Annual Banquet Is Held At Hillside Lodge In Montague

Mr. Harry MacGregor presided as toast master at the annual banquet at Hillside Lodge, I.O. O.F., Montague, Thursday evening, commemorating the 139th anniversary of the founding of Confederation in North America. Forty-two members of Hillside Lodge and Acme Rebekah Lodge attended the lobster supper. The toast to the Queen was proposed by Mr. MacGregor and was responded to with the singing of "God Save The Queen". A toast to Our Country was proposed by Mr. Atwood MacDonald and was responded to with "O Canada". Mr. James Dewar, outside guardian of the Maritime Grand Lodge, proposed a toast to the order and Miss Adah MacGregor, Noble Grand of Acme Rebekah Lodge responded. A toast to the ladies was then proposed by Mr. Douglas Coffin, to which Mrs. James Dewar, outside guardian of the Maritime Rebekah Assembly responded. Other members who spoke briefly were Mrs. Agnes Coffin, president of the Maritime Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. Nellie Fraser, brother Homer Moar and brother Cyrus Shaw. A pleasant social evening closed with a hearty sing-song, with Mrs. Atwood MacDonald, piano, and Mr. Preston Jackson, guitar, as accompanists.

Highlight of the convention was the presentation of nine National Quality Awards by William T. Jack, Director of Public Relations, I.U.A.C. The awards, presented annually to members of the Life Underwriters Association of Canada for consistent quality production of ordinary business, were given to: Mayor Edwin C. Johnson, Dominion Life; Blair MacDonald, Empire Life; R. S. Carruthers, Canada Life; Stewart G. Ives, Excelsior Life; R. D. MacGillivray, Imperial Life; J. E. Devine, Mutual Life; Robert E. Younker, Canada Life; H. B. Carr and R. L. MacLean of Sun Life.

OTHER SPEAKERS
Other speakers at the convention were Mr. Jack and John V. Coe, C.I.U. Representative, Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, Wichita, Kansas.

Mr. Jack spoke on "P R in Review" discussing the advances made by life underwriters, through their association, in achieving a high standard of ethics resulting in the existing public acceptance of life underwriters as skilled counsellors in financial security.

Mr. Coe took as his subjects "Why They Buy" and "I Have Six Secrets". In his morning address, he spoke in detail on the four basic steps in the so-called buying and selling cycle. His afternoon talk mainly concerned administration in the business operations of a life insurance underwriter. The "secrets" he offered concerned prospecting, insurance for dependency, retirement income, business insurance, and business efficiency.

Tourists Begin Arriving At Garden Of The Gulf Museum

Tourists from Saskatchewan east have already visited the Montague "Garden of the Gulf Museum", which opened for the season on June 1st. On visiting the museum, visitors will be met by either Mrs. A.F. MacDonald or Miss Margaret Jean MacDonald joint hostesses, who will also be able to assist out of province motorists in obtaining accommodations and supply boat, bus and train information. A number of new and most interesting items have been added since last year and have created a great deal of interest. The Junior Board of Trade is making plans to enlarge the museum by opening the second floor of the building to house the large number of items which are coming in daily to add to the variety now on display. The museum was officially opened by His Excellency Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, Governor-General of Canada, during his official visit to Montague this year. Museum hours for the summer are 8 a.m. to 6 a.m. daily and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Sundays.

ed their boat in the river and were going ashore in the small craft when it overturned. Brown's body was taken to Charlottetown for an autopsy. Members of the coroner's jury include: Eldon MacKenzie, the foreman, of Head of Rollo Bay, Charles Aitken, Harvey Aitken, Arnold Dixon, Harold Dixon, Howard Dixon, all of Fortune, and Gwyn Stewart of Souris. After the jury viewed the body, the hearing was adjourned to a date to be set by the coroner.

BRISTOL

Rev. J.J. Dunphy celebrated his first solemn high mass here on Sunday, June 1st, in the old St. Laurence Church where he attended as a boy with his parents. Hundreds of invited guests and friends packed the church to the doors and out on the lawn, for this wonderful occasion. A sermon on the Priesthood was delivered in a ringing voice by a former pastor, Rev. Phalen McKenna, who spoke feelingly of the honor, to be asked to come back today for this great occasion. Following the mass the newly ordained priest was presented with a purse and address, and in reply Father Dunphy expressed thanks to all who helped him along the road, especially to his mother who was present today.

Mr. Joe Lapierre, had his large house hauled to Morell village last week, to a lot beside his two brothers who reside there, the big house was hauled through a swamp and along the back roads, and through farms to avoid the highway. The building got quite a shaking up and will require considerable repair after its journey.

Mr. John R. O'Brien has hauled a garage to his property, where it will be used for a barn and storage building. The haul was only a short distance.

Miss Mabel O'Brien is having some repairs done to her house at present a new foundation and sills along with one side of the roof. The work will take the two carpenters some time to complete.

Mrs. Josie Dunphy has as her welcome guest, her sister, who she has not seen in thirty years. She was Miss Kelly in single life and came home from the golden west to attend the Ordination of her nephew, Rev. J.J. Dunphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Kenny, and son, Roy, were in the city last week on business. Mr. Kenny has
