A HINT TO THE GOVERNMENT.

Sir,—As our worthy Premier is introducing into this Province all the taxes of over-burdened Europe, and, like Oliver Twist, is asking for more, he will, no doubt, be pleased to receive a hint from the humble admirer of a very few wealthy American tourists still visiting this Island.

AN OPTICAL DELUSION

is a fair sight in the picture. It's certainly an optical delusion to expect to keep your sight fair without the aid of spectacles. It's a dangerous delusion, too, because if there's one thing that the eyes will not stand it's ill treatment and over-taxing.
