, Thursday's loser.

Dark had benched Cepeda, Harvey Kuenn and Ed Bailey against Terry. The Yanks had Elston Howard and Bill Skowron out of action due to injuries.

INJURES WRIST

Howard was in the starting lineup, but asked to be removed because he couldn't hold the bat due to a wrist injury suffered Thursday. Yogi Berra took his place Skowron aggravated his chronic back condition Thursday and gave way to Dale Long.

Sanford had his one-hitter going until Clete Boyer singled with two out in the fifth. The only other hit was Mantle's two-out double in the ninth. There were only six Yankee base runners, the other three on walks. Sanford fanned six. His outfielders made only four putouts while he kept the Yanks grounding out or fouling to his catcher Haller, who nabbed three foul popups.

After the day off for travel, there will be three straight games at Yankee Stadium, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. If nobody has won four in this best-of-seven series by then, the teams will return to San Francisco for a sixth game Thursday and a seventh Friday, if necessary.
