

DO YOU REALIZE

What more than one hundred and fifty distinct styles in Ladies' Capes mean? There was a headaching sure enough before all these styles were thought out—enough to equip a regiment of Ladies—and no two Capes alike. We have them in all styles—except old styles.

HANDSOMELY TRIMMED AND LINED

We are afraid to put the figures in print—they're so low—it's almost like offering two dollar bills for one, and you are apt to be suspicious. If you can't make out the Jubilee prices in this ad., visit our mantle room and we will be pleased to show you the prettiest Capes and Jackets at the lowest prices ever offered the ladies P. E. I.

ENGINEERS.—All members of Charlottetown Engineer Company desirous of joining Cycle Corps, are requested to meet at Drill shed at 7.30 this evening.

I. O. G. T.—A private excursion has been arranged for by the members of Charlottetown Lodge, No. 68. Last evening two candidates were initiated into the Lodge.

ADDRESS TO THE QUEEN.—The address from Division No. 1, A. O. H., to Her Majesty the Queen, was yesterday mailed to Premier Laurier, who is to present it.—St. John Gazette.

ONE FARE TICKETS.—In connection with the concert to be given by Sousa and his band in the exhibition building tickets at one fare will be issued on the eastern trains on Monday good to return on Tuesday.

FLOWER MISSION.—The Flower Mission Committee of the Y. W. C. T. U. will meet at the Rooms, Grafton Street, tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. Donations of flowers, reading matter, etc., thankfully received.

SOUSA'S BAND.—Persons at Souris who wish to hear Sousa's Band should leave their names at Johnson & Johnson's Drug Store, Souris, so that it may be known whether the number will be sufficient to warrant hiring a special train.

QUEEN'S JUBILEE.—The Queen's Jubilee Committee are working hard to make the celebration in this city a success. To-day Mayor Dawson ordered 1,500 medals for the school children, one of which is to be presented each scholar taking part in the proceedings. Samples of flags and banners have also been received. Besides the Committee have arranged for special fares from all stations along the line of railway. These tickets will be issued on Tuesday and will be good to return on Wednesday afternoon. In addition there will also be tickets at one first-class fare, which will be issued on Monday and will be good until Friday.

LOST IN THE WOODS.—The St. John Telegraph tells of a man named James A. McCormack, said to be from Northam in this Province, who while on his way from Boston was enticed into the woods at Vauceboro and robbed of his money and coat. After the robbery he lost his way and wandered in the woods for about a week, subsisting for much of the time on berries and birds eggs. Finally he found the railway track and some section men took him to McAdam, whence he came to St. John. He was very weak and had to be assisted to a hotel. Next day he was taken to the hospital. McCormack is said to be a tailor by trade.

THE BOSTON STEAMER.—The steamer Halifax arrived from Boston last evening about half-past seven o'clock. She had the following passengers for this port: C. H. Badger, Miss Dewar, Mrs. Geo.
