JEWISH FASTS AND FEASTS.—Miss Ben-Oli will deliver an address on "The Fasts and the Feasts of the Jews," in Zion Church to-morrow, Friday, evening at 8 o'clock. The subject is an interesting one and we advise all who can do so to attend.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.—Mr. P. J. Kilbride, Postmaster at Inverness, Lot 11, has received advices from Parry Sound, Ont., conveying information that his brother, John Kilbride, son of the late John Kilbride, of Inverness, was accidentally killed on Friday morning, Aug. 30th, while attending a blast on a part of the railway of which he was foreman. He leaves seven brothers and two sisters to mourn their loss.—Summerside Journal.

PUT UP NO MORE.—The Halifax Herald says: "In the cheaper court yesterday afternoon, judgment was delivered in the case of Penny vs. the queen in favor of the plaintiff. In the case of McDonald vs. the queen, a verdict was entered for the queen. The plaintiff was injured some time ago in Plover, while goods were being unloaded from the government steamer Stanley at that place. The judge could find no negligence on the part of the steamer's employees, and did not call on the defence to reply." This completely exonerates first officer Murchison of the Stanley, against whom the charge was mainly directed.

SCOTT AT SOURIS.—The Stipendiary Magistrate for King's Court held court at Souris on Wednesday last, and disposed of the following cases for violation of the Canada Temperance Act:

Angus B. McDonald confessed, and was fined $50 and costs—paid.

Ephraim McKie confessed, and was fined $50 and costs or two months' imprisonment.

Angus McDonald was also fined $50 or two months' imprisonment.

Dugald McIsaac was also fined in $50 and costs or two months' imprisonment.

John Welsh, St. Peter's Bay, was fined in $50 and costs or two months' imprisonment.

In the case of Mary Bayers, adjourned from St. Peter's court, judgment was given and a fine of $50 and costs or two months' imprisonment, imposed.

John Morris and M. J. Foley were, today, fined $50 and costs.

BALL AT THE SEA VIEW.—The popularity of the Sea View Hotel at Souris is evidenced by the gratifying fact that even now after the season of travel is past, it is overcrowded with guests. We have no doubt that this is due largely to the care and attention of its active and energetic hostess, and to the widespread reputation of its host as a prince of caterers. However this may be, the point to be noted now is that Mrs. Coy gave a ball at the Sea View last evening. It is needless to say that the youth and beauty of Souris were there, and that many of the commercial friends of the Sea View from abroad took an active part. It was literally an assemblage of fair women and brave men. And the music, Ah, the music! "Splendid," "A wondrous noise," "Exquisite," were some of the words used to describe it, and when it is known that Miss Dagwell, Mr. Blanchard, Dr. McLean, and Mr. E. McDonald were among those who provided it with piano, violin and mandolin, it will readily be believed that these adjectives were not too strong, and metaphorically Paddy White was in the shade. The dancing was varied by vocal choruses and a capital solo by Miss Florence Earle. "I'll Not Let You Play In Our Yard." The entertainment was, of course, maintained until the "wee wee" hours aye.

At the close Auld sang "Sine and God save the Queen" were rendered in good style, and one who was present remarked that the only thing wanting was a speech from Judge Reddin.

THE WORLD OF SPORT. The Wheel.

A Worcester Mass., despatch of the 7th says: Colburn, the bicyclist, who left Boston at 12 o'clock last night to ride to New York inside of 24 hours, reached here at 3:20 a. m., and made a stop of 20 minutes. His rear wheel had sprung but was repaired in the time allowed for the stop.

According to a despatch from Toronto the Amateur Athletic Association of Canada has decided that recognition of class B bicycle riders is a violation of the rules of the association, and will request the Canadian Wheelmen's Association to take such action as will remove the difficulty.

The Ring.

At Washington, on Monday, Attorney-General Harmon reiterated the statement that the Co-bett-Fitzsimmons fight will not come off on any ground over which the United States has jurisdiction. The talk that the six nations or other Indians have exclusive right over their reservations or country and by adopting the prize fighters as members of the tribe can put them outside the pale of federal jurisdiction is regarded in federal legal circles as simply nonsense, without basis of fact. The further contention that there is any ground within the boundaries of the United States over which the state has not jurisdiction, is equally absurd. "Sluggers" in the Missouri river, which is classed as Neutral ground, is under the police jurisdiction of Missouri.

Mr. Benjamin Chappell, who left here three weeks ago, has written home a long and very interesting account of his trip to Winnipeg, passing through St. John, Montreal, Ottawa, Rat Portage and along Lake Superior. The ladies we have made saucers for this fall say they are gems, and it affords us great pleasure when we hear them say, "I am delighted with my new saucers, it beats the ready-made all to pieces." Those ladies know now that the right place to have a good stylish saucer made is at John McLeod & Co's.

THREE-MINUTE CLASS.

The following horses scored up in the order named: Prospector, owned by John McLean, M. P. Souris, driven by Curtis; Rollo Bay Boy, owned by W. B. Webster, driven by Webster; Lady Rosebelle, owned by Frank Larkin, St. Peter's Bay, driven by Larkin.

First Heat—After scoring several times the horses got the world. There was a pretty contest between Prospector and Rollo Bay Boy for the first place, which speedily resulted in favor of the former. All the horses trotted squarely and honestly—the trotting of Prospector and Rollo Bay Boy being greatly admired. Prospector was clearly preferred by the boys, but Lady Rosebelle barely saved her distance. Time, 2:16.

Second Heat—In this heat also Prospector trotted without a break. The heat was a procession through the paddock, and Rollo Bay Boy came up well on the home stretch and at the finish was at Prospector's wheel, Lady Rosebelle had to run for it on the home stretch in order to save her distance. Time, 2:49.

Third Heat—Prospector again led from the start, Rollo Bay Boy a rather bad second, and Lady Rosebelle (having had a change of drivers) a good third. Time, 2:44.

GREEN RACE.

The entries were: Maud McKie, by Billie McKie, owned and driven by Alexander McInnis; Lucy Townsend, by Principal, owned and driven by W. H. Townsend; Rollo Bay; Chief, by Eastern Chief, owned by Dr. McDonald, Dundas; and Laurier, owned and driven by J. T. McAdam.

First Heat—After scoring a number of times the horses got away. Maud McKie forged to the front at the first turn, and was never passed. There was a sharp tussle for second place between Chief and Rollo Bay, the latter being forced to take the third position. Laurier was away at the rear of the procession and was distanced at the finish. Time, 3:18.

Second Heat—In this heat Lucy Townsend forged to the front shortly after the start and held the lead until just before the half was reached, when Maud who had broken badly at the beginning came to the front again, trotting capably and showing good promise for the future. Chief finished a good third. Time, 3:09.

Third Heat—Maud McKie led from the start in this heat and the contest was for second place between Lucy Townsend and Chief. The former held the second position, until being pressed too hard, she broke upon the home stretch and was passed by Chief. Time, 3:09.

Between the heats Billie McKie, greatly to the delight of the crowd, gave an exhibition mile, with running mate, a 22 lb. B. (the little Billie) was in fine form and greatly admired.

Most Contemptible, Indeed.

The trick which some dealers have of charging a high price for wine on the strength of an imposing label, has been found out. The public know better. The Bordeaux Claret Co. have been educating the public lately to the knowledge that a good wine, having age, and flavor and stimulus can be had for half the price which has been asked for wines in every way inferior. Think of a dozen quarts of a sound, old Claret, or Burgundy, or Sauterne for $3. and $4. The Bordeaux Claret Company have brought the prices to this pass in order that a good wine, healthful to the system, may be within the reach of all. The result of this most incredible cheapness has been that orders are pouring in from all parts of the country. Address—Bordeaux Claret Co., 30 Hospital St., Montreal. Oct. 8 to 12 & wky.

Blowing Their Horns!

Lots of people in our lines make a big blow on their horns to the old tunes of "25 per cent. discount," "33 1/3 per cent. discount," "No one can buy as cheap as we do," "No Furs like ours and the One Price Band," and lots of other such rubbish. Don't you believe it. Talk is cheap. Blow, brag and bluster may catch the ear of the buyer for a time, but it won't keep his trade.

The people who advertise in this way is to sell and not to satisfy. Their reputation is almost as good as the average circus—all promise and very little show. These are not methods of doing business. We believe in marking our goods at prices that will not allow big discounts. We are able to say, without "blowing," that our stock is CLEAN, FRESH and NEW; and although we had no big discount sale or collection of rubbish as a side show the past week, we were as busy as ever, and our sales have been larger than ever. The public have confidence in our way of doing business, and that is

Our stock is well bought, and we offer the following regular goods at lowest prices:—

W. A. Weeks & Co., THE PEOPLES STORE, Wholesale and Retail. Charlottetown, Oct. 9, 1895.

RACES AT SOURIS.

Disappointment was generally felt and expressed on account of the non-appearance of the horses entered for the free-for-all race. The managers of the races as well as the cheated public have a right to complain when horsemen seem to fulfill their obligations, as in the case of yesterday.

The weather yesterday afternoon was as fine as could be expected at this time of the year, the track was in good order, and many hundreds of women as well as men were present.

Among the spectators were His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, Dr. Walker, Rev. D. F. McDonald, Rev. Father McLennan, Mr. Dillon, Herman McDonald, Esq., the aged and respected chief of Her Majesty's Vice-Consul Carlton, and many other prominent residents of that quarter of the globe from which wise men come.

The judges were Henry Squarbridge, Dr. Hyman and George B. McEachern, (starter). Time—Three Minute Hooper.

Nothing less Excellent, Please.

The public, having proved the superior properties of Wilson's Invalid's Port Wine, do not do not want anything inferior to that unique article. One does not willingly go back to coal oil from electric light.

Wilson's Invalid's Port has made thousands of patrons by merit alone. Invalids need a something to stimulate and nourish, something that will make them hopeful, and buoyant, making them feel that they are gaining strength, and that they have a lease of happy life still before them. This is exactly what Wilson's Invalid's Port does. It is a fine old wine and extremely pleasant to taste, but while one tastes it, it does more than produce a stimulating effect. It is a blood maker. It is a renewer of strength. Sold by all dealers at $1.50 per bottle, 12 bottles, half case $4.00 or 75 cents per bottle. Address—Bordeaux Claret Co., 30 Hospital Street, Montreal. Oct. 8, 246.

Everybody should like Celery. The taste for Celery has to be acquired. You remember that when Robinson Crusoe gave his man Friday salt to eat, he spit it out as something very disagreeable, but all the same salt was essentially beneficial to health. The taste for Celery is as readily acquired as any other food, and in no one article are there such medicinal properties found as in the Celery. Pain's Celery Compound is a grand medicine, but why buy it as good an article in the shape of a bunch of Celery for 10 cts. Order your winter supply now. A plan for keeping Celery through the winter given with each order when asked for. Address—J. J. GAY & SON,

THE SAIL BOAT RACE TO-DAY.

The sail boat race promoted by Messrs. Charles J. Patton and John Worth took place to-day. The course was from Pownall Wharf around the black buoy off St. Peter's Island, thence around the buoy at West River and back to Pownall Wharf, a distance of about fourteen miles.

At eleven o'clock this forenoon seven boats were started, viz. one owned by Geo. Judson, of Alexandria, and two by James H. Judson, of the same place; also one each by Daniel Taylor, James Taylor and Geo. Land, of St. Peter's Island, and one by J. H. VanBuskirk, of Charlottetown.

The boat owned by Daniel Taylor finished first, crossing the line at 23 minutes of two o'clock, the second at 13 minutes of two, and the third at 2. The other boats had not finished at two o'clock. The wind was from the northwest, and very heavy outside the harbor. The first prize was $9, the second $5.

Mr. John Worth was starter, and L. McLean, judge.

MARRIAGE BELLS.

A very happy event took place in the Methodist Church at Windsor South, when Mr. Hamilton Laird, son of Alexander Laird, Esq., of North Rustico, led to the altar, Miss Martha L. Pearson, eldest daughter of Nathaniel Pearson, Esq.

The services were performed by the Rev. Mr. Howard, pastor of the Church. The bride was beautifully attired in a pale blue crepon trimmed with ribbon to match and carried a large bouquet.

The maids of honor were Miss Mary Pearson, sister, and Miss Carrie Henry, niece of the bride. They wore cream and pale grey cashmere, trimmed with ribbon and lace, and carried bouquets of pink roses. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Hamilton Laird.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion by the choir, of which the bride was a member. Mrs. Howard played the wedding march.

After the ceremony the friends of the bride, numbering over eighty, repaired to her home where they partook of a sumptuous repast, after which they left for their homes, amply satisfied with the evening's enjoyment.

The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents, among which was a beautiful bible, presented by the church, it being the first marriage performed in the church.

The happy couple have THE EXAMINER'S best wishes.

COMFORT IN OUTDOOR LIFE.

Dreary Fall days are all very nice when you can sit indoors over a grate fire, but to those whose occupation keeps them out doors much, the damp penetrating winds and cheerless cold are far from pleasant. These latter will thoroughly appreciate the boon which Fibre Chamois is proving as a warmth sustainer which will defy any wind and keep the body comfortably warm no matter how bitter the weather. A layer of it through coats, vests or jackets will not add to the weight but ensures a perfectly satisfactory and sanitary warmth, at the same time that it gives the body a stiffness necessary to style. oct10

A Big Seizure of Lottery Tickets.

Detroit, Mich., October 8.—Thousands of lottery tickets, sent to agents here, have been seized. The tickets were in the possession of the American Express Company which informed the government officials.

In each package was a private note to the agent, marked "price tickets," and inside was the request: "Please sell this ticket to a prominent business man who will not object to have us use his name as winner of a prize." The tickets seized are from different lottery companies.

He Wanted to Be Adopted.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Owen Jones lunatic from New York state, called at the White House today to see the president. He presented a newspaper poem, the burden of which was that a boy was wanted by the executive family and in all seriousness offered himself for adoption or employment in that capacity, with letter stating he could wash dishes and make himself useful in other ways. As Owen professed his coming by a threatening letter to the White House, the employee who had given the boy the poem, in the lunatic's opinion on former occasion had him taken into custody by a policeman.
