THE brigantine Alaska, Captain Buck, from London to Halifax, encountered a succession of gales and hurricanes, the entire passage. She was blown a long distance off her course. Off Cape Sable she experienced a terrible sleet storm, in which the vessel was hoisted to. The rigging became so thoroughly encased in ice that it was found impossible to work the ship, and the men had to be kept continually at work breaking the sleet off. The vessel lost a number of sails.

THE sum of $640 was realized at the Bazaar held in the Roller Rink on Thursday evening. Everything passed off pleasantly, and the affair, taken all in all, was a grand success. The Rink is a splendid building in which to hold such entertainments. The immense concourse on Thursday evening moved about with an ease and comfort which would have been altogether out of the question in the Market Hall, and we have no doubt that it will henceforth be largely sought after for purposes of public entertainment.

The meeting was addressed by the Hon. Alex. Laird, Messrs. Major Wright, Murdoch Ross, Alex. Anderson, Peter McRae, John Crawford, Joseph Schurman and others. Notwithstanding the low prices realized for cheese last year, all the patrons expressed themselves satisfied with the management of the Factory and the returns made, and signified their intention of supporting the Factory next season.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

Again at the Helm.

LONDON, March 26. In the House of Commons, this afternoon, referring to announcements made in his behalf yesterday, Gladstone said that the statement that he would make on April 8th, would take the form of the introduction of a bill for the future government of Ireland. This announcement produced a sensation. It is now believed that the Premier has, in deference to opposition in his own party, decided to abandon temporarily, at least, his scheme for buying out the landlords of Ireland; and to make Home Rule in some form the pure and simple basis of his Irish proposals.

Reign of the Mob.

LIEGE, March 26. A reign of terror continues here. A mob broke into a manufactory of fire arms last night, and carried away all the available contents. Troops have been sent everywhere, and this part of the kingdom is rapidly assuming an appearance of being under military occupation.

Brussels, March 27.

A number of miners attempted to go to work to-day, but were prevented from doing so by strikers. Troops were powerless to quell the disturbance. The amount of damage caused by the mob so far exceeds $3,126,000 francs. The entire garrison at Ostend has been ordered to proceed to Charlevoil.

Rioters Sentenced.

LIMERICK, March 26. Five men who had been convicted of rioting were up for sentence to-day. The Magistrate committed them to imprisonment for terms ranging from 3 to 6 months. When sentenced, the prisoners in concert made a savage attack on the police. A struggle ensued, causing great excitement and wrecking almost everything in the court-room. They were finally overpowered.

Death in the Flames.

WIARTON, Ont., March 26. A house occupied by William Bailey, a farmer, about three miles from here, was burned down last night. Bailey and his hired man perished in the flames. Bailey had just returned from this place when the flames were first discovered, and his horses were found harnessed in the stable. The affair looks mysterious.

Destroyed by Fire.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 26. At noon to-day the North Buffalo Flour Mills were destroyed by fire. Loss about $40,000. Gilbert's starch works adjoining were completely destroyed. The building was a new one and cost $100,000. Several other buildings were destroyed and total loss is estimated at $500,000.

Governmental Assurances.

LONDON, March 26. The Government's supporters have been privately assured that the Government's Irish programme has been settled by the Cabinet. A Home Rule measure will be introduced first, and will be followed immediately by a land bill.

Rebels Still Fighting.

RANGOON, March 26. Another engagement has taken place with rebels at Yenusthen. Forty rebels were killed. One English private was killed and two officers wounded.

Incendiary Placards.

BRUSSELS, March 26. The city was placarded last night with inflammatory appeals to the poor to rise, and fire, and pillage the town.

A Business Failure.

LONDON, March 27. John Bellill, & Co., lumber merchants, manufacturers and contractors have failed. Liabilities heavy.

Gladstone Improving.

LONDON, March 26. Gladstone's condition is much improved to-day.

WE read a few days ago, says the Truro Sun, that Mr. Alex. McGrath fell down a shaft of the Dufferin Gold Mines, Salmon River, a distance of 180 feet and was killed. Yes, Sandy did fall down the shaft, but he wasn't killed; at least he is not dead yet, and he told some of our acquaintances the other day that he had no notion of dying. When a man like Sandy, with youth and vigor on his side, and who fought for his life all the way down that almost perpendicular shaft, with a tenacity that would do credit to a cat, breaking his fall by the most vigorous use of his hands and feet, it means something. His finger tops were worn to the bone and his boots were in shreds when he reached the bottom. He deserves to live.

Mr. Oscar Wilde, who has been strictly a private citizen lately, is said to have received one of his neatest rebukes during his pousseur days, from Mrs. George H. Pendleton. He observing one evening to that lady, "Ah, but America has no ruins and no curiosities!" she is credited with answering very sweetly: "Mr. Wilde the ruins are only a question of time; and at present we import our curiosities."

Horsford's Acid Phosphate, UNEQUALLED. Dr. R. M. Alexander, Fannettsburg, Pa., says: "I think Horsford's Acid Phosphate not equalled in any other preparation phosphorous."
