"THE GREAT DAN FATCH"

This picture was so popular it is back for 2 more days. You saw it before, you won't want to miss it; if you didn't see it before don't miss it this time. Grand racing story.

Mr. Leroy White, Montague commercial traveller, left last week for the Magdalen Islands on a business trip. Mr. White expects to return at the end of this week.

Mr. Edwin Kelly, who has been working with the surveyors here in Montague, returned to Charlottetown to continue his studies at Prince of Wales College.

*LEAVE FOR COLLEGE - Mr. Charles Dewar, Brudenell, and Mr. Robert Anderson, St. Peters, left Monday for Dalhousie University where they have enrolled as second year medical students. Both young men did exceptionally well in their studies last year and their many friends wish them equally well this year.

*FAREWELL PARTY - Mr. and Mrs. Robert Machon were pleasantly surprised recently when a large number of their friends and neighbours met at their home in Lower Montague to convey their regrets of their departure from their midst. In his own capable manner, Mr. Paul Fox addressed Mr. and Mrs. Machon and a purse of money was presented on behalf of the residents of Lower Montague. The evening was spent in social conversation and a delicious lunch was served by the ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Machon expressed their appreciation and extended to all a cordial invitation, to visit them in their new home in Montague.

Mrs. L. A. Johnston returned to Montague after accompanying her son, Louis, to Sackville, N. B. where he will begin his studies at Mount Allison University.
