Plans For Flower Show Being Finalized

Final plans for the second annual flower show which will be held again this year in the Baptist Church hall on Tuesday and Wednesday are just about finalized, according to officials interviewed over the week-end. Indications point to this year's show as another triumph for the ladies of the various committees who have worked so zealously to stage this great local project. They are most enthusiastic regarding the support received from everyone.

Personals

Mr. Cecil Deighan, Irishtown, spent the past weekend at his home at Harlow, Bur.

Mrs. Wilfred Inman and granddaughter Gail returned recently following a pleasant visit in Cape Breton, N. S.
