CHAPTER III.

The question was of the kind that addresses itself peculiarly to individual preferences; the kind which has afflicted the world with its saddest and greatest wars; yet, strange to say, the company, as with one voice, instantly answered:

In the evening time three pabas clomb the stairs by which the turret of Huitzil's on the teocallis was reached from the acceas.

On a pedestal of stone, or rather on many stones, rested the brazier, or urn that held the sacred fire. In it crackled the consuming fagots, while over it, with unsteady brilliancy leaped the flames which, for so many leagues away were as a beacon in the valley.

A Correct Diagnosis.—George.—"Eh? You got engaged last night? Gus, my old, my dear friend, tell me how you did it."

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites. Is sold all over the world. It is far superior to plain Cod Liver Oil, palatable and easily digested.

The Geruans in Samoa have met with two things hard to withstand; first, the hurricane which drove their ships on shore, and then the Christian kindness shown to the distressed ships by Mataafa and his people, whom the Germans had been savagely treating as savages.

Local Notices. For two weeks only—A 25c can of fresh salmon only 18c; guaranteed last year's catch, at R. K. Brace's.

CHAPTER IV. THE TZIN'S FAREWELL TO QUITZAL. If I were writing history it would delight me to linger over the details of Cortes' management after the arrest of Montezuma; for in them were blent, fairly as ever before seen, the grand diversities of war, politics and governmental administration.

And so, slowly but surely, the Public Opinion made its way, permeating all classes—laborers, merchants, warriors and priests.

possession, as attested by numerous acts of sovereignty—such, for instance, as the coast of the gulf surveyed; colonies established; plantations opened and worked with profit; tribute levied; high officials arrested, diseased and executed; the collection and division of a treasure greater than ever before seen by Christians in the New World; communication with the capital secured by armed brigantines on the lakes; this cross set up and maintained in the teocallis; and last, and by custom of the civilized world, most absolute, Montezuma brought to acknowledge vassalage and swear allegiance to the Emperor; and withal, so perfect was the administration of affairs, that a Spaniard, though alone, was as safe in the defiles between Vera Cruz and Tenochtitlan as he would have been in the cañinos reales of old Spain, as free in the great tinoguez as on the quay of Cadiz.

Emperor William's Capacity.

In Germany, Kaiser Wilhelm continues his extraordinary activity. He has made a great display of affability. On Wednesday he attended Prince Bismarck's dinner to members of the Reichstrg, and ate among other things oysters, ox-tail soup, sucking pig, trout, young bear, roast beef, fieldfare pie, with truffles, lobsters, French fowl, ducks and quails, all of which indicates a strong digestion, as he still lives. He was not afraid to mix his drinks, but took mostly old Burgundy and sweet Cyprus.

On the following evening, in company with the Empress, he attended the dinner of the British Embassy, where he ate a good, but more international and less thoroughly solid and Teutonic dinner than at Bismarck's. He made extremely merry with Sir Edward and Lady Malet, whose path in the German capital has often been a thorny one. The Kaiser left this dinner at 8 o'clock and went to the concert for the benefit of the German Evangelistic Mission in German East Africa.

It is worth noting that a change has come over the attitude of the entire European press concerning William I. He is no longer rebuked for the crime of being young and the talk about the hotheadedness of youth has all disappeared. A large and well-founded suspicion has enveloped this portion of the globe to the effect that the people who are waiting for the Emperor's enthusiasm in the arduous duties of governing to work off will have plenty of time for reflection. He has taken up his work in earnest and he is not laboring under the stimulus of any momentary excitement. Most of his efforts are still directed toward the improvement of Germany's great army. He leaves diplomacy in the hands of that blundering and radiant fledgling of Bismarck.

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by the masses, as Catarrh of the Nose. By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrh of the Throat. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony" from Catarrh.

Prof. W. HAUSKNE, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hacking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2502 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hacking and spitting, and for the last eight months I could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Bunyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. My Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure, and now eighteen years old she is sound and hearty."
