APPLICATIONS FOR JOBS Yesterday afternoon and evening about seventy-five applicants were interviewed at the Summerside Employment Office for jobs on a large construction project at the United States base at Goose Bay, Labrador. A representative of the contracting firm, the Drake-Merritt Corporation of New York, Mr. Jack Searle conducted the interviews. About fifty per cent of those applying were instructed to go to Charlottetown for medical examinations and if they pass this examination they will be called to report at Moncton in about two weeks. Those interviewed yesterday represented unskilled labor and practically all the common trades. About thirty men from the Prince County area have already been flown to Labrador for this project. It is expected that another representative of the company will be in Summerside on next Monday to conduct further interviews.—S.

PERSONALS Mrs. George Matheson, O'Leary is leaving Friday, accompanied by her two children, on a trip to her old home in Waldeck, Sask., where she will be the guests of her parents.

BUOY SALVAGED Yesterday two Alberton South fishermen, James and Philip Kinch) salvaged a large black can buoy adrift between Alberton wharf and Hardy's Channel and managed to lift it into their boat after a hard struggle and brought it to the Alberton South wharf. They believe that a call was put out on The Fisherman's Broadcast several days ago for this buoy.

CHURCH PICNIC The annual Church picnic of St. John's, St. Eleanor's and St. Mary's, Summerside Anglican parishes was held on Wednesday afternoon at North St. Eleanor's shore with a number of guests in attendance. Games, races and swimming were organized for the children under the direction of Messrs. Eric Tanton and Frank MacKenzie. A delicious picnic lunch was served by the ladies of both parishes. Mr. James Connell was in charge of arrangements and a good time was had by all present.—S.

FORD BOULTER Wedding A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Church Manse in O'Leary, Wednesday, July 4th. When the minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson, united in the bonds of holy matrimony Miss Margaret Rosena Jean Boulter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Boulter of Carleton, Lot 6, and Mr. William Ivan Ford son of Mr. and Mrs. Elery Ford of Charlottetown. The matron of honor was the sister of the groom, Mrs. Marion Jean Kennedy of Charlottetown, and the best man was the brother of the bride, Mr. Everett Henry Boulton, Lot 6.

The radiant young bride was gowned in a beautiful wedding dress of pink lace, and carried a pretty nosegay. The matron of honor was gowned in blue taffeta and also carried a nosegay.

After the ceremony, a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents. The lovely rooms were appropriately decorated with streamers and wedding bells. Music and singing was enjoyed by the organ and Mr. Elwyn Boulter and others doing the singing.

The bride was employed as a stenographer with a Provincial Government Dept. in Charlottetown and the groom is also employed in Charlottetown. The young couple will make their home in the capital city where they have built and furnished a fine new home. They have the good wishes of a multitude of friends for a long and happy wedded life.
