Water Works.

WE are assured that as soon as other tenders which have been called for are in, the amounts in each tender will be published.

We are also assured by a prominent promoter of water works in the City Council, that no tender will be accepted except on the basis of Mr. Wassel's tender No. 2.

If these assurances are worth anything (and we think they are) reasonable citizens will be satisfied.

If a man spend a thousand dollars in making a permanent improvement to his farm he properly considers his farm worth a thousand dollars more than it was before the improvement was made.

So, if a company spend $100,000 or $200,000 in supplying this city with a system of water works, the City will be $100,000 or $200,000 better off than it is now—without the expenditure of a single dollar of capital on the part of its citizens.

There is also this additional advantage, that at least a portion of the money must be expended and distributed in the city. Everyone knows that a $5 bill in circulation pays hundreds of dollars of debt, and everyone can therefore appreciate the advantage of having $20,000 or $30,000 put in circulation in this city.

The city is not, just now, so well off that it can afford to let slip an advantage to the citizens such as this.

Dominion Exhibition.

WE have received from the Secretary's office, Halifax, a copy of the Prize List of the third annual Dominion Exhibition, to be held at Halifax N. S., next September. This great Exhibition of the Agricultural, Industrial and Mechanical productions of the Dominion is held under the patronage of His Excellency the Governor General, by the authority of the Dominion Parliament, and is under the special direction of the Central Board of Agriculture of Nova Scotia and the Corporation of the City of Halifax. The amount of money appropriated for prizes is $15,000. The classes are horses, cattle, sheep, pigs, poultry, roots and vegetables, grain and field seeds, dairy produce, hemp, woollen, flax, cotton, and straw goods, wearing apparel, etc., agricultural implements, fruits, plants and flowers, minerals, manufactures in wood, carriages, naval architecture, manufactures in metals, manufactures in leather, fisheries, furs, preserved meats, groceries, confectionery, soaps, etc., ladies' work, natural history, Indian work, manufactures in paper, printing, etc. Special prizes are also offered. Hon. J.H. Pope, Minister of Agriculture, offers a prize of $50.00 for the best horse of any breed on the show grounds. The Poultry Association of N. S., supplements the prize for the best pair of Poultry hatched in 1881, by an additional $2.00 to each pair. A. J. Merkle, Esq., offers a special prize of $8.50 for best two loaves home made bread, and best assortment of baker's rolls, manufactured from the Acme brand of flour. The Fruit Growers Association and International Show Society of Nova Scotia, offer some $75.00 in special prizes for different varieties of apples and other fruit. Melville G. DeWolfe, Esq., gives a special prize of two dollars, for the best collection of wild flowers and grasses of the Dominion.

The great advantages to Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and this Province which must result from an Exhibition thus placed in their midst, cannot be over estimated. With cash prizes of $15,000, and large sums additional given for special prizes, it will be the fault of the people of our Maritime Provinces themselves, if they do not carry off a large proportion of those prizes.

Prince Edward Island, last year, took the lead at the Dominion Exhibition, Montreal, and at the New Brunswick Exhibition, St. John, in some departments of live stock, as well as in grains especially, and we have every confidence in the success of our exhibitors at the Halifax Dominion Exhibition of 1881.

Provincial Exhibition Notes.

A general meeting of the Board of Commissioners will be held at the Legislative Library, Provincial Building, on Friday next, June 17th, at 11 o'clock. At this meeting a Prize List, prepared by the Committee for that purpose, will be submitted for approval of the Board.

The noble example presented by the donors of special prizes at the Halifax Exhibition, we trust, will be followed by like donations from some of our wealthy and enterprising citizens.

We see by the Prize List that the members of the Central Board of Agriculture of Nova Scotia have offered the following prizes, namely:

For best historical account of the rise and progress of agriculture in Nova Scotia, 1st prize $20, 2nd do $15, 3d do $10.

We are glad to know that a gentleman interested in the prosperity of our farmers, and a practical agriculturist himself, offers a prize of $5 for the best essay on Dairy Management, to be presented at our Provincial Exhibition next October.

This example, we trust will be followed by others.

Too much cannot be said or written on behalf of our industries. Every stimulant possible should be applied for their promotion and advancement.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of our correspondents.

Our Streets.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—I am glad to see the city authorities making use of the only good material for road-making easy at command—viz., ashes.

Anyone who has travelled through what is known as the "Black Country" of England (South Staffordshire) must have noticed the excellent roads formed from ashes hauled from the forges, foundries and blast furnaces—roads which wear well under the heavy traffic to which they are there subjected, which are comparatively free from dust, and dry rapidly after rain.

But let the City Council go a step further and pass a bye-law requiring the citizens to keep the ashes in separate receptacles from the other household rubbish, and let a scheme be perfected for its being systematically collected by the city teams. This is done in Montreal, where the ashes are used for making sidewalks, etc. (As used at present the ashes are offensive to both sight and smell.) If the ashes are thus used for a few years the city streets will soon be in excellent order, as the cementing nature of our soil will form it into a material almost like concrete.

Yours, &c.,

Entertainment Last Evening.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—Last night Madame Augot was performed at the Academy of Music in a highly creditable manner by the Holman Opera Company. The entire performance was a grand success. I overheard a gentleman say that he had repeatedly heard Madame Augot in France and England, and that the rendition of it by this Company was fully equal to what he had heard (more especially the acting), the only drawback being the want of a good orchestra. Miss Sallie Holman was charming as Clairvette, and her singing delighted every one present. Miss Bradshaw acted her part to perfection and sang with much ease and grace, much more so than the previous evening. Mr. Brandisi's rendering of the Marseillaise was worth the price of admission. He has a magnificent voice and knows how to use it. The same can be said of Messrs. Dalton and Holman, who frequently brought forth the hearty plaudits of the audience. I must not forget to mention the vocal efforts of the little girl who captivated the audience and was compelled to respond to a hearty encore. The choruses, barring one or two hitches which probably were not noticed by many of the audience, were well sung. The solos were all well sung—enunciation good, every word being distinctly heard all over the hall, a great item in solo singing. But the one great fault I observe is that the piano accompaniment is yet too loud, particularly so when the treble part is played in unison with the voice it sounds very bad to hear the note forced out ahead of the singer, it ought to come, if anything after, as the accompaniment is to sustain the voice and not to lead. It may answer very well in the choruses, where all are bound to keep strict time, but in solo singing the soloist can do just as he or she pleases. The accompanyist is supposed to keep with them and not to lead and drown their voices. Any person who has heard a good orchestra will admit this. The lady pianist of this Company is a very fine player. I hope she will take these hints and receive them in the same way as the writer wishes, viz., in a kind manner. Our energetic City Marshal kept the best of order. I may state, in conclusion, would it not look better and more becoming in some to stand up and wait until the national anthem is finished, instead of rushing out of the hall, hats on, as if they were going to a fire. I also noticed that the gas was being turned off while the ladies were putting their shawls on. It would not be amiss if those parties would not be in such a hurry and wait a minute or two longer and give the people time to get out of the hall.

Yours, &c.,

PRESTO.

"Our Visitors" in Kansas.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM HARRY HOTSPUR.

It is pleasant to greet old friends even in Western Kansas. The even tenor of our life was agreeably interrupted by the arrival of "mutual friends."

There are such things as presentiments, and we were possessed by one on the Sunday afternoon, when, as was our usual custom, we wended our way to attend the "Methodist Episcopal" about three miles from the ranche. Owing to this presentiment, we left the the door of "The Grotto" open, so that if our friends arrived, they would find an open welcome to walk in, and make themselves at home. When we got back from church we found them both LOKATIED as we expected. They were looking well with the Kansas bloom and a fortnights growth of "wool" on their cheeks.

Ranche hunting was the first item on their programme, and, as we had our crops in, and everything around booming, we decided to accompany them merely to keep them out of harms way, falling into prarie dog holes, or getting bitten by jack rabbits or rattlesnakes.

For our reputation we are glad to say they fully sustained our wrttien opinion of the country. "Unrivalled as a stock-grazing one." The farther they travelled, the better they liked the country, and the different grasses, the buffalo, gramma, and blue stem, so well adapted for stock-raising purposes. By the way, another acquaintance of ours from the East, and by the bye, a gentlemen farmer too, came out to view the country, but something like Sam Weller his "wision was limited" as he only saw Western Kansas, through the windows of the parlor of the "Dodge City" Hotel. When safe at home again in his country "villa" he supplied glowing descriptive paragraphs for THE EXAMINER, giving his opinion of the country he visited. In his long and varied experience as a practical farmer and stockraiser, etc., he summed up by saying; he would not exchange a farm on the ice on his native Hillsborough for all the lands in Western Kansas. Surely he must have been in the winter of his discontent, or, saw through the window-glass darkly.

Mounted on stout bronchos, of varied sizes, shapes, and complexions, we secured the country, and G. W. D., with ever accompaning pencil and book, took as many notes of the farms, vacant sections, timber claims, homesteads, &c., as if he was "writing up" an Agricultural and Land Report for the Department of the Interior. After looking at several locations—all good enough in their way—"our visitors" decided to purchase an old settler out, "stock lock and barrel." Their selection is a good one and cheap; about seven miles from ours. They have abundance of range, good well water, and the grasses are of an excellent quality.

There is yet room for one or two Islanders who have the necessary amount of back bone in them. Not politically speaking, a little of the "grit" is indispensable out here. So far, the specimens from the Island are no discredit to it, and if they only do as well as they look (and we have not a doubt of it) the will be a credit to Pawnee Co., Kansas, as well.

HARRY HOTSPUR.

New Perth.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—For the information of "Excavator," from Baldwin's Road, whose letter appeared in the Patriot of June 9th, allow me to inform him that, at the very time he was writing his complaint to the Patriot our energetic Superintendent of Public Works, accompanied by a surveyor and the Hon. James E. Macdonald, and Hon. Donald Ferguson, were laying out the road, and running the lines, and I have no doubt that the long looked for road will now be completed. While other Governments and the representatives of Cardigan have neglected, the affairs of that district, "Excavator" will find that our present representatives are alive to their interest, and will do everything in their power to advance the same. "Work, and no fuss about it," seems to be their motto.

Yours, etc.,

NEW PERTH.

Supreme Court—Prince County.

JUNE 14, 1881.

After recess to-day Mr. Palmer, Q. C., on petition moved for the admission of Robert T. Weeks as a barrister of the Court and he was admitted accordingly.

Mr. Hodgson for Jesse Strang, a prisoner in Prince County jail, moved for a rule to set aside an execution issued by Thomas B. Hall and under which Strang is in custody. A rule nisi was granted returnable to-morrow.

John Donahoe vs. Lawrence O'Brien, an absent debtor.—This was an action to recover the amount of two promissory notes made by defendant in favor of plaintiff. The defendant absconded last fall without paying the amount of them. Verdict for $1327.84. Hodgson for plaintiff.

John Lefurgey vs. Thomas P. Gorman, an absent debtor.—Action to recover amount of a promissory note made by defendant. Verdict for $748.50. Hodgson and Sutherland for plaintiff.

John Fisher and others vs. John McKenzie—This is the most important case on the docket, and is creating quite an interest as evidenced by the large crowd in attendance. The case is being tried by a special jury which was obtained after some delay and repeated challenges by both sides. The jurors sworn are, James Townsend, Foreman, Felix Gaudet, William McGregor, Peter Merrison, John Cook, Douglas Milligan and George Waite.

George H. Gardiner, was one of the panel summoned, and when he was about being sworn, the defendant's Counsel objected to him because the name on the precept was George R. Gardiner. The objection was sustained by the Court after some discussion by the Plaintiff's Counsel.

Mr. Peters opened the case on behalf of the plaintiff's in an address of nearly an hours length. The charge against the defendant is that he induced the plaintiff's to accept a composition of their claim by fraud.

The progress of the case so far, has been very slow, as only one witness was examined at the hour of adjournment this evening.

C. Palmer, F. Peters and L. H. Davies for plaintiff's; Hodgson for defendant.

More Destruction of Sheep by Vicious Dogs.

WE regret to learn that Henry Longworth, Esq., of Glynwood, is again the victim of heavy loss to his flock by dogs running at large. Last night four of his valuable pure bred Cotswold and Leicester ewes and lambs were killed in his pasture. The dogs killed a valuable lamb in Mr. Longworth's lawn within a few yards of his residence. The actual value of those killed is at least $60. Others of his flock have been so worried and maimed as to very much depreciate their value should they survive.

The stringent law passed last session is so far a dead letter, as no dogs running at large have yet appeared either muzzled or clogged. We trust immediate action will be taken in this matter, otherwise we fear sheepraisers will be so disheartened as to abandon the raising of valuable breeds which cost them large sums of money, and which have proven of such general benefit to the country at large.

THE steamer "Carroll" arrived from Boston at noon to-day with a cargo of merchandize and the following passengers:—Mr W D Winsloe, Mrs Cairns, Mrs Kickham, Miss Esther Kickham, Miss Rose Kickham, Mrs S Daley, Mrs Daley, Miss May Daley, Mrs J R Reid and child, Miss Tremaine, Mr. Rattenbury, Miss Maggie Foote, Flora Moore, Maggie Moore, Flora McCormack, Sarah Conway, Flora McLeod, Mrs Waterhouse and three children, Miss McLellan, Flora Maine, Alice Dunn, Master Willie Strickland, E McMillan, Andrew McDougall, Peter Dunn, N McDougall, M McLeod, L McKenzie.

BY cablegram to Peake Bros., & Co., steamship "Prince Edward" arrived at Avonmouth, on the 14th inst., with loss of 3 sheep only during the voyage.

WE regret to hear that Capt. Wright of the "Carroll" is seriously ill, with fever and ague. During his illness Capt. Brown will be in charge of the "Carroll."

LA FILLE DE MADAME ANGOT was played by the Holman Opera Company last night to a good and appreciative audience. The troupe fully sustaining the great impression created by their opening performance. We think the music of Angot decidedly superior to Olivette. Of the individual efforts of the Company it is unnecessary to speak, as the subject is spoken of at length elsewhere by our correspondent. The bill this evening will be the popular legendary opera, "The Chimes of Normandy." Let us hope that the Troupe will have the patronage they deserve.

THE Larned City (Kansas) "Chronoscope" of the 3rd inst., says: "Mr. Sid Fitzgerald, one of Ben Wade's tallest and best citizens, was in the city this week."

A. M. MCALPIN, M. D., of Grand Falls, N. B., is about to remove with his family to P. E. Island.
