

Kensington High School Holds Closing Exercises

Parents, relatives and friends packed the Kensington High School Auditorium on Thursday evening for the commencement exercises when the graduating class and the students of grade 9, 10 and 11 received passing certificates, diplomas and prizes.

Following the student's procession and the singing of O Canada, Mr. Ronald Kennedy as chairman called on the principal, Mr. Thomas Hall, B.S., B.Ed., for his report on the year's work. Mr. Hall reviewed the many student activities carried out successfully. He expressed appreciation of the cooperation received from the School Board, the teaching staff, the janitors, the Home and School Association and others during his three years as principal, and wished the students every success in their work. Mr. Hall has accepted a professorship at Acadia University.

In the unavoidable absence of His Worship Mayor Everett Champion, the chairman made the presentations of diplomas and prizes.

In addition to the prizes listed, a prize of $20 donated by the Knights of Columbus was presented to Miss Margaret Walker by Mr. Austin Pendergast. This competition, inaugurated this year and to be open annually to all high schools in the province offers three prizes, 1st, $50, 2nd $30 and 3rd $20, for an essay, the subject of which was 'My Duties and Responsibilities as a Citizen'. Water Safety prizes were presented to Barbara Jay-Bronze Medalion; Norma Profit 1st Bar to Bronze; Elizabeth Ramsay, 2nd Bar to Bronze.

Rev. L.M. Murray received a presentation from the district for his assistance with the school music. Mention was also made of the untiring efforts in the interest of the school of the retiring trustee, Mr. Austin Pendergast who has served six years on the school board.
