

COSTLIER BURIALS
 CAPETOWN — (CP) — Not only the cost of living, but the cost of burying is rising here. All cemetery charges have just been increased 10 per cent, on top of the 35 per cent increase made five years ago.

ROYAL FILM
 LONDON — (CP) — One of the producers responsible for the official filming of the late King's coronation, William J. Gell, will produce a documentary on the life of the Queen. The film is expected to run for 70 minutes.

Godin - Simmonds Wedding

The marriage of Elizabeth Deacon, daughter of Mrs. J. P. Simmonds and the late Mr. J. P. Simmonds, Charlottetown, to John William, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Godin, Montreal, took place at 82 Brighton Road, on Tuesday, September 2nd at 4:30 o'clock. The Reverend John T. Irwin performed the ceremony. Miss Louise Cox played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Miss Barbara Rogers sang "O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John Simmonds, the bride wore a gown of white brocade satin fashioned with full flange skirt and portrait neckline. Her fingertip veil of lace-edged nylon tulle fell from a coronet of seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Miss Barbara Rogers as maid of honour wore a strapless gown of white satin with matching lace jacket and poke bonnet. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of orange-gold gladioli.

Miss Marlene Simmonds as flower girl wore a Colonial style gown of Nile green nylon organza over taffeta and carried a nosegay of Orange Delight roses.

The groomsmen were Mr. Percival Simmonds, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Simmonds, the bride's mother, wore a two-piece dress of navy crepe with grey accessories. Her corsage was of pale pink asters. Mrs. D. A. Rees, the groom's sister, wore a dress of beige wool with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Villa Waters. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake and adorned with white tapers and baskets of mixed pastels.

The bride and groom left after the reception on a short honeymoon to the New England States.

For travelling the bride wore a two-piece dress of chocolate brown silk velvet with matching accessories and a corsage of Johanna Hill roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Godin are taking up residence in Gaspé, P.Q.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Rees, Lachine, Quebec; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fear, Moncton, N.B.; Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Hubley, Summerside, and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gillespie, Souris.

HEALTH IMPROVEMENT
 From 1941 to 1951 the tuberculosis death rate among Canadian Indians dropped from 700 per 100,000 to less than 300.

BURGESS BEDTIME

 ed that often danger lurks where least expected.

Glutton grinned. Here was a dinner coming straight to him, the kind of dinner that he liked best. He made ready to drop on that careless young Deer when he passed under the limb. But that time never came. Something happened. Glutton wasn't the only hungry hunter watching that path. Puma, the Mountain Lion, sometimes called Panther, was watching that path also. The careless young Deer walked right into Puma's claws, as it were. Glutton saw it all, saw the dinner he was so sure of taken by the big member of the Cat family who is greatly feared by most of the Green Fore' folk.

Bedeque Notes

—Miss Sue Affleck, Toronto, is spending her holidays with her mother, Mrs. Pearl Affleck, this village, and other relatives.

Mr. George Leard, Souris, was a visitor to Bedeque on Tuesday, September 9th. He attended the meeting of the Men's Association in the United Church on that evening.

Mr. Stewart Affleck, who has been a patient in the Prince County Hospital, has returned to his home. His many friends are pleased to see him much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Gillespie and daughter, Ann, Souris, were visitors on Saturday, September 6th, with Mrs. Gillespie's father, Mr. Albert Weeks, and her sister, Mrs. William Stavert and Mr. Stavert, Lower Bedeque.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. James Arbing are pleased to see them out around again, after being confined to their home for several days, through illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Affleck attended the Alberton Exhibition on Wednesday, September 3rd. They were accompanied by Mrs. Carrie Leard and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Willoughby, who have been visiting with relatives in this village for the past month, left on return to their home in Concord, N.H., on Monday, September 8th.

The sympathy of this community is being extended to Mr. Arthur Sherry and family, Fernwood, in the sudden passing of Mrs. Sherry in the Prince County Hospital on Thursday, September 4th. Mrs. Sherry was much beloved by her neighbours and friends.

Miss Alma Gould of the staff of Grace Hospital, Halifax, N.S., was a Sunday guest of the Misses Mildred and Louise Callbeck, Central Bedeque, on September 7th. Miss Gould was a former resident of Bedeque. She is also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Scott Cairns, Free-town.

Mrs. G.B. Frizzell, who has been spending some time with her sisters Mrs. William Montgomery, Lower Bedeque, and Mrs. Fred Davison, Kensington, has returned to her home in Port Arthur, Ontario, where she is on the staff of the General Hospital. She went by plane on Saturday, September 6th.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Ballum on September 8th, when relatives and friends gathered to "shower" their daughter, Miss Edwina Pearl, whose marriage to Mr. John G. Leonard, Saint John, N.B., takes place in the Bedeque United Church on Saturday, September 13th. The bride-to-be was the recipient of many lovely gifts, for which she thanked her many friends. A social hour followed.

A large gathering assembled at the Central Bedeque Baptist Church on Sunday evening, September 7th, when a splendid musical programme was rendered by the church choir under the leadership of Mr. Alden Leard who presided at the organ. A brief worship period was conducted by the pastor, Rev. C.A. Britten. The programme consisted of solos, duets, quartettes and anthems, all of which were much enjoyed by all present. The meeting closed with the Benediction and prayer.

A pre-nuptial shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacQuarrie, Searletown, on Tuesday evening, September 9th, in honour of Miss Shirley Beers of
