

Oldest PEI Orange Lodge Established Here In 1851

It is interesting to note during the centennial year that Boyne Lodge, No. 614, the parent of Orangeism in Prince Edward Island was established four years prior to the incorporation of the city of Charlottetown. The reason for organizing in 1851 is set forth by the charter members themselves:

"At all times nothing can be more natural and at this time nothing can be more reasonable than that those who have common rights to defend, should act together and know each other. It is by division that true patriots are frustrated and their best and noblest efforts for public good defeated."

At that time immigrants were arriving here and meeting as strangers even though they may have grown up a short distance from each other in the period when a distance of a few miles made acquaintance remote.

BUTTER AND CREAM PRICES

During the year 1954, the average price received at the gate per pound of butterfat, by Prince Edward Island farmers shipping cream to butter factories was 61.83 cents. The average price received at the gate per pound of butterfat, by farmers shipping to cream factories was 61.66 cents.

Using these two figures as a basis it can easily be computed that the average return from the dairy cow last year, was not much superior to that received by selling fattened calves as the cash crop. This circumstance has formed the prevailing motive which farmers give for turning their farm operation into a beef rather than a dairy enterprise.

It should be noted, however, that it would not take much of a decline in the dairy cow population to put the price of milk at a premium. If farmers begin changing their farming operation from a Dairy to Beef status on a wholesale basis, then it will not be too long before those who remain in the Dairy "business" will find themselves in a favorable position.

Although the "spread" between cost and profit in the dairy business is not large at the present time, farmers could in many cases, increase the efficiency of their farm operation by keeping "more" and "better" cattle. Rigid culling of the dairy herd should be more attentively enforced.

In this "age of machinery" most farmers are machined to death, but the point that does not seem to drive home is the fact that the efficiency of that farm machinery is, in many cases, low. Farmers who have enough machinery to care for eight cows are keeping four and the attention which should be directed toward increasing the production of Field Crops is being directed toward Feed Stores.

Greater production on the farm must be carried out in the future if the small "dirt farmer" is to stay in business.

WHY CREAM TESTS VARY

Assuming that the buyer of cream thoroughly mixes the cream so as to insure samples that are representative of the cream in the can and that he conducts his tests accurately and honestly, variations in the fat tests of cream of different shipments from the same patron are attributable and may be due to any one or more of the following factors:

1. Change in richness of herd milk. This may be caused by cows drying up and fresh cows coming in. In this case the tendency is toward a drop in the richness of the herd milk and a corresponding drop in the cream test. The addition to or taking out of the herd of cows producing high or low testing milk will have a similar effect. It will raise or lower the cream test respectively.
2. The fat test of cream will always vary in the case of cream separated by the gravity system of creaming.
3. Tampering with the cream screw or skim milk screw in the separator bowl is bound to cause large fluctuations in the richness of the cream and in the fat tests.
4. Irregularities in the operation of the cream separator will always cause variations in the fat test. High speed, small rate of intake

Memorial No. 266 of Charlottetown is the direct sister of Boyne. It had its birth in Aug. 22nd, 1918 on a warrant granted to the late Mary Jane MacLean, wife of the Rev. D. MacLean, above-mentioned. It might be mentioned at this time—so near to the anniversary of its birth—Memorial Lodge has a proud record of officers, past and present, among the finest of Charlottetown's citizens. One of the Past Worthy Mistresses was the wife of the late esteemed Mayor Kennedy and a more recent one is the wife of our current highly-respected and efficient Fire Chief. Its present Worthy Mistress is Mrs. Mable McLean of Charlottetown and the Provincial Grand Mistress is Mrs. Myrtle McPhail of Long Creek.

Incidentally, the present Worshipful Master of Boyne is Mr. Bennett H. Carr, of the Sun Life Insurance Company of Canada, who is a son of Mr. Howard Carr, a member of Barton Lodge, Milton.
