SUMMERSIDE NEWS

Branch Office—Central Street. WHAT about our watering cart? Mr. Wm. Richard of Biddeford, was a passenger on the boat yesterday morning. The man with the hand organ and "mouk" is with us, likewise the scissor grinder. The schooner Candor, owned by Capt. S. Allan, is lying at Holman's wharf having her main spar replaced. Mrs. THOMAS WALSH and Mr. Thomas Walsh, returned home yesterday morning from a two weeks tour of the province. Mr. JOHN ARBUCKLE, secretary of the Summerside school board, and family have moved to Egmont Bay for the summer months. The tea at Seartown Wednesday was a big success, and a handsome sum was realized. The proceeds will be applied to the new hall at that place. Mr. Geo. Pope formerly of this town, now of Ottawa, who has been on the Island for a few weeks visiting friends, returned yesterday morning by the Northumberland. S. S. PARKER arrived here yesterday morning with heavy cargo of gen. merchandise, including 600 bush potatoes, 400 bush oats, 15 cases eggs, 11 live hogs and sundries. The S. S. Fastnet arrived at this port Wednesday night with a general cargo and 500 lbs beef, 23 cases eggs, 20 bush potatoes, 100 bush oats, 3 seasons $250, 5 cases whisky. Total $13,007. The Boston Citizen of July 2nd, publishes a photograph together with a short sketch of his life, of Mr. W. C. Collett, formerly of this town but now of that city. Mr. Collett is fast becoming famous as an architect in his adopted country. This arrangement for closing the stores at 6 o'clock, during the three summer months, should meet with the ready approval of all. The trading people are quite in sympathy with the arrangement as was evinced last season, and were quite ready to accept the move again this season, but owing to the refusal of two of our business firms to close on time with the rest of the merchants, it has been necessary to break up this arrangement. We hope to see all chime in at once and perpetuate this much appreciated movement. While some boys were enjoying the much needed luxury of a bath in the bri-y waters of Holman's wharf Police-man Gough swooped down upon them and after ordering them to resume their apparel, invited them to attend him to the police station. The boys, although loth to leave the water, obeyed and were duly established in the station, where they were lectured on the beauties of cleanliness, but were admonished not to again swim in that vicinity. After listening to the lecture and promising to attend to the admonition, they were allowed to depart, each being determined not to again tempt the majesty of the law. A PLEASANT event took place Wednesday evening at 8 at the residence of Mr. David McKay, of New London, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Margaret Schurman, daughter of the late Peter Schurman, of Point du Chene, to Mr. Thomas Haacker, of North Bedouque. The Rev. Henry Dickie, B. A., of this town, officiated. Among the presents, which were both elegant and numerous, was a silver tea service, cake baskets, etc. Not the least prominent feature of the evening was the serenade in which almost a hundred of the youth of the vicinity in costumes participated. The GUARDIAN extends congratulations. HOTEL ARRIVALS—Campbell House—J A Perry, Tignish; James Woods, New London; M Delaney, North Tryon, Arch Ramsay, Hamilton; James McIntyre, Montreal.
