INTRAMURALS

THIS WEEK

IN SPORTS

by CIMN Travelling News

Much enthusiasm and participation were displayed last week in the Women's section of Intramurals. Broomball games saw Bernie 3 defeating Bernie 2 by a score of 3-1, and Bernie 1 and Daze Students finishing in a 0-0 tie. Bernie 2 was very anxious to play broomball, but the girls should have read the schedule more closely. General announcements over the P.A. do not always convey the truth. A misunderstanding by Kim Williams of Bernie 2 caused her team to show up one night in advance for their game. Oh well, they should have stayed and practised!

In basketball action, a case of the "notshow-upsies" occurred twice; once by Bernie 2 and once by Daze Students, led by Carolyn Drake, attempted to take on the 6 players from Blanchard Hall. Carolyn needed a little extra help but, unfortunately, no more blue sweaters showed up. Tough break, Carolyn! You could probably have beaten them with your talent and their lack of it!

Bernie 1 trounced Bernie 2 in the other diseased game. Failure on Bernie 2's part to show up gave Bernie 1 the automatic win. But, don't despair! Bernie 1 with 9 players, split 5-4 and played 25 rounds of four on four, the one half with Sharon Nicholson, Darlene Greenan, Elizabeth MacNeil, and Nancy Gallant, but (typical Islander!) bet their opponents 20-10. High scorer for the game was Montague's Sharon Nicholson.

Next week (all next week) marks the beginning of the Christmas Broomball and Basketball Tournay sponsored by the Intramural Director himself, Vincent Mulligan. Sudden death play-off games will see Bernadine Teams, Blanchard, and Daze Students fight for top spots in this Intramural Tournay.

Favors for the tournay (for those favors, see Angela Johnson) are Bernie 2 for Basketball (the gym will be moved to Bernadine or they can never find it) and Blanchard Hall for Broomball (helmets must be worn).

This tournay will signify the end of first semester sports. Even if you haven't played all semester, come out and then you'll know why you never came before! Good luck to all the teams! Joke of the week: Bernie 2 to win the Basketball Christmas Tournay.

Prediction of the Week: The Girl's Field Hockey Team to challenge an All Star Intramural Broomball Team in a game of Broomball.

See ya later. P.S. Thanks a lot!
