A COMPOSITOR'S FAREWELL TO HIS LAMP, ON THE INTRODUCTION OF GAS LIGHT.

(BY A CHARLOTTONIAN.)

"Shine, shine forever, glorious flame,
Divinest gift of gods to men!
From Greece thy earliest splendor came,
To Greece thy rays return again."—MOORE.

Old Lamp, farewell! There was a time, indeed,
When I had little thought of speaking so;
But Progress sweeps along with lightning speed,
And I, of course, must with the current go,
And must, with pain, subscribe to the new creed,—
(To say I fault it, would make man my foe),—
Must say, that you, my lamp, my light, my guide,
Ought, long ere this, to have been cast aside!

I will say so; but know 'twas not thy sin
If no bright radience from thy face shone out
When filth corroded thy fair heart within!
And if (forgive me now!) I once did doubt
Thy willingness to please, and raised a din,
And at thy modest, beaming face did scout,—
'Twas not thy fault old lamp—ah, no!—not thine!
Thy stomach ached for food,—the fault was mine!

Old lamp, I know thee well! When thou wert young
Thy shining face was pleasing to my view,
And darkness vanished at thy smile. Among
The cobwebs, dim, your brightest beams you threw,
As just above my nose serene you hung,
And scorched all silly moths who came to woo
The warmth and brightness of thy sparkling eyes!
(Bright eyes some men have scorched, as well as flies!)

Dost thou remember, lamp, long nights gone by,
When I "set up" in thy bright company,
Those pensive tales o'er which young maidens cry,
And which, at times, drew e'en a sigh from me?
And when the clock told Ten, how loath was I
From thy bright presence even then to flee?
O, I did love to linger near thy ray,
And court thy smile, when I had loafed by day!

Thou wert a kind old lamp! When work was "lean,"
And I, with rueful face, lamented sore,
Thou heard'st, with aching heart, my tale, I ween,
And o'er my Case didst precious ointment pour!
Yea, your own heart's blood—your oil, I mean—
Came trickling from your warm heart's inmost core,
Which made, in literal sense, the "leanest matter"
I ever "set," considerably fatter.

Farewell old lamp! Improvement has been here,
And placed his lanky, hollow "fixins" where
In modesty you hung full many a year.
Peace to thy shade! Thou'st had, I think, thy share
Of praise and censure, and must disappear,
And be replaced by things whose brilliant glare
Makes aged spiders from their dens peep out
And ask young Spiderdom what we'er about.

This is an age that's new—old things have fled—
And foolish men despise thee for thine age,
Forgetting, in their pride, that thou hast shed
Much light on many a hieroglyphic page,
Which but for thee would never have been read,—
And let this thought thy bitterness assuage.
Thy many virtues 'twould take long to tell,—
I cannot linger more,—Farewell, old lamp, farewell!

VARIETIES.

VALUABLE PRESENTS.—The New York Mirror, speaking of New Year's presents, says:—"The best thing to give your enemy is forgiveness; to your opponent, tolerance; to a friend, your heart; to your children, a good example; to your father, deference; to your mother, conduct that makes her proud of you; to yourself, respect; to all men, charity; to God, obedience."

EXPENSIVE ADVERTISING.—The price for advertising in the New York Weekly Tribune, is fifty cents a line. The circulation of that paper now amounts to 100,000 copies.

EXTRAORDINARY ECLIPSE.—According to the almanacs, there is to be an extraordinary eclipse of the sun on the 26th of May next. It will be similar to the great eclipse of 1806.

RAPID WORK.—At a sale of a vessel by Mr. Jackson, auctioneer at Whitehaven, at the Albion Hotel last week, one of the builders, who was at Glasgow at the time, actually made his biddings by telegraph.

ENGLISH AND FRENCH SOLDIERS.—It is said that the British and French soldiers, except for a short time in 1792, have not fought under the same banner since the wars of the Crusades. The rivalry that will exist in the allied army to exceed each other in deeds of daring, will make them terrible to their Russian foes.

TATTLERS.—Like a bell that's rung for fire; like a ceaseless auction-crier; like oft times a graceless liar, mischief-making tattlers go; stopping you with quaking fear, whispering as you lend an ear—"Mercy on us, did you hear—Charlotte A. has got a beau!

The young men fall on their knees before you; but remember it is but as infantry before calvary, that they may conquer and kill, or as the hunter who only on bended knee takes aim at his victim.

Why are kisses like the Creation?—Because they are made out of nothing, and all very good.

Horace Mann in a lecture on 'Woman' says, I see but one reason why woman should not preach the Gospel, and that reason is, that it is ten thousand times better to go about practising the Gospel, than even to preach it.

The polarity of any magnetic needle will be destroyed in a few minutes, by thrusting it into an onion. Few scientific men know this fact, and we never heard it alluded to in a lecture or essay on the subject.

MRS. WINSLOW.

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP, For Children Teething.

For the Nervous Affections, Convulsions, Fever, Inflammation of the Bowels, &c. that attend this period of children, she recommends it as sure to produce the desired effect, giving Rest to the Mother, and Relief and Health to the Infant.

A child in Congress-Street was cured by the Soothing Syrup, of Infantile Dysentery or Diarrhœa after being given over by the attending Physician.

Mr. Blackman, of Eddington says, it has never failed to cure the Dysentery or Diarrhœa in children whenever used in the village. Lots of it is sold.

One parent informs me his chi'd has suffered to an alarming extent, with Flatulence or Wind Cholic. Lately they have used the Soothing Syrup, and it always effects a speedy cure.

Hundreds of like instances might be enumerated.

PROOF POSITIVE.

Messrs. CURTIS & PERKINS:—Please send us a further supply of Soothing Syrup. We are selling large quantities of it, and from what we can learn, it is used with uniform success, both by children and adults, in all cases of Dysentry or Diarrhœa.

Yours respectfully,
W. D. CRUMBIE,
J. MORRILL.

New-York, July 10th, 1853, 318 Bowrey.

Hear the Brooklyn Daily Advertiser, of June 13th 1853.

We cheerfully comply with the request of a friend to insert the following letter which we are assured is from a lady of the first respectability, residing in Lowell, Mass., believing that a vast amount of suffering may be prevented, and many valuable lives saved, by calling the attention of mothers to this valuable prescription of an old and experienced nurse:

Dear Sir:—I am happy to be able to certify to the efficiency of Mr. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and to the truth of what it is represented to accomplish. Having a little boy suffering greatly from teething, who could not rest, and at night by his cries would not permit any of the family to do so, I purchased a bottle of Soothing Syrup, in order to test the remedy, —and when given to the boy according to the directions, its effect upon him was like magic, he soon went to sleep, and all pain and nervousness disappeared. We have had no trouble with him since; and the little fellow will pass through with comfort, the excruciating process of teething, by the sole aid of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Every mother who regards the health and life of her children, should possess it.

NEUROLOGY, or SCIATIC RHEUMATISM CURED.

This may certify, that for about four years I was seriously afflicted with a disease in the hip, which Physicians termed Neurology, or Sciatic Rheumatism, and resorted to various remedies without any permanent relief; have been under the care of a regular Physician for six months at a time. Last spring, had a very violent attack, which laid me up, when I made use of the Cramp and Pain Killer, prepared by Messrs. Curtis & Perkins, of Bangor. It gave me immediate relief, and I do not hesitate to say, that it is the best article I ever used. I cheerfully recommend it to all who may be afflicted with similar complaints.

HENRY HUNT.

HUNTER'S PULMONARY BALSAM.

Hear what the Daily Mercury of Bangor says of Doct. Pomroy.

Hunter's Balsam. It is not often that we can say anything favorable of patent medicines, on the testimony of those with whom we are acquainted, who have used and tested their merits. But in regard to Hunter's Balsam, put up by our fellow citizen, Jeremiah Curtis, Esq. we have the testimony of many of our own citizens and those of neighbouring towns, unanimous in its praise. The testimony of one individual with whom the public are acquainted, carries with it more weight than whole columns of certificates from strangers, whose faces we never saw, and whose certificates, for aught we know, may have been procured by fraud. See Dr. Benjamin L. Pomroy's testimony, in agent's hands, or Hunter's Pulmonary Balsam.—To those afflicted with Coughs, Colds, Consumptions, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, and all affections of the Lungs, we recommend Hunter's Pulmonary Balsam. It is believed to be the best article ever yet invented for these complaints. Price 50 cts. a bottle.

INDIAN DISPEPSIA PILLS,

For cure of Costiveness, Acidity of the Stomach, Bilious Habits, Headache, Dizziness, Heart Burning, Pain in the Side, Lung and Liver Complaints.

DYSPEPSIA AND IDIGESTION,

With Costiveness, Acidity of the Stomach, Heart Burning, Bilious Complaints,—producing Headache, Pain in the side, Loss of Appetite, and general Debility,—can be remedied, removed, and entirely cured, by the use of the Indian Dispepsia Pills. These Pills have effected the most astonishing cures in hundreds of cases of the above complaints, and are an invaluable remedy, in an especial manner, for Dispepsia. They are a mild and gentle Cathartic, operating mostly upon the blood, cleansing and purifying the same, and causing the digestive organs to perform their appropriate duties, with regularity.

COSTIVENESS.

Habitual Costiveness is, if not removed in time, a cause of more than half of the disorders and pains to which humanity is subject. The medicines too generally had recourse to, do more harm than good, as they weaken the peristaltic action of the bowels, and thus aggravate instead of removing the complaint.

Also, in all Bilious Diseases, attended with Pain in the Side and Right Shoulder Blade, with a dull, sallow countenance. In all Diarrheas,, Ague and Fever, Bilious Fever and sick headache, they are an invaluable Remedy.

They will be found the best Family Physic in the world, purifying the blood, restoring the appetite, and leaving the stomach and bowels in a healthy state. Price 25 cents per box.

For purifying the Blood, we do not believe these ills have their equal in the world.

AYER'S PILLS.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A

FAMILY PHYSIC.

THERE has long existed a public demand for ar effective purgative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is acrimonious and irritating to the bowels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pills produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Listlessness, Irritability, Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an aperient, they afford prompt and sure relief in Costiveness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, Scrofula and Scurvy, Colds with soreness of the body, Ulcers and impurity of the blood; in short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singularly successful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepare the system for the change of seasons. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, and restores the appetite and vigor. They purify the blood, and, by their stimulant action on the circulatory system, renovate the strength of the body, and restore the wasted or diseased energies of the whole organism. Hence an occasional dose is advantageous, even though no serious derangement exists; but unnecessary dosing should never be carried too far, as every purgative medicine reduces the strength, when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumerated here, but they suggest themselves to the reason of every body; and it is confidently believed this pill will answer a better purpose than any thing which has hitherto been available to mankind. When their virtues are once known, the public will no longer doubt what remedy to employ when in need of a cathartic medicine.
