LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

FUR GOODS A SPECIALTY.—Beer Bros

CITY TAXES.—The list af defaulters will be published next week. Pay up and save expenses and exposure.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the close of the morning service to-morrow.

IN TROUBLE AGAIN.—The Boodler, on her trip from West River, yesterday morning, grounded in the vicinity of Rocky Point, and was detained about three quarters of an hour.

MISS GAULT, of Salvation Army here, and daughter of Sir Thomas Gault, will preach at Heartz's Hall, to-morrow at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. Roome and Mrs. Beer will conduct the singing.

A NEW BARRACKS.—The corner stone of the new Salvation Army Barracks at Fredericton was laid on Thursday afternoon by Lieut.-Governor Fraser in the presence of a large assembly.

A. O. H.—The members of Division No 1, A. O. H. are requested to meet in their Hall on to-morrow (Sunday) at 8.15 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of attending the funeral of their late brother Peter McNaughton.

AGNOSTICISM.—The Rev. James Simpson will deliver another one of his series of lectures on Agnosticism vs. Christianity in St. Peter's Church to-morrow evening. Subject: "Christ's Divinity Proved by His Work."

FROM HALIFAX.—The steamer Fastnet arrived from Halifax about eight o'clock last night with a general cargo. She leaves for Summerside this afternoon, and will sail from that port for Halifax on Sunday morning.

FUNERAL TO-MORROW.—The funeral of the late Peter McNaughton will take place to-morrow morning, leaving the residence of John Hughes, Kent Street West, at 9 o'clock, for St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to Lot 65 cemetery.

THE BRIDE FAINTED—An Amherst paper says: "It is reported that a worthy pastor in an adjacent village went some distance to be married. As the bride entered the church she fainted, and is now seriously ill. The wedding has been postponed for a time."

THE FLORIDA.—The sailing from here of the Florida on Friday, Nov. 16, will be the last of the season between Charlottetown and Boston. The trips will be resumed next spring just so soon as navigation of the strait permits. The Florida will go South and resume her route between Mobile and Port Tampa.

THE COLLEGIUM.—The Collegium for October is to hand. If anything it surpasses in interest any of the previous reviews for some time past. One of the many interesting articles which appear in it, will be found reproduced on our first page. We are able to republish it by the kind permission of the editor of the Magazine.

SOCIAL.—The social in Masonic Temple last night was most successful. About forty couples were present and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Miss Burris furnished the music for dancing. The dancing was on the spacious stage, which was cleared for that purpose. Ice cream and other refreshments were served during the evening.

THE ONLY GENUINE.—The Sydney coal that I handle is from the Old Mines at North Sydney, properly known as the Sydney Mines, and is the only genuine Sydney coal having a registered trade mark as such; and the public are coutioned against other coals sold with the prefix "Sydney," that they are not the genuine "Sydney coal."—R. McMILLAN.

PERSIAN CURIOS. — A lot of Persian curios are on exhibition in the show window of Messrs. Johnson & Johnson's Kent Street drugstore. They include many rare specimens of eastern ornaments, and a full sized lady dressed in their outdoor costume; leaves from a bible in the language spoken by Christ when on earth, but now extinct; also passports required of all foreigners travelling through Russia. They will be taken out either Tuesday or Wednesday next.

FOR BOSTON.—The steamer Florida left for Boston last evening. The passengers going by her included: W A Mellett, Mrs Mellett, Mrs Clow, Mrs A E McInnis, Mrs Nelson, Mrs Moore, A Campbell, E McLean, Jessie Rowe, Mary Welsh, K McInnis, A McInnis, M McInnis, Wm Percil, Mrs Stewart, Miss L A McInnis, Miss Nelson, Miss Moore, Bessie Fraser, Emma Stewart, John Campbell, Mrs T L Stewart, Annie McGarry, Maggie McGarry, Laura Landrigan, Emma Mullen, Georgie Gallant, Alice Foley, Mrs Emma Ashton, O J Mellet, L Mellet.

AN ISLANDER INJURED.—We regret to hear that Mr. Alexander McCabe, son of Mr. Thomas McCabe, of the Gas Works, recently fell from the window of his boarding house at Taunton, Mass., and had his back broken and several ribs fractured. The news of the unfortunate occurrence was received here yesterday, by letter from Mr. James Macdonald, of Fall River, Mass., formerly of Charlottetown. The letter is dated Oct. 30, and at at the time of writing Mr. Macdonald was not in posse sion of the particulars. His information was that Mr. McCabe had been injured as above stated and was in the hospital at Taunton in a precarious condition. Mr. McCabe left Charlottetown about five years ago, and for the last four years he has been employed as engineer in a cotton factory. Mr. Macdonald says he was well thought of by his employer and all who knew him. The news is a great blow to his parents, who have telegraphed their daughter in Boston for particulars. Up to the time of going to press, however, no further information had been received.

THE WEATHER.—Winds increasing to strong breezes or moderate gales, south to southwest, fine today, rain by tomorrow.

THE LATE PETER McNAUGHTON.

His Mortal Remains Arrive Last Evening —Funeral To-Morrow.

The remains of Mr. Peter McNaughton, the victim of Thursday morning's sad catastrophy at Moncton, were removed to the Commercial Hotel, that city, the same day, where they were viewed by a large number of friends and sympathizers during the day and evening. Yesterday morning the body was removed to Charlottetown, arriving last evening. The members of Division No. 1, A. O. H., and a goodly number of friends, met the body at the station, and the funeral from there to the residence of Mr. John Hughes, Kent Street West, was a large one. The interment will take place at Lot 65 to morrow. Before leaving Moncton, a funeral service was held in St. Bernard's Church, which was largely attended. The deceased was a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, having joined No. 2 Division, St. John, some time ago. The funeral arrangements were under the direction of No. 1 Division, A. O. H., Moncton, and the remains were accompanied to Charlottetown by County President Mr. P. Gallagher. Mr. J. F. Gallagher, President of No. 2 Division, A. O. H., St. John, and ex-President W. J. Crowe, came on to Moncton to be present at the funeral. The members of the A. O. H. preceded the hearse to the I. C. R. depot. On the beautiful rosewood casket were deposited three handsome wreaths. Two of the wreaths were from the St. John Division of A. O. H. and the Moncton Division of A. O. H. The third was from Mr. J. E. Bigelow, of Truro, with whom the deceased had considerable business transactions.

Mr. McNaughton had his life insured for $3000, having recently taken out a policy in the Home Life, represented by T. J. Gallagher. This policy which was for $1,000 arrived at Moncton on Friday morning.

The Transcript says: Mr. McNaughton's father died years ago, and since that time he has been the support of his widowed mother and the younger members of the family. He was a good, kind and dutiful son, and a staunch friend. Since coming to Moncton he has by his enterprising spirit and through business ability made for himself many friends and his very lamentable fate will be greatly regretted by his many friends and acquaintances.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Alexander A. Bruce returned last evening from Boston and New York.

Dr. Darrach, Kensington was registered at the Hotel Davied yesterday afternoon.

J. J. V. O'Connor, Montreal, and D. C. Draper, Preston, Ont., were registered at the Hotel Davies this forenoon.

At latest accounts Mr. Francis Bain, of North River, was still living but very low.

The St. John Telegraph is authority for the statement that the Minister of Militia will not come to Charlottetown on account of the lateness of the season.

Hon. D. Laird, L. H. Davies, M. P., Dr. Robertson, ex-M. P., and S. F. Perry, M. P., are in St. John, attending the convention of the Maritime Liberals.

Registered at the Eureka Hotel yesterday: Felix Landry, Discouse, C B; Sarah Beairsto; O'Leary, C B; Dr Morris, Milcove; Capt H Benoit, Arichat; A Ganior, do; W Fraser, Vernon River.

Mr. P. Gallagher, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, Moncton, and County President of Division No. 1, A. O. H., at that place, arrived here last evening with the remains of the late Peter McNaughton. He is registered at the Hotel Davies.

A GREAT SUCCESS.—The congregational entertainment and social in St. James' Hall last evening was a great success in every respect. There was a large attendance, and a splendid literary and musical programme was capitally carried out. Coffee and cake were served during the evening. Rev. T. F. Fullerton presided.

Much Ado About Ladies' Jackets.

While importers of Ladies' Jackets have been singing their praises we kept very quiet. We now think it's time to speak out, both for our own interest and that of ladies who intend purchasing.

FIRSTLY.—We have a large variety of cloths in the leading colors from which to select.

SECONDLY.—For a given quality we will make a Jacket to order for less money than is paid for imported ones.

THIRDLY.—Our cutter, Mr. Ross, never makes a misfit of a Ladies' Jacket. Testimonials can be had from our customers and they are many.
