Immediately following the conclusion of its younger members convention—known as Co-operative Commonwealth Youth Movement—the senior CCF party convention met in Toronto, celebrating its 12th biennial meeting. Attending the three-day affair — which saw an emergency resolution passed urging immediate expansion of the iron and steel industry through public ownership because of the steel industry's alleged failure to keep pace with the industrial needs of Canada — are Mrs. Marjorie Cooper, left, newly elected member of Saskatchewan legislature; M. J. Coldwell, national leader, and party member Miss Jean MacLeod, of P.E.I.
