Bengals Shade New York 2-1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Al Kaline, enjoying his best spring training season, hit a homer in the sixth inning Tuesday to give Detroit Tigers a 2-1 victory over New York Yankees at Fort Lauderdale.

It was the fifth homer of the exhibition season for the veteran outfielder who apparently has fully recovered from the broken collarbone he suffered in a game against the Yankees last season.

Don Mossi backed up Kaline's homer with some fine pitching. The Yanks got their lone run in the seventh on singles by Roger Maris, Hector Lopez and Phil Linz. It broke a string of 16 scoreless innings for Mossi.

Kansas City replaced Baltimore at the top of the American League exhibition standings by defeating Washington 7-6 at Daytona Beach. It was the Athletic's fourth straight victory and gave them an 11-4 record.

Rookie Dick Green doubled home the winning run as the Athletics pulled the game out with a four-run uprising in the ninth. Green had three hits, including a triple and two doubles.

BOWSFIELD WINS

Ted Bowsfield of Penticton, B.C., started for Kansas City and gave up all of the Senators' runs on nine hits. He pitched through the seventh to get credit for the win. He was replaced by Dale Willis.

Four-run rallies in the ninth brought Los Angeles Angels a 4-2 victory over San Francisco at Phoenix and Houston Colts a 6-4 triumph over Chicago Cubs at Mesa.

In other games Cleveland defeated Boston 5-3 at Tucson, Los Angeles Dodgers walloped Pittsburgh 19-6 at Fort Myers, Philadelphia trounced St. Louis 16-8 at Clearwater, Milwaukee edged Cincinnati 7-5 at West Palm Beach, Minnesota blanked Baltimore 2-0 at Orlando and Chicago White Sox nipped New York Mets 2-1 at St. Petersburg on Ron Hansen's single with a bases loaded in the fourth.

Tigers Sell Shortstop

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Detroit Tigers sold shortstop Don Buddin to New York Yankees' Richmond farm club of the International League Tuesday. The veteran infielder was on the roster of Detroit's Syracuse club in the International League, but had been training with the Tigers.

Elimination playdowns have been held all week to decide which teams will represent the local curling club. One of the foursomes is seen above. (l to r) Dan Durling, Dot Johnson, Wanda Hunter and Fred Connolly. This rink will be skipped by Eric Johnston who was missing when the photo was taken.

Race Favorites Announced For Grand National Classic

LONDON (CP)—Sentimental money from wealthy South Africans and shilling bets from matronly admirers of movie star Gregory Peck are dominating advance betting on the Grand National steeplechase, to be run Saturday at Liverpool.

Bit bets based on the gold-mining fortunes of Johannesburg millionaires are pouring into London bookmakers on Springbok, owned by 82-year-old Lord Joicey.

The horse itself has no connection with South Africa but the name Springbok designates a gazelle-like animal that is the republic's national emblem.

It is also the name of a famed South African rugby team, of which the nation is extremely proud.

Springbok is trained by Yorkshiremen Neville Crump, who has already prepared three national winners in Merryman, Teal and Sheila's Cottage. The horse despite falling at the first fence in last year's race is a tremendously powerful finisher and was installed 10-to 1 favorite at Monday night's call-over.

Next in the betting at 14 to 1 is Owens Sedge, a consistent grey horse whose odds have dipped steadily since its purchase by Teck. The actor is flying from the United States with his wife, Veronique, to see the race, and some experts feel the flow of cash from film fans may promote Owens Sedge to race-time favoritism.

TOUGH RACE

The National is one of the toughest races in the world, involving 30 fearsome fences and a circuit of approximately 4½ miles.

As a television spectacle, it has few peers in sport but not many of the big crowd that flock annually to the otherwise unrenowned suburb of Liverpool named Aintree will see much of the race. The track is simply too big for all-the-way visibility.

Adding spice overseas will be the Grand National sweepstakes, determining the destination of hundreds of thousands of pounds. The sweep is illegal in England and is never mentioned in English papers.

In a big field of 40 or so horses, any one can win the National. After the last hard winter, in 1947, Caughoo from Ireland sloshed home in the mud at 100 to 1.

This year, apart from Springbok and Owens Sedge, both of which may be at a false price, fancied candidates include:

Loving Record, a grey horse trained near Dublin that thrives on black treacle.

The 13 - year - old Kilmore, which won the race last year and now seeks a repeat victory with outstanding jockey Fred Winter aboard.

Nicolaus Silver, winner in 1961 and apparently returning to form after some dull efforts.

Team Spirit, a tiny horse that is smaller than the fences he has to jump, but never seems to run out of puff.

350 Canadians Draw Tickets On Rich Classic

DUBLIN (CP) — More than 350 Canadians have drawn tickets in the Irish Hospital Sweepstakes based on this Saturday's Grand National steeplechase at Aintree, England, but they won't know until Wednesday night how their chances are of copping the top prizes of $150,000, $60,200 and $30,100 awarded holders of tickets on the first three horses to finish the gruelling classic.

During Monday and Tuesday 358 tickets held by Canadians were drawn on the 73 horses eligible for the Grand National. Final acceptance is Wednesday night when those who will actually run will be announced.

Four of the 73—Fredith's Son, Springtime Lad II, Rattling Run and Hiawatha II — were scratched in the last week. Other eligibles may not post entries by the Wednesday deadline.

A preliminary callover of odds also is expected after the final acceptance.

All persons holding tickets on non-starters or horses who finish out of the money will win residual prizes based on the total amount in the pool of the state-run lottery set up to aid hospitals in the Irish Republic.

Henry Cooper Retains Title

LONDON (AP) — Henry Cooper retained his British and Empire heavyweight boxing titles with a fifth round knockout of challenger Dick Richardson of Wales before a crowd of 11,000 at Wembley Indoor Stadium Tuesday night.

Cooper sent Richardson staggering to the canvas after two minutes, 49 seconds of the fifth with one left hook to the jaw followed immediately by another.

The former Welsh milkman slumped flat to the canvas without a hope of getting up.

It was the 23-year-old Cooper's first fight since April, 1962. He weighed 188 pounds to Richardson's 207.

Ohio State Sponsors Bill To Ban Boxing

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Three Ohio state representatives sponsored a bill Tuesday to outlaw professional boxing in Ohio.

"Due to the unfortunate death of one of Ohio's outstanding athletes, we feel that professional boxing should come to a halt," they said in a joint statement.

"The Ohio legislature has seen fit to outlaw dog fights, bear fights and cockfights. The least they could do is the same for humans."

Offering the measure were Republican Reps. James Thorpe, James Rapner and Robert Netzley. Their action followed the death Monday of Davey Moore of Columbus and Springfield, of a brain injury suffered in his losing defense of his featherweight championship at Los Angeles last week.

CHINESE DETAIN 10,000

MACAO (Reuters) — Travellers arriving here Saturday from the South China province of Kwangtung said Chinese authorities have detained about 10,000 people in Canton on charges of anti-socialist activities. The travellers said the detainees were accused of selling goods for profit on the free market and deserting from factories and people's communes.

SPORTS FRONT

Juveniles Are Ready

A New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island hockey champion will be crowned here Saturday night when Bathurst Juveniles and Charlottetown Abbies battle in a sudden death fixture.

The Bathurst outfit comes with a big reputation. They trounced Saint John Juveniles 17-1 in the first game of a home and home series which never was completed. The Bathurst folks have taken quite a liking to the youngsters and their coach, Jim Boland, tells us that they are really packing them in.

Abbies won the provincial crown by beating Summerside in straight games and are expected to give a good account of themselves in this crucial encounter. It is hoped that folks will give the juveniles the break they deserve and turn out in large numbers Saturday night to watch them perform.

These youngsters always play a bang-up game of hockey and there's action in abundance in these juvenile encounters. This one coming Saturday should certainly be no exception.

Game time has been fixed for 7.30 and nobody need stay because they want to watch Canadiens host Leafs in Montreal. The juveniles will see to it that you are back in your living rooms in plenty of time for this third game of the Stanley Cup semi-finals.

Make up your mind now that you intend to give your support to the juvenile cause. The players and their promoters would surely like to see you get on the bandwagon.

The Abbies will likely need all the support they can muster when they take to the ice against this strong aggregation from Northern New Brunswick.

Mr. Dyson's Visit

TRACK and fied enthusiasts throughout the province will welcome to Prince Edward Island today Geoffrey Dyson, national track and field coach of the Dominion Command, Royal Canadian Legion.

Mr. Dyson who has done outstanding work in England in this phase of sport was signed last summer by the Legion in Canada to work among Canadian track and field stars. The Legion feels that the acquiring of Mr. Dyson will give a great boost to track and field activities throughout this country.

This evening Mr. Dyson will be guest at a dinner tendered jointly by the provincial command of the Legion and the department of physical education. This function commences at 7.30 at The Charlottetown Hotel.

Thursday morning Mr. Dyson will address an assembly at Civic Auditorium Summerside and at noon will be guest of honor at an informal lunch tendered by the George R. Pearkes branch of The Canadian Legion. Later in the afternoon Mr. Dyson will return to Charlottetown and at 2:30 will be at Birchwood High School auditorium for an assembly.

This province has seen a great increase in interest in track and field and the visit of Mr. Dyson should make that interest even greater.

Sports Front welcomes this distinguished sports personality to our province.

School Series

THAT second interscholastic game between Birchwood High and Queen Charlotte scheduled for yesterday didn't come off. The 'flu epidemic was the winner that time.

Birchwood threw a bit of a surprise last week when they won the opener of this best-of-five set. Of course, Birchwood boys will tell you it wasn't any upset. They'll insist they have the better team. But the lads from the North River Road house of learning will not agree. They'll insist it was a mistake and that it will not happen again.

Those who witnessed the action in the opener are eagerly looking forward to the next one which will probably go Thursday evening.

Congratulations

CONGRATULATIONS to Vince Mulligan and his St. Dunstan's High School team on retaining their interscholastic Senior 'A' hockey crown. They went through the entire season without a defeat.

That's quite a record and Vince is surely proud of his outfit.

Hawks Take Series; Crush Combines 12-3

MONCTON (CP) — Moncton Hawks scored almost at will in the third period here Tuesday night to crush Prescott-Kemptville Combines 12-3 and win the Eastern Canada Allan Cup quarter finals.

The first lopsided win in the best-of-five series gave the Maritime Senior champions a 3-1 edge in games and the right to advance against Sherbrooke Braves in eastern semi-finals.

That best-of-five series, to be played in the Eastern Townships city, likely will get underway this weekend and will be a best-of-five.

It was 4-1 for Hawks when the third period opened. Playing near-perfect hockey, Moncton shot eight straight goals in the first 15 minutes and their forechecking bogged down the Ottawa District representatives.

Combines, who won the second game 6-2 after losing the first 5-3, managed to score two late goals.

Hawks won the third game of the series 4-3 Sunday night. All games were here.

Ronny Gaudet, Phil Doiron and Simon Nolet each scored two goals to lead Hawks. Jacquets Allard playing-coach Doug McPhee, Al Flanagan, Doug Howatt, Shermie White, and Oscar Gaudet got singles.

Andy Despard, a standout through the series, scored twice for Combines. Guy Trottier scored the other.

Ronny Gaudet's goal after 43 seconds of the first period was the only scoring on the session. Hawks built up a 4-0 lead in the first six minutes of the second on goals by McPhee, Oscar Gaudet and Allard. Despard scored for Prescott-Kemptville.

Scoring at fast intervals, Hawks kept the 5,300 fans out of their seats through the first 15 minutes of the third period.

Badminton Play Underway Today

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Canadian badminton championships open here today with eight titles at stake and the promise of another showdown between two players rated among the best in the sport.

If the early matches of the men's singles go as expected, it will mean a Saturday night finale between Erland Kops, tacitum Dane and acknowledged world champion, and a rising and unpronounceable name — Rattana Saeng-Suang Charanog—of Thailand.

Kops won the Canadian title on his first tour through Canada in 1961, and has every other major badminton trophy on his shelf. Charanog has beaten him once. In their latest big meeting early this month, Kops held sway and picked up the Scottish world invitational title.
