IN MEMORIAM

CHAMPION—In loving memory of a loving husband and dear father, James H. Champion, who departed this life March 24th, 1947.

Ever remembered by wife Ethel and daughters Laura and Charlotte.

CHAMPION — In loving memory of our parents, Mrs. Edward Champion who passed away Feb. 10 1933 at age 52 yrs and Edward Champion who passed away March 24, 1943 at age 62 years Sadly missed but fondly remembered by members of the family.

GARNHUM — In loving memory of Donald L. Garnhum.
This day we do remember
A loving thought we give
To one no longer with us
But in our hearts still lives.
Remembered by Clair Smith and Paul Weatherbie.

GARNHUM—In loving memory of Donald Lloyd Garnhum, who passed away on March 23, 1956.
God gave us strength to take it
And courage to bear the blow.
But what it meant to lose him,
No one will ever know.
Always remembered by his mother, father, sisters and brother.

GARNHUM —In loving memory of Donald Lloyd Garnhum who passed away on March 23, 1956.
God gave us the strength, to face it,
The courage to bear the blow,
But what it meant to lose him,
No one will ever know.
Always remembered by mother, father, sisters and brothers.

FISHER—In fond and loving memory of Joseph H. Fisher, who passed away six years ago today.
Joe you are not forgotten
Though on earth you are no more
Still in memory you are with us,
As you always were before.
Sadly missed and fondly remembered by his wife Florence, Helen, Paul, Mother and brother.

FORD—In loving memory of our darling baby, William Ivan Ford, who passed away March 24, 1957.
Jesus has taken a beautiful bud
Out of our garden of love
When he took our dear little baby
Home to the angels above.
Sadly missed and always remembered by dad, mother, brothers and sisters.

MAHAR—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Mary Mahar who passed away on March 22, 1955.
A little tribute true and tender,
Just to show we still remember
Dear is her memory, sweet is her name,
Deep in our hearts, she will always remain.
Always remembered and sadly missed by daughter Dottie and two grandchildren.

VESSEY — In loving memory of my pop, Mr. Herbert R. Vessey, who passed away March 24, 1957.
His dear bright eyes and cheerful face are pleasant to recall
He had a loving word for each
And died beloved by all.
Ever remembered by daughter Roma, Vancouver, B. C.

IN MEMORIAM

LEMUEL MacLEAN

There passed away at the P.E. Island Hospital, Charlottetown, on February 18th, 1958, Lemuel MacLean of Little Sands. Mr. MacLean was born at Little Sands September 25th, 1899, son of the late Mr. Malcolm MacLean and Mrs. MacLean (nee Annie Younker).

Almost all his life he lived on the farm where he was born. For the past few years, he has had periods of indifferent health, and he bore his illness with cheerfulness and patience. A few weeks before his death he entered the hospital for treatment and on the above date past away.

The late Mr. MacLean was of a kindly and quiet nature, a splendid neighbour and one who contributed to every worthy cause in the community.

He is survived by his widow, (nee Myrtle Munn); and two sons Malcolm and Floyd both at home, two brothers Harold A. and Edward both of Brookline, Mass.; and four sisters (Helen) Mrs. Harold Bower; (Victoria) Mrs. Milton Reynolds; (Alexendra), Mrs. Malcolm A. Stewart, all of Brookline, Mass; and (Mary), Mrs. Angus M. Stewart, High Bank.

The brothers and sisters from Massachusetts arrived home to attend his funeral which was held on Friday, the 21st inst. After a brief service at his home the remains were removed to the United Church, where his pastor Rev. L. S. Woolfrey, conducted the service and brought a message of hope and comfort to the bereaved family. The service in the church was very largely attended.

The following acted as pallbearers, Messrs Malcolm Livingstone, George M. Blue, Malcolm A. MacKenzie, Carleton Hume, Edwin MacKenzie and Neil D. MacNeill.

Rev. Mr. Woolfrey conducted the service at the grave. He was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to sincerly thank Dr. Stewart MacDonald, Dr. T. A. Laidlaw, nurses of the P.E.I. Hospital. To the friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness; the operators of the Government snow plows who opened the road to the Cemetery and cleaned the church yard of snow; for flowers, cards and letters of sympathy, we can only thank you for your help in our sad bereavement.

Mrs. MacLean and sons.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. E.N. COMPTON

A host of friends in Prince County were shocked and saddened, when the word was received of the passing in the early hours of Friday morning, March 14th, of Mrs. Ernest N. Compton (nee Virginia Gertrude Mills) in her 82nd year.

Born in St. Eleanors the oldest daughter of Hubert Mills and his wife Mary Jane Tanton, she lived there all her life, attending the village school.

On September 16th, 1896, she married Ernest Newman Compton and went to reside on one of the Compton homesteads about a mile from where she was born. In Sept, 1946, they celebrated their Golden Wedding the following May 11th, 1947, her husband passed away at the age of 87 years.

After his death she resided for a time with her youngest daughter. Later she went to live for a time with the other daughter, but for the past two years owing to the death of his wife, she lived and kept house for her youngest son.

Of a kind and living nature she was always thinking of someone else and never missed a chance to give a helping hand to any and all about her.

She leaves to mourn the loss of a wonderful mother, two sons and two daughters, Holden Roy on the homestead; Creelman Davis in St. Eleanors, Marie, Mrs. Bert Brown, and the youngest, Jean, Mrs. Paul Kristiansen, both of St. Eleanors.

She is survived also by thirteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren, two brothers, Arthur Mills, Spaulding, Sask.; and Earle Mills, Peterborough, Ont.; also three sisters, Mrs. Margaret MacCallum and Jessie Mrs Reubin Robbles of St. Eleanors, and Mrs. Ada MacLeod, Spaulding, Sask.

Two brothers Ben and Ernest and three sisters Lucy, Annie and Daisy predeceased her. She also leaves a large number of nieces and nephews and a lot of younger people in and about the village, although almost no relation, who lovingly called her Grandma.

The funeral which was very largely attended considering the bad roads, took place from The Compton Funeral Home Monday at 2 p.m. to St. Johns Anglican Church St. Eleanors. Hymns sung were "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Abide With Me."

The pallbearers were Edwin Bernard, Edmond Compton, Lorne Beaton, Compton Muirhead, Kenneth Mills and Hubert Muirhead. Interment in the church cemetery.

A lifelong member of the Anglican Church her pastor visited her during her last illness and was with her only the evening before she passed away.

The large funeral, the bank of beautiful flowers and sympathy cards were silent testimony of the respect and affection of the whole community for Grandma.

IN MEMORIAM

VICTOR S. MacWILLIAMS

There passed away February 11th, 1958, at 106 Hillsboro Street, Charlottetown, Victor S. MacWilliams in his 82nd year. Although in failing health for some time, his passing was a great shock to his many friends and loved ones.

Born at Sherwood, P.E.I., on January 16th, 1877, son of Jonathan and Margaret MacPhail Mac Williams, he engaged in farming for many years, until ill health forced him to retire, when he sold his farm in East Royalty, leaving many who will remember him as a true friend and neighbour.

He is survived by his wife, the former Nettie Bowman of Central Royalty, two sons. Morley of Toronto and Norman of Edmonton, also two daughters Marion, Mrs. Roy White, Souris, and Mildred, Mrs. J.F. Trainor, Johnsons River; one daughter passed away in 1917. His brother, Stafford, of Youngs Cove, N.B., and a sister, Frances, of Darien, Connecticut of a family of nine alone survive.

His funeral took place February 14th, from the MacLean Funeral Home, and was conducted by his minister, the Reverend Harold Brown, of whose church he was a member, and who frequetly visited him in his illness. He was assisted by the Reverend Donald Sharpe of Souris. The hymns sung were, "Son of My Soul," and 'Rock of Ages." Many beautiful flowers testified to the esteem of the deceased. He was tenderly laid to rest in the family plot in Sherwood Cemetery, by six of his former neighbours.

The service at the graveside was conducted by the Reverend Harold Brown, and Reverend Donald Sharpe. The following were pallbearers. Col. F.I. Andrew, The Hon. Eugene Cullen, William Wheatley, Wilfred Holmes, Walter Heartz and John Walsh.

CARD OF THANKS

The wife and family of the late Victor S. MacWilliams wish to thank their friends, for the many acts of kindness to them, and all who sent flowers, cards, and messages of sympathy.

TOWNSEND L. MacNEILL

On December 23, Mr. Townsend L. MacNeill, a highly respected resident of North Rustico, passed to his eternal reward in Prince Edward Island Hospital, after a brief illness. He was of a quiet and cheerful personality, beloved by all, and will be remembered by those who had the privilege to know him.

The deceased, who was the son of William A. and Bessie (Donald) MacNeill, was born in Cavendish in 1878. On June 30, 1903, he married Annie V. MacLure of North Rustico who predeceased him on April 13, 1954.

Left to mourn the loss are a son, Reginald B. of North Rustico, a daughter, Jennie (Mrs. William Stevenson) of North Rustico and seven grandchildren, also a sister, Ruth (Mrs. Frank Ramsay) of New London, a brother Mr. Alvah J. MacNeill, of Cavendish. A sister, Sadie, (Mrs. Wilfred Campbell) predeceased.

The funeral which was held on December 24, from his late residence, was largely attended, signifying the esteem with which the deceased was held. His minister, Rev. Paul Richardson assisted by Rev. E.A.C. Haley conducted the service. Mr. William A. Andrew rendered very effectively, "Face to Face". Other hymns sung were "Abide With Me" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus".

The pallbearers were Messrs W.R. LePage, John Doyle, Clive MacNeill, Rudolph Fleming, Quinten Court, Urban Doiron.

Beautiful floral tributes bore silent expression of love and sympathy from relatives and friends. Interment was in the Cavendish cemetery.

God knows how much we miss him,
He counts the tears we shed
And whispers "Hush" he only sleeps
Our dear one is not dead.

Some day, some time, our eyes shall see,
The face we loved so well
Some day, sometime, his hand we'll clasp
And never say, "Farewell".

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Townsend L. MacNeill wish to expres their sincere appreciation to their kind friends and relatives for the many acts of kindness in their recent sad bereavement and to all that sent cards and expressions of sympathy.

IN MEMORIAM

GEORGE D. ADAMS

The sudden death of George D. Adams of Summerside in his 48th year occurred at the Prince County Hospital on February 22, following a heart attack.

The deceased was born in West Devon on December 13, 1910, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Adams. He had lived in Summerside for the past 30 years.

He leaves to mourn his sorrowing wife, the former Bertha MacNeill of Summerside, also six brothers and four sisters.

They are: James, of Portland, Maine; John, of Brunswick, Maine; Bernard, of Ellerslie; Austin, of Summerside; Leroy of Summerside; Edward, of West Devon; Ella, Mrs. Russell Wagner, of Conway; Alice, Mrs. Ernest Campbell, of Mount Pleasant; Janie, Mrs. Wesley Wagner, of Brantford, Ontario; and Jessie, Mrs. Hiblert MacNevin, of Charlottetown.

The funeral was largely attended on Tuesday. February 25th, from the Bowness Funeral Home, with service conducted by Rev. Keith Hobson. Interment was in the Peoples Cemetery.

Pall bearers were six nephews: James Wagner, Ivan Campbell, Reginald MacNevin, George Adams, Wesley Adams, and Edward Adams, Junior.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. DANIEL DIXON

There passed peacefully away at the Prince Edward Island Hospital on February 13th, 1958, Mrs. Daniel Dixon (nee Belle MacKinnon) of Breadalbane in her 74th year.

Daughter of the late John and Mary (MacLean) MacKinnon of Rose Valley, she was a twin in a family of thirteen children of which one sister survives, she is Mrs. H.J. MacLean of Clyde River, P.E.I.

Although in failing health the past several years she was able to be up and about until stricken suddenly on the morning of February 1st. She was taken by ambulance to the hospital where her condition gradually weakend and she passed away on the abov mentioned date.

She leaves to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother, her husband and two daughters, Katherine (Mrs. James Craig) Breadalbane, Florence (Mrs. Lincoln MacRae, Glasgow Road, also eight grandchildren.

Frequently visited by her pastor, Rev. J.H. Bishop, she expressed her joy and peace in the Savior, who died for her.

The funeral was from the Free Church of Scotland, Charlottetown Rev. J.H. Bishop conducted the service. Scripture reading was from John 14th chapter, the text, a favorite, was John 3.16. Psalms sung were "The Lord is My Shepherd", and "Unto the Hills Around".

The pallbearers were J.W. MacKenzie, Colin Matheson, Cuyler Matheson, Lorne Cousins, Sterling Nicholson and Allan Hickox.

Interment was in the Breadalbane Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Daniel Dixon wish to thank those who sent flowers, messages of sympathy and helped in so many ways during our recent bereavement.

IN MEMORIAM

HUGH MacPHEE

On Friday morning, February 14th, 1958, there passed suddenly into rest at his home in Canoe Cove after an illness of only a few days. Hugh MacPhee in his 80th year.

He was the son of the late Archibald MacPhee and his wife, Mary MacKay. He was born in 1873 on the farm on which he spent all his life on the goodly acres which he carefully and intellegently tilled. In 1906 he married Annie Inman and in 1956, they celebrated their golden wedding.

Besides his sorrowing widow he leaves the following sons and daughters, Mary Jane (Mrs. Cecil E. Cook) Waltham, Mass. Ray on the old homestead; Florence (Mrs. Wm. Potts) Argyle Shore; Clara, (Mrs. Robert MacQuarrie) Bonshaw; Dan of Canoe Cove. Catherine (Mrs. Wilbert MacPhail) predeceased him in 1947. Also left are 19 grandchildren.

The funeral service which was largely attended was held in Canoe Cove church on February 17th Rev. G. Killen conducted the service assisted by Rev. D. Nicholson, a former pastor. Interment was in the church cemetery.

The pallbearers were Neil Darrach, Dan MacNevin, Lauchie MacKinnon, Mack MacFadyen, James MacKenzie and James MacDonald.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to all our kind friends and neighbours who helped in any way during our recent bereavement; all those who sent cards and letters of sympathy; also Mr. Arnold MacDonald for his services with the snow plow, a special thank you.

Mrs. Hugh MacPhee and family.

Polio Kills Ont. Executive

TORONTO (CP) — Terence Blackwood Martin, 44, prominent business executive, died in hospital here Friday of poliomyelitis believed to have been contracted on a recent trip to New Mexico.

Mr. Martin, who lived in nearby Oakville, is the second Oakville man to die this week of polio which may have been picked up outside Canada. A 28-year-old man died earlier.

Born in Hamilton, Mr. Martin graduated from Royal Military College at Kingston, Ont., in 1935 and went overseas with the First Canadian Division at the out break of the Second World War He left the service as a major.

He was president of a Toronto oil burner manufacturing and distributing firm and vice-president of Aviation Developments (Canada) Limited. His wife and five children survive.
