MacPHERSON—In loving memory of Mrs. D.H. MacPherson, who passed away Feb. 23, 1953.
Each day our memory wanders
To a grave not far away,
Where we laid our dear one
Five years ago today.
Lovingly remembered by husband and family.

FORD—In loving memory of a mother, Mrs. Joseph Ford, who departed this life, Feb. 24, 1953.
We do not forget you, nor do we intend
We think of you often and will to the end,
Gone, and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you ever will be.
Ever remembered by the family.

McGUIGAN—In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Shirley McGuigan, Iona, who died Feb. 23 1943.
A little tribute true and tender
Just to show that we remember
Dear is her memory, sweet is her name
Deep in our hearts she will always remain.
Always remembered by mother, father, sister, brothers.

HIGGINBOTHAM — In loving memory of my mother Mrs. Alfred Higginbotham, who was killed suddenly February 24th, 1956.
Today our thoughts they all go back
To just two years ago
When our smiles were turned to tears
By a sad and bitter blow.

We often sit and think of you
And talk of how you died
And to think mom, you could not say goodby.
Before you closed your eyes.
Fondly remembered and sadly missed by daughter and son-in-law, Betty and Ward Thompson and grandchildren, Danny, Donald and Kier.

HIGGINBOTHAM — In loving memory of my wife, Mrs. Alfred Higginbotham, who was killed suddenly February 24th, 1956.
A precious one from me is gone
The voice I loved is still,
Her chair is vacant in our home,
No one will ever fill.

I have lost a real companion,
A life linked with my own,
And day by day I miss you more
As I walk through life alone.

Looking back with memories,
Along the path we trod,
I bless the years I had with you
And leave the rest to God.

At night when all is silent
And sleep forsakes my eyes,
My thoughts are on a lonely grave
Where my dear wife lies.
Fondly remembered and sadly missed by husband Alfred.

LONDON (Reuters)—A Chinese bride-to-be who said "no" until her prospective English mother-in-law said "yes" arrived in Britain Tuesday to be married.

She is Miss Helen Man Ching Han, who met Cpl. Charles Blunden, 29, while he was serving in the Far East with the RAF.

Before leaving Hong Kong for home six months ago, he asked her to marry him. She refused until she was sure his mother would welcome her. When she received a letter from the mother she sailed for England.

IN MEMORIAM

WILLIAM GILLIS

In the midst of life we are in death. These words were never more applicably spoken than when word was received that William Gillis had been instantly killed as the result of a car accident which occurred at Nanaimo, B.C., on New Year's Eve.

Billy, as he was familiarly known was well liked and highly esteemed by all who knew him, a good neighbour and friend always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need as was true on the night of the fatality.

He had just stepped out of the car to help another who was stranded when a third car happened along and due to icy conditions on the pavement the driver was unable to avoid striking the bystanders thus causing two fatalities.

Born in Upper Montague on June 20th, 1919, he resided there until 1941 when he joined the R.C.A.F. After his basic training he was posted to the Middle East where he served until the end of the war. He then purchased a farm at Victoria Cross where he resided until one year ago when he and his family moved to Nanaimo, B.C.

He is survived by his wife and four children Carol 10, David 9, Betty 8, Pamela 6. Also left to mourn are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gillis, Kinross, four brothers, namely Donald, Charlottetown, Archie, New Glasgow, N.S., Roy, Montague and Jack, Montreal, P.Q. A sister Sadie, predeceased him in 1934, also a brother Gordon in 1947.

His funeral which was held on January 10th, was conducted by Rev. Fred MacKinnon, assisted by Rev. A.S. Weir.

A short service was held at the home of Mr. Ernest Shaw, Uigg, thence to the Valleyfield United Church, where a host of friends from far and near assembled to pay their last respects to one whom they loved so well. Rev. Mr. MacKinnon chose for his text 1st Samuel, Ch. 20, verse 3. "There is but a step between me and death."

The Valleyfield choir assisted by Trinity United Church choir, Montague, sang the following selections. The Lord's My Shepherd and "Nearer My God To Thee." A solo, "Farther Along" was beautiful rendered by Mr. Lloyd Martin.

The pallbearers were Duncan MacKenzie, Mack MacKenzie, Johnnie MacPhee, Emmet Power, Billy Naddy and Stirling MacDonald.

Flower-bearers were Billy Hicken, Donald MacLeod, Charlie MacKinnon, Sandy Dawson, Buddy MacLeod, Norman MacLeod, Stewart Adams, Jack Campbell, Nat Campbell, Wilbur Naddy, Sinclair MacTavish.

The Montague Branch of the Canadian Legion attended in a body. A short service at the grave was conducted by Judge J.S. DeRoches and the last post was sounded by comrade George Boudreault. Interment took place in the family plot in Valleyfield Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN E. POOLE

After having suffered a broken hip some six weeks previous, Mr. John E. Poole of Montague, P.E.I., passed away on December 10th, 1957, in his 89th year at the Kings County Memorial Hospital, Montague. Up until that time Mr. Poole had been in extra good health, in full possession of all his faculties.

Mr. Poole was born in Montague in 1869. After having been in Boston and out west for a number of years he returned to Montague where he resided for the rest of his life. Having farmed for sometime at Lower Montague, he then worked at MacLeod and MacGregor's; after which he operated a meat business with his son, Emery, for a number of years.

He was twice married, first to Eva Dewar, who died some two years after their marriage; and then to Sophia MacRae, who passed away nine years ago.

Mr. Poole leaves to mourn his passing his daughter Gladys, at home, his son, Lowell, of Montague, and two other sons, Arthur and Lloyd, in western Canada. Two sons predeceased him, Russell and Emery.

The funeral service was held from the Montague church of Christ, with interment in the Lower Montague cemetery. A large number of people attended the services, paying their last respects to their friend and neighbour.

Mr. Kenneth T. Norris conducted the service, speaking on the comforting text, John 14: 1-2. "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you." The hymns sung by the choir were the same as those sung at the funerals of his son, Emery, and his wife, Sophia. They were "The Lord is My Shepherd," and "Tread Softly." Mrs. Kenneth Norris sang, "The Christian's Goodnight."

The pallbearers were: Dan Campbell, Leonard Campbell, R. W. Beck, Raymond Dewar, Russell MacGregor and Lloyd Keith.

The flowers and numerous sympathy cards and letters received bore evidence of the high esteem in which the departed was held, both at home and abroad.

The sympathy of the entire community is expressed to the bereaved.

"Calm is thy slumber, as an infant's sleep,
But thou shalt wake no more to toil and weep.
Thine is a perfect rest, secure and deep.
Goodnight, Goodnight, Goodnight."

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. EVA INCE

There is no death, the stars go down
To rise upon some fairer shore;
And bright in Heaven's Jeweled crown,
They shine forever more."

The home of Mr. Clifton C. Ince was sorely and suddenly darkened by the great loss of his young and beloved wife, whom God called to her eternal rest at an early age, and adjacent communities have seldom been called upon to mourn a death that has brought such widespread grief and sorrow to so many hearts.

Eva (as she was commonly called) was greatly beloved in the home, Church and community in which she resided, but also in the widespread communities, where she gave unsparingly of her talents as a teacher in the Public Schools of our Province. In these various spheres she contributed abundatly of a delightful and contagious personality. Nearing the bounds of life, Mrs. Ince expressed to her husband, her love of home, her enjoyment of life, and the faithful services efficiently rendered, "and now", she said, "I know where I am going." Now she has gone to be loved forever. She is not lost, but gone before! And with the morn those angel faces smile, which we have loved long since and lost awhile.

In the Church, and her various societies, and in the Women's Institute, a keen loss has been sustained, for she endeared herself to all by her sunny and affectionate disposition. No higher tribute can be paid than this, she made life happier for all who knew her.

In the fullness and bloom of young womanhood, when life's happy doors were open, and when it seemed she had everything to live for, she was suddenly taken ill, and notwithstanding all that Medical and Hospital care could do, God at last had thought it best to take her home with Him to rest. As calmly and quietly as she lived, she entered that rest that remaineth for the children of God, to be forever with her Saviour and Redeemer.

Besides her grief-stricken and aged parents, she leaves to mourn her death, her beloved husband, and a sister, Mrs. Bessie Bell of Ottawa, Ont., who was present previous to her sister Eva's death and also at the funeral services held at Hampton United Church, where a great concourse of sympathic relatives from far and near assembled to contribute final tributes of affection and respect, and to share the sorrow and grief of this esteemed family.

In the absence of the Church Pastor, the service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Earle of Tryon United Church, who brought a comforting message, and a fitting tribute to the deceased. The hymns sung were: "Unto the hills around do I lift up my longing eyes," and "Abide With Me" lead by the Church Choir and organist. "That Beautiful Land," was effectively rendered by the Male quartette, i.e. Stephen MacLeod, Daniel MacPhee, Hector MacNevin and Roy Dawson, under the direction of Dr. Peter MacDonald. Pallbearers were: Melville Bell, Russell MacLean, Edwin Bell, Russell Ferguson, David Holm and Manford Beer.

Interment was made in Crapaud Cemetery, under the direction of Mr. Heath Chisholm., Undertaker.

We have been richer by her presence, and now feel that the words of an esteemed gentleman expressed for an esteemed friend whose sudden passing he mourned, is quite applicable to the departed and highly respected resident of DeSable.

Life's race well run,
Life's work well done;
Life's crown well won,
Now comes rest."

N. Y. Stock Prices Decline On Small Volume For Week

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market declined last week on the smallest volume since the week ended last Oct. 5. It was the market's second consecutive weekly dip.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell $1.70 to $159.30.

Turnover for the week was only 9,201,349 shares, for a daily average of 1,840,269 shares.

The economic and corporate news remained spotty. Two big items of news were exploded in Wall Street and these should have had a bullish effect, according to advance dope, but they didn't.

One was the long hoped for reduction in the reserve requirements of federal reserve banks, and anti-recession move making possible a theoretical expansion of about $3,000,000,000 in available bank credit.

The other was a jump in the "short interest" to its highest point in 26 years.

More than 1,000,000 short sales were added to the totals as of a month ago. This was a huge addition to the number of shares borrowed with the hope of buying them back later at a lower price. Since it provides a buying "floor" under declining prices, a rise in the short interest is viewed as a sign of technical market strength.

Both these news items came on Wednesday after the close. Early on Thursday there was a moderate rise, aided by some short covering. But there was no follow-through. The market was lower at the close. Wall Streeters said the drop in reserve requirements was "too little and too late."
