Nova Scotia's Importance

AS A NAVAL STATION AND COAL DEPOT—FOR PROTECTING THE GREATEST FISHERIES IN THE WORLD, AND THE GREATEST LINE OF FOOD TRAFFIC IN THE WORLD.

George R. Parkin, head master of the collegiate school, Fredericton, N. B., arrived in the city last night. He was met by a Herald reporter, and in reply to a question said he was here studying the Imperial federation question from a Halifax aspect.

"How was your special mission organized, Mr. Parkin?"

He replied: "The Victoria and Tasmanian leagues invited me, when in England last summer, to go to the Australias and discuss the question in their large cities. Since I accepted this, the Imperial federation league of Canada has asked me to discuss the question in Canada before going to Australia; and I am myself exceedingly anxious to get the fullest command possible of Canadian ideas upon the subject, so that I may fully represent them in Australia. The relation of Nova Scotia to the Imperial federation movement is so very important that I had wished to spend a considerable time here studying the question. But having found that it is necessary to leave San Francisco at an earlier date than I expected, and having to fill several engagements in Ontario, I find I will only be able to spend one day here."

"What makes Nova Scotia's relations to the Imperial federation question of such critical importance in your opinion?"

"Her geographical position, and the fact that she possesses the best naval stations and the only coal deposits on the Atlantic coast. These circumstances must give her the almost absolute command of the North Atlantic; and therefore her imperial importance for protecting the greatest fisheries in the world, and the greatest line of food traffic in the world cannot be over estimated. In any scheme of Imperial federation, enormous importance would attach to the development and protection of stations like Halifax and Sydney. And if the empire held the exclusive use of these, no other great power could pretend to hold a place beside Britain in the North Atlantic. For Britain this is a vital point, as she is so largely dependent on external resources for the food of her dense population, and from the European source of which she would be largely cut off, in case of a great war, and therefore dependent upon America.

"Do you think that Nova Scotia's advantage lies in the direction of Imperial Federation?"

"Unquestionably. No future that the Atlantic ports of Canada could have would be so great as that given by a great national effort to draw closer commercial and political relations between Britain and Canada, because they are the national outlet of the great population growing up in the west. Fast steam service with Britain, cheap telegraph communication and the stream of travel, which this involves, and the growing trade between the two countries must all build up the cities of the Atlantic coast more than anything else could."

"I want to get the fullest information about Nova Scotia's resources for supplying coaling stations and for commercial purposes, to assist me in discussing the federation problem. And I also wish to see as many leading men as possible and ascertain their views as to the direction in which the Imperial Federation question could fairly be pressed. There is no doubt that if any part of the Empire has an interest in the federation question Nova Scotia has; and from what I have seen of the utterances of many public men here, I believe this fact is fully realized."

"You have been in England this summer?"

"Yes, and the growth of the federation idea there during the last few years is one of the most remarkable features that one observes in the development of public feeling. Great numbers of influential people undoubtedly look upon it as the greatest question of the future both for England and the colonies. But there is a decided feeling that further impulse toward federation ought now to come from the colonies themselves. It is this which makes such a mission as the present one, which has come spontaneously from the colonies, of such public interest."

Rabbit Poaching Condemned.

A correspondent writing from Souris says that much dissatisfaction, amounting to positive indignation, prevails among the suburban settlers of that place, in consequence of the repeated raids made by Souris rabbit poachers upon their territory. The snaring of rabbits has always been, during winter months, a source of amusement as well as a source of dainty food supply to the people living upon the outskirts of Souris village; but this season the amusement or business of snaring rabbits has, owing to the cause above stated, been attended with very little amusement or profit. It is not, of course, alleged that many rabbits are actually killed by the Souris sportsmen, (in fact it is triumphantly stated that only one rabbit has been brought to Souris this winter, and that specimen bore unmistakable evidence of having come to its death by strangulation), but the real grievance is that the worry and excitement occasioned by their sportsmen with their dogs and guns make these timid little animals wild and unsnarable. If the Souris huntsman would only leave their dogs at home, no trouble would be apprehended, nor would the supply of rabbits diminish in a very marked degree. But the dogs do the mischief, and threats are freely indulged in by these injured people, which do not altogether predict a remarkable instance of longevity in the case of a certain dog named "Riel," should he ever again be found in rabbit precincts.

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for woman's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhœa, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."

"Favorite Prescription," when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00.
