Where Are You Going
—ON—
Wednesday 5th of July?

If you have not decided on a day for pleasure and relaxation in the interval between the laborious spring work and the busy haying season, you cannot make a better decision than to select the above date and take in one of those enjoyable Tea Parties for which Kelly's Cross is famous.
Besides having a pleasant outing, you will have an opportunity of seeing the beautiful architectural design and finish of the new church, which was opened with auspicious ceremony on the 8th of last December, and at the same time a worthy cause, assisting in diminishing the debt on the same.

Needless to say all the refreshments, delicacies, and amusements usual at such gatherings will be provided by a hospitable and courteous congregation.
Remember the date—Wednesday, July 5th.

An "only original" circus is now giving performances at Christiania, Norway. The members of the troupe represent various grades of nobility. One baron is director of the educated dogs, another baron is a clown, the latter's wife, a baroness, charms the public with her songs; a countess beats the cymbals, a marquise twangs the zither and a duke blows the fife.

German railroad cars are not comfortable, but German railroad management is fair. For instance, according to a late agreement between the railroads, if a traveler now makes only part of the trip to which his ticket entitles him, the money paid in excess is returned to him provided the station master of the station where his trip was cut short has certified to that fact on the ticket.

The executioner of Paris, Mons. Deibler, had an insignificant lawsuit lately. But it led to the rediscovery of the fact that in olden times the French executioner was paid according to a fixed tariff. The highest price, 48 livres, was set on boiling a criminal in oil, 20 livres had to be paid for beheading a person, 36 livres for burning a witch, 10 livres for branding and 4 livres for whipping a malefactor, etc.
