

THE DAILY EXAMINER. NOVEMBER 5 1890.

A Successful Islander.

We often hear of "successful" Islanders abroad. Seldom have we heard of one who has scored a more brilliant triumph, in the higher meaning of the word, than he whose true bravery and glorious death have, within the past week, stirred our neighbor city of St. John to its depths.

"A young man on his way to work sees the accident that has befallen the boy, rushes for a life-buoy, slips it over his own shoulder, courageously leaps into the tempest-tossed waters of the bay, leaving the end of the life-line in the hands of two men on the shore. Bravely he breasts the waters, striking out for the sinking child. In time he reaches him, lifts him in his arms, and signals to the men to pull them to land. Alas, through carelessness or oversight, the rope has been allowed to slip from the hands of those to whom it was entrusted, and the swimmer's coil for help falls in vain upon the ears of the assembled crowd that line the embankment.

Efforts are made to launch a boat and put out for the rescue of the brave young man who still gallantly struggles with his helpless burden. A dory is launched, but instantly sinks. A boat is obtained, but is smashed against the wharf. Other efforts are put forth, but no hand is strong enough, no plan is wise enough, no expedition is successful in reaching the young hero who for nearly an hour is tossed and battered by the waves of the bay until, utterly exhausted by the hopeless struggle and despairing of help from the excited and witless crowd on the bank, he goes down beneath the sea. It was a brave attempt—the quick perception of help wanted, the unhesitating resolve to do what he could, the wide presence of mind that thought of the life buoy, the noble pluck with which he sprang at the risk of his life into the water, the heroic struggle to reach and save the object of his attention, the persistent battle with death for one long hour that must have seemed as a day. There is something so splendid about that young man's self-sacrifice that it robs his death of much of its sadness; and whilst the tears of his friends must flow because of their loss, I am sure there is in their hearts a deep gratitude to God that their beloved's death was met in the noble effort to save a fellow's life."

It is proposed in St. John that a public monument shall be raised to the hero of the deed here described. Commenting upon the proposal, the Evening Gazette says:—

"St. John has had its heroes in times past whom it delighted to honor, but none of them have been quite the same calibre as the hero of Courtenay Bay. St. John crowds have shouted themselves hoarse over the prowess of champion oarsmen and baseball players, and it is cheering to find that there are other achievements besides winning a boat race or taking part in a base ball match by which a man can win distinction in this city. Billy O'Rearty, the pitcher of the Bugtown invincibles, may be a greater man than Governor Tilley in the eyes of the shouting multitude who admire his curves, but when a real hero like John Frederick Young appears on the scene his glory becomes dim. There is no man, however ignorant or however deficient in that quality himself, who does not admire a courage, and when that courage is linked, unflinchingly to duty, as was the case with the young hero, whose death we lament, it is proper that our admiration for his brave deed should be expressed in a permanent form."

Notes and Comments.

—There is something grand in the idea of a nation uniting with one accord to give thanks to Almighty God for all the benefits conferred upon the people in the course of the year that has passed. The people of Canada have, undoubtedly, a great deal to be thankful for, and we have no doubt that thankful hearts will be found in every part of Canada—to-morrow.

—A correspondent of the St. John Sun has been travelling through New Brunswick during the year and finds marks of progress everywhere. He says: "St. Stephen and adjacent towns have also grown quite as fast, if not faster than, the towns on the opposite side of the river in Maine. No better evidence of this need be asked of the success of the national policy, and the folly of the cry that we need unrestricted reciprocity with the States to make us prosper as we should."

The Empire remarks that Canadians can always find in the facts the comfort they vainly seek in the Grit organs.

—Advice reach us that the same gang of desperadoes who have been burning and plundering in all directions for years in the vicinity of Edmunds, Prince County, are still at their fiendish work. Three incendiary fires have followed in quick succession during the season in that section. Three unoffending citizens are almost put upon the road as a result, while nobody within a radius of ten miles of the place feels safe. Insurance companies will not insure property there, which adds considerably to the general unrest and dissatisfaction. Only a fortnight ago and Mr. Michael O'Brien went to his bed, happy in the possession of full barns and bursting garner, to awake next morning a poor man, and now it is the blacksmith Mr. M. Brennan, who is the victim. Surely the Government ought to do something to vindicate justice and rid the country of such fiends.

A letter brought from General de Chorette, by the Duke of Orleans, to the Papeal Zouaves announces that the pope is about to give a medal to the Canadians who served in the Papeal army from 1860 to 1870.

"Dreams and Dreamers."

The first of the series of lectures for the season 1890-1891, under the auspices of the Literary Society in connection with St. James' Church was delivered last night by the Rev. David Sutherland, the esteemed and popular pastor of Zion Church. There was not a full house. The chair was occupied by Mr. John Nicholson, the president of the society, who presided over the lecture and gave a short outline of the history of the society from its organization in the year 1884. After the president had concluded his opening remarks, which lasted about fifteen minutes, the Rev. Mr. Sutherland began his lecture on "Dreams and Dreamers," and for nearly an hour kept the attention of the audience. The lecture was devoted almost entirely to explaining the many arguments advanced by scientists and others as to the cause of dreams and the times when they occur. He said that two erroneous theories were held to account for dream phenomena, viz: the natural and the supernatural. The former was the one universally held in ancient times, but physiologists and psychologists in these days attributed them altogether to natural causes, the former in attributing that dreams are dependent on the state of the body, the latter that they are due to a suspension of the will. The powers of the mind, freed from restraint, like untamed steeds whose driver is lost, run riot, and memory and fancy especially revel at pleasure. The proper explanation would, he thought, be found in adopting and harmonizing the views of each of the mind and body both contribute to produce the strange results. Instances were given to show that the time of dreaming is when falling into or waking from profound sleep, and that the duration is marvellously short—events which it would take years to enact passing through the mind in as many seconds. The lecturer, while not believing in dreams as a forerunner of events, gave one extraordinary instance of a dream by a woman whom he knew, which certainly turned out to be a forecast of a calamity. The audience could not but have enjoyed themselves; and, from the attention given, it was evident that they followed the lecturer throughout. At the close, Rev. D. McNeill made a few remarks and a motion for a vote of thanks. The motion was seconded by Mr. John A. Lawson, and carried unanimously. The next lecture of the course will be delivered on the 18th November by the Rev. W. P. Archibald. Subject, John Bright.

Yesterday's Football Match.

DECLARED A DRAW AFTER A SPLENDID GAME—GOOD ORDER AND A LARGE ATTENDANCE OF SPECTATORS.

The football match between the Abegweits and the team from the West Riding Regiment attracted a large number of people to Victoria Park yesterday afternoon. The game throughout was close and exciting. The best of order was maintained during the play. Following is a list of the players:

ABEGWEITS.

Back—Sullivan. Three-quarter Backs—Ings, Percy McDonald, Robinson. Half-Backs—A. B. McDonald, Dr. H. D. Johnson, J. Rundle. Forwards—Hubert McDonald, F. W. L. Moore, John McDonald, A. H. McNeill, J. J. McDonald, C. McKinnon, John Ross, J. F. Wheat.

WEST RIDING TEAM.

Back—Bruce. Three-quarter Backs—Turner (captain), Fraser, Briggs. Half-Backs—Sexton, Jilks. Forwards—Smith, Pelham, Knowles, Denhirst, Haesel, Rodgers, Cassidy, Cunningham, Lecky. The ball was kicked off by the West Riding team, and was promptly returned by the Abegweits. The play was for the most of this half confined to the West Riding part of the field, and the half closed with a scrimmage in the West Riding goal line. In this half Hubert McDonald secured a touch-down, but the try for goal was disallowed on the ground of previous mis-play. Jilks, of the West Riding team, was disabled in this half and had to leave the field. When time was called the Abegweits kicked off, and there was some warm playing about the twenty-five yard line of the West Riding half of the field. Ings, the Abegweits Captain, was disabled early in this half and had to retire. The play was mostly confined to the West Riding end of the field until a free kick was awarded to the West Riding team and they worked the ball down near the Abegweits goal. Time was called during a scrimmage near the Abegweits goal line. In this half Briggs of the West Riding team was temporarily disabled but resumed play towards the end of the game. The game thus resulted in a draw, no points having been gained by either team. On the whole, the game was much in favor of the Abegweits. The play was very warm and fast as will be sufficiently evidenced by the number of disabled. The Abegweits consider the West Riding the strongest team they have yet met and one at whose hands a defeat would be no disgrace. As the team that played against the Abegweits had defeated every team that appeared against them this season, including both the Dalhousie College and Navy teams, the Abegweits did not expect a victory yesterday. Both teams left this morning by the steamer to Pictou. Mr. Higginson, of the West Riding Regiment, was the referee.

The Markets.

A large quantity of produce was marketed in the past week, notwithstanding the stormy weather and the bad roads consequent therefrom. Tuesday was a lively day in Charlottetown; and we hear that numbers of schooners are loading at the outports, some of them bound for the States, notwithstanding the McKinley tariff. Potatoes are in increasing supply at from 18 to 20 cents per bushel; oats rule at 41 cents; pork at from 6 to 6 1/2 cents. Eggs are in very light supply at 15 to 16 cents. The prospect is that there will be a stronger demand for potatoes. Oats in Montreal are quoted at from 40 to 44 cents per bushel as to kind and quality. There is no change to note in the provision market of the neighboring provinces. Hay is in good supply in Montreal at from $5 50 to $9 00 per ton. As to mackerel, the sales in Boston from first hands, have been at $18 to $24 per barrel for Nova Scotia, $18 to $23 for Prince Edward Island.

Supreme Court.

Wednesday, Nov. 5.

The Michaelmas term of the Supreme Court opened yesterday; the Chief Justice and Justices Peters and Hensley on the bench.

John Gaffney vs John E. Yeo—Examination of garnishee or agent of debtor, heard at Summerside, October term, 1890, before the Chief Justice, who now gives judgment refusing the rule for ca sa, or for sale of goods in hands of garnishee.

John M. Nicholson vs. Trustees of Springton School District—Tried Hilary term, 1890. Verdict for the plaintiff for $100. Motion to produce the verdict. The Chief Justice delivers judgment refusing the rule to reduce the verdict. Mr. Justice Hensley concurring but without the costs of the rule.

Harvie vs Aitken—Tried Hilary term, 1890. Verdict for defendant. The Chief Justice now delivers judgment discharging the rule for a new trial.

O'Mullen vs. Joy—Tried at Summerside before Mr. Justice Hensley, without a jury. Judgment for defendant. The Chief Justice delivers judgment discharging the rule for new trial. Mr. Justice Peters concurring. Mr. Justice Hensley concurring.

Corner, appellant, vs. Ashby, respondent.—Appeal from two Justices of the Peace. Appeal allowed on abandonment of prosecution.

Emily Partell, appellant, vs. Daniel W. Henderson, respondent.—Appeal from conviction for violation of the Canada Temperance Act for the sale of hop beer. The appeal was dismissed and conviction affirmed with costs.

Daniel Murphy, appellant, vs. Daniel W. Henderson respondent.—Appeal from conviction for violation of the Canada Temperance Act for the sale of hop-beer. The appellant called but makes default. On motion of Attorney-General the appeal is dismissed with costs.

In re application of Percy W. Carver, for admission to study law.—On petition of applicant and motion of Mr. Davies the Court makes the usual order for examination.

Joseph Taylor, appellant, vs. Donald A. Bruce respondent.—An appeal from judgment of County in garnishee proceedings. The Supreme Court hold that judgment debtor has the right of appeal from judgment of County Court in garnishee proceedings. This case was before the Court at the time of going to press.

Augustine Cove Notes.

The farmers of this locality have their preparations for another crop in an advanced state.

The large quantities of wild geese which assemble at Cumberland Cove every fall, are attracting much attention this season.

Our enterprising young friend, Mr. E. Allen, has a crew of men at work preparing his lobster canning establishment for another season's work.

Mr. Geo. O. Webster has in process of erection a mill for the sawing of lumber. Mr. Webster should receive the patronage his enterprise so well deserves as there is no other mill of the kind within a radius of some five or six miles.

The present system of the mails for Augustine Cove, as well as for Cape Traverse, renders it very inconvenient for the residents—more so, in fact, than the system in operation prior to the one now in practice, as we still have tri-weekly mails—along with the delay occasioned by the present system, which was not experienced in the old Beedeque and Charlottetown route. The train which conveys the mail arrives at Cape Traverse at 7.35 p. m. Ideal time; the mail has then to be sorted by Mr. Strang, and thence forwarded to the different post-offices, which renders it generally 9 o'clock before it reaches Augustine Cove. It is not intended to censure the officials in charge; on the contrary, we believe that Mr. Strang, and our worthy mail-driver, do their duty as far as lies in their power. But what we want is a daily mail, and we consider it only just and fair that we should be entitled to this privilege as well as the neighboring settlements around us, who, as we believe, can boast of this necessary convenience.

KICKER.

Report has it that the "Angelus" has been again sold, this time for 750,000 francs. Bonnets are not the only things that bring high prices because they are in the fashion.

A GRAND ARTICLE.

No More Tough Beef!

AFTER a most careful trial on its merits, we have purchased from Mr. Crabbe, of Toronto, the right for this Province of his "COOKER." We have no hesitation in saying that there should be one in every household. Out of many who have sent us testimonials we insert a few in this issue. For roasting purposes it is unsurpassed; as a baker it cannot be best. Orders left at HARRIS' TIN STORE promptly attended to.

MESSRS. HARRIS & ROSS,—

The "Cooker" I bought from you is a splendid article. For roasting purposes it is unsurpassed. I have much pleasure in recommending it.

MRS. A. J. MURPHY.

MESSRS. HARRIS & ROSS,—

I have given the "Cooker" I got from you a most careful trial. I find it most valuable for roasting beef, etc. I am sure a person once using one would not like to do without it.

MRS. T. J. MORRIS.

MESSRS. HARRIS & ROSS,—

The "Cooker" I got from you is certainly all you claim for it. Meat roasted in it becomes quite tender. There is no shrinkage nor possibility of it burning. I have much pleasure in recommending it. Very truly, P. P. ARCHIBALD, Proprietor Osborne House. nov4—G1
