THE STAGE DRIVER'S BLUFF.

Hairbreadth Stories of Accidents Which Failed to Awe One Passenger.
As we left Sandy Gulch for Rising Sun there were six male passengers to go by the stage, and the route was over the mountains and full of chances of disaster. The driver came out from breakfast as soon as the stage was ready, and looking about on the passengers he selected a small, pale faced man and invited him to climb up beside him. While the pale faced man was climbing the driver whispered to the rest of us: 'I picked him out in order to scare him to death. You fellows will see a heap of fun before we've gone ten miles.'

The Alpine Good Night.
Among the lofty mountains and elevated valleys of Switzerland the Alpine horn has another use besides that of sounding the far famed 'Ranz des Vaches,' or cow song, and this is of a very solemn and impressive nature. When the sun has set in the valleys and the snowy summits of the mountains gleam with golden light, the herdsman who dwells upon the highest habitable spot takes his horn and pronounces clearly and loudly through it, as through a speaking trumpet, 'Praise the Lord God.' As soon as the sound is heard by the neighboring herdsman they issue from their huts, take their Alpine horns and repeat the same words. This frequently lasts a quarter of an hour, and the call resounds from all the mountains and rocky cliffs around. When silence again reigns, the herdsman kneel and pray with uncovered heads. Meantime it has become quite dark. 'Good night!' at last calls the highest herdsman through his horn. The words resound from all the mountains, the horns of the herdsman and the cliffs, and the mountaineers then retire to their dwellings. -Pittsburg Dispatch.

SKIN-DEEP BEAUTY!

DR AGNEW'S OINTMENT BEAUTIFIES THE SKIN advertisement. Image of a woman's face. Text: 'Handsome is that handsome does,' is the old theoretical adage, but after all it's the skin-deep beauty that's attractive. It would take a big lot of handsome doing to compensate for a skin that is diseased and whose appearance is distasteful to all who see it, and the torment of the patient whose daily burden it is to bear it about. DR. AGNEW'S OINTMENT is a wonderful cure for all sorts of Skin Diseases—itching, burning, stinging sensations which are accompaniments—tetter, salt rheum, scald head, ring worm, eczema, itch, ulcers, erysipelas, liver spots, and all eruptions of the skin—one application allays the irritation, and perseverance in its use results in a speedy cure. For blind, bleeding, itching, and ulcerating piles it's a magical balm; one application gives comfort and relief in an instant, and in from three to five nights the trouble disappears. Price, 35 cts. A Toronto gentleman, living on Dovercourt Road, spent a small fortune in treatments and remedies for piles in their very worst form, was treated by electricity with temporary relief only, and had decided to go on the operating table and have a surgical operation performed, but was recommended to try Dr. Agnew's Ointment—the intense distress—be persisted in its use and to-day he's rewarded with a cure after years of suffering. DR. AGNEW'S CURE FOR THE HEART—Relieves smothering, palpitation and fluttering. A regular lifesaver in cases of organic heart troubles. Relieves cold in the head in 10 minutes. Cures hay fever and catarrh. DR. AGNEW'S LIVER PILLS—Regulate the bowels. Tone the system. Never gripe. Pleasant little doses. 40 in a vial; 20 cts.

everybody heaved a sigh of relief. The score had been saved the loss of a customer. The filio was 4 cents.—Washington Post.
Not Resourceful.
Miss Footlites—Is Bessie Flies much of an actress?
Miss Tawmenter—Yes and no. She acts well enough, but then she does not possess a particle of tact. She wastes hours in studying her parts, which might be so much more profitably employed in getting up biographical eccentricities for the press.—Boston Transcript.
Very Likely.
Mr. Hogg—Here is some fool says in his paper that women have forgotten how to laugh.
Mrs. Hogg—I guess he means married women.—Cincinnati Enquirer.
He Should Have Brought Them.
A doctor tells a good story in connection with a lad who, until recently, was in his employ. It was part of his duties to answer the surgery bell and to usher the prospective patients into the consulting room. One morning there presented himself at the surgery entrance a mechanic with whom Buttons was on speaking terms.
'Hello, Jackson!' he remarked.
'What's the matter with ye?'
'Oh, I just want to see the doctor,' replied the visitor.
'Have yer brought yer symptoms with yer?' inquired Buttons. 'That's the first thing he'll ask yer about. If ye ain't brought 'em, ye'd better pop back, an get 'em. He won't be down for a quarter of an hour, an he's awful particular about 'em!'
'And would you believe it?' adds the doctor, 'that fellow was actually about to act on the boy's advice when I entered the surgery!'—Pearson's Weekly.
The citizens of Berlin have a summary method of stopping the dangerous practice of carrying sticks and umbrellas horizontally. As soon as a man tucks his umbrella under his arm he will promptly feel a quick blow on it from behind. There is no use in his getting angry with the person who strikes the blow, because public opinion sanctions his conduct.
AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

Heavy Loss Averted.
An extremely well dressed young woman stood before the 'art needlework' counter of one of the dry goods stores in Washington. She was unmistakably tailor made, and her 'scolding locks' were pinned up with a coiled snake of turquoises. Half a dozen times she tried to engage the attention of the saleswoman, who had enough customers waiting to have occupied five saleswomen. Every time the saleswoman responded, 'In a minute I'll wait on you,' and went placidly on attending to the wants of somebody else. The well dressed young woman trembled with impatience.
'These Washington clerks don't understand their business like New York clerks,' she said to her companion. 'A New York clerk can wait on eight people at once.'
'It's outrageous having to wait this way,' said the companion, who wore an owl on her hat.
'It's shameful,' said the first young woman.
'It's perfectly horrid,' said the second.
'The people that keep this store ought to be taught a lesson,' said the first young woman. 'I've a great mind to go somewhere else, I have.'
This terrible threat seemed to move the saleswoman. She rolled her eyes languidly toward the young woman.
'What is it you want?' she asked.
'I want one skein of silver gray fil'.
